The San Francisco Call today says that the date has been fixed for the hearing before the interstate commerce commission of the witnesses and coun-sel for the Pacific Coast Jobbers' and Manufacturers' association. The com-missioners will be in Los Angeles March 27, and in San Francisco April 2. At Los Angeles the matter of routing freight will be taken up. It is now thought probable that the commissioners will also go to Portland, where the Portland, Seattle and Tacoma manufacturers and jobbers may testify.

If the graded rates that the St. Louis jobbers ask for are put into effect and the differential based on water compe-tition is abolished, as they wish, it is asserted that they will come pretty nearly taking away all the territory for business purposes that the Pacific coast tobbers and manufacturers now have. jobbers and manufacturers now have.

A Guerilla Warfare.

"The Western Union and the railronds have a monopolistic contract to shut out the Postal company," says Gen. J. R. McIntosh, general counsel for the Postal Telegraph company, as reported by the Denver Times. "The Western Union has every railroad sign a contract that no competing lines shall be allowed to operate on the railroad be allowed to operate on the railroad right of way. Now, take the line be-tween here and Cheyenne. We ask for a right of way along the Union Pacific eight feet in width, and the railroad company and the Western Union are fighting us. The Western Union has a right of way 400 feet in width. The damage to the company would be nomi-nal, but the men we have had before nal, but the men we have had before the commission today placed a price on the right of way that we asked ranging from $2 to $3.50 per acre. The commissioners seem to be a fair-minded col-lection of gentlemen, and I have no idea what they will place the value

"But we are carrying the fight right on, and will seek to condemn right of way along the Union Paicfic line to Og-len. We then propose to construct a den. line from Salt Lake City via the Oregon Short Line to Seattle. The Postal comhas two transcontinental pany and we are now building the third. The line we are working on now comes from Chicago to Denver, from Denver to Cheyenne, thence to Ogden and so on to the coast. "When the company first started the into Russia in furtherance of the policy of D. M. De Witte, the finance minister, when the company first started the wires were strung along the turnpikes and the country rondways. We have come to the conclusion that we have as much right to string our wires along the railways as the Western Union, and we have begun a fight with the inten-tion of winning But the indication of Count Muravi-eff's hostility has unfortunately been followed by the announcement that Russia is again pushing her agants into Afghanistan, seeking the establishment of an agency at Cabul; that she is tion of winning. "I am in the saddle all the time, and I find it a fight of opposing ambushers, strengthening her hold upon Persia, in order to secure an outlet on the Persian gulf, and that she has moved troops close to the Afghan border within a march or two of Herat and is active in Kashgar, at the other end of the Afghan border. guerrilla warfare,as you might call it, that is the way the Western Union monopoly fights."

new Stakes since the last meeting of the Union, namely, the Jordan and Granite. Besides the loss of the schools, a large number of missionary workers, residing within the new Stakes, are now no onger under the jurisdiction of this Stake. First Assistant Superintendent R. S. Horne now resides in the Granite Stake, and has been appointed to a like position in that Stake Sunday school organization. This, of course, necessitated a reorganization of the superintendency. Elder Willard C. Burton was selected as the first assistant, and Elder Josiah Burrows as second assistant in the Salt Lake Stake superintendency. Elder Burrows has for the past six

KID REARDON CAUGHT.

George Reardon, a confirmed hop flend, known as "Kid," who escaped from Jallor Kimball two or three days ago, was nabbed by Detective Sheets and Sergeant Janney yesterday afternoon and lodged in jall. Reardon was tound at his parent's home. Jailor Sol Kimball will now probably have a chance of curing another unfortunate afflicted with the terrible morphine ambit.

in his labors as an associate in the perintendency of the Sunday schools of this Stake since May, 1883. The super-intendency had labored, he said, as three brothers, with great unanimity of feeling.

STAKE PRESIDENCY SPEAK.

President Angus M. Cannon referred in a reminiscent way to his association with the Sunday school work since his membership in the first school organ-ized in the Rocky Mountains, called together by Richard Ballantyne in 1849, in this city. He rejoiced to know that He rejoiced to know that unanimity existed throughout the Stake n all its varied organizations. Apostle Francis M. Lyman noticed this in the rganization of the new Stakes south of this city.

Elder Charles W. Penrose, of the Stake presidency, expressed the pleas-ure he felt in his visits among the Sunday schools to note the union and har nony that exists among all engaged therein. While the Sunday school work did not make much noise or stir in the vorld, it was of the greatest importance and its influence would be far reaching There was a tendency, he had noticed n some of the higher classes to some times waste time in useless and trivial technicalities that should be avoided or passed over. In reading, for instance, of "Peter's wife's mother who lay sick of a fever," no intelligence could b elicited in discussing what was the name of his wife's mother. So in read. ing Book of Moromon history it is of no moment whatever whether the wit nesses found the sword of Laban in the sacred box or outside that receptacle. Elder Joseph E. Taylor was the next speaker. He urged Sunday school instructors to seek for the spirit of the ord to aid them in their labors, and in putting forth principle and etrine onfine themselves to the revealed word of God and never venture on specula ion or opinion not sustained by that. etal 1 Elders Burton and Burrows were then et apart under the hands of the presilency of the Stake. Elder George M. Cannon, the suerintendent of the Granite Stake Sunlay schools, referred to the pleasure h in receiving an expression of appreciation from Superintendent Griggs of the labors of his former, associate and other workers now in the new Stake. He was agreeably surprised also to have sent him by Superintendent Griggs a nice sum of money to begin operations in housekeeping, being the Stake proportion of the nickel collections for 1899.

Superintendent Griggs annonced that next Sunday was "Humane Day" in the schools of the Church, on which occasion lessons of gentleness and kindness to dumb creatures should be specially inculcated.

Inculcated. Owing to the press of other duties, Elder Richard R. Lyman resigned from the charge of the Theological depart-ment of the Union meetings. Elder Thomas A. Clawson was appointed as instruction in that denominate and and instructor in that department, and was sustained unanimously. The Twenty-second ward branch school was requested to furnish the music at the next meeting of the Union in March.

Renediction was pronounced by Elder James D. Stirling.

There is no better medicine for the babies than Chamberlain's Cough Rem Its pleasant taste and prompt and effectual cures make it a favorite with mothers and small children. It quickly cures their coughs and colds, preventing oneumonia or other serious consequent It also cures croup and has been 1 in tens of thousands of cases without a single failure so far as we have been able to learn. It not only tires croup, but when given as soon as the croupy cough appears, will prevent the attack. In cases of whooping cough it liquifies the tough mucus, making it it inquines the todge interest, making it easier to expectorate, and lessens the severity and frequency of the par-oxysms of coughing, thus depriving that disease of all dangerous consequences.

two empires will march together seems not far off. To take the case of Persia. It has been lately stated in the Turkestan Gazette that the Russian government has already taken in hand the construction of the Julfa-Tabriz-Hamadan railway with a branch line to Teheran, as far as Bandar Abbas, at the bottom of the Persian Gulf. The work is to be carried on under the supervision of officers of the general staff, with the assistance icks, and is expected to be finished in 1903.

This route has been selected because it traverses the most important districts for Russia from an economic and strategic point of view. In Persia, as in Asia Minor, Russia's object, pursued with pre-determined tenacity, is to obtain an outlet to the sea on the south in order to command the world's commercial high road to India and to the far east. The Trans-Siberian railway will give her an all Russian route to northern China, but the persistence with which she is aiming at securing alternative routes by pushing south ward, entering into keen rivalry not only with Great Britain but also with Germany and France, working in Asia Minor, indicates the enormous scale of her ambition.

Another railway projected by Russia is to connect her commercial centers with Central Asia by the shortest route. It is to run from the south of European Russia to Turkestan, which poss resources scarcely inferior to natural those of Siberia.

In the development of this railway policy of Russia it is not necessary to see only the extension of a great military empire. The enormous population of South Russia is showing a commerdevelopment which would be checked if not arrested by enterprises of pure conquest. Even in Afghanistan, which has so long been the bone of contention between Russla and Great Britain, it is held by one school of British statesmen that a connecting line etween Merv, through Herat, and Candahar, to Quetta, where it would join the complete system of British India railroads, would aid in promoting civilization by developing commerce. though there seems little doubt that there is truth in the rumors of the Russians moving bodies of troops along their general Asian rallways, it is worth remembering that these are large used in the construction of the lines. largely This explanation, it appears, has been accepted by the British govern-ment, which, while taking precautions for self-defense, has shown a disposition in its general policy, not only in north China, but also in Persia and Asia Minor, to co-operate with the oth
