OGDEN.

OGDEN, UTAH, - OCT. 28, 1895.

Junction City Items.

Funeral services were held over the remains of Samuel Hart yesterday afternoon. He being very highly respected, it was one of the largest attended funerals seen in Ogden for some time.

Burt Starr Eastland and Ed Egan charged with firing the county court house were bound over in the sum of $500 each. The defense plead that they did not intend to burn the court house but only to burn a hole sufficient to allow escape.

Ex-Mayor W. H. Turner died yesterday afternoon after a lingering illness of several months. Funeral services will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Episcopal church.

In the Fourth district court the case of Frederick George was resumed Saturday morning and so far as proceeded with was on the same lines as the Coughlin trial.

At the Power dam work in Ogden canyon, a blast was fired, when a stray rock went through the tent striking Michael Kahl and crushing his arm.

LOGAN.

LOGAN, UTAH, - OCT. 28, 1895.

News From Cache.

The political pot simmers, but can hardly be said to have commenced to boil yet. There is a noticeable absence of the usual buttonholing street politicians, and there has been but one parade. The matter most frequently discussed in the recent Democratic convention and its new "declaration of independence," and the ideas of members of the two parties are as widely divergent upon this subject as upon that of the tariff. Messrs. Dahlquist and Christopherson of Salt Lake have addressed Scandinavians on Republicanism; John M. Zane talked for the [illegible] cause; Judge Judd proclaimed for Democracy; and Henry W. Lawrence explained Populistic principles. The populists held their convention in Logan and nominated the following officers: For State Senator, L. H. Norman; Representatives, Thomas Joseph, James Purdie Sr., and George Bradshaw.

Samuel Hendricks and Thomas Stratton were arrested Saturday for burglary, but on account of their youth and the respectability of their parents the charge was changed to petit larceny to which they pleaded guilty and received a twenty-five days' sentence. A number of boys were out hunting, and observing that Olaf Cronquist's place on the outskirts of town had been left unguarded, broke open the door of his house, helped themselves to food and scattered things around indiscriminately. Hendricks and a boy named David Evans still have a charge of malicious mischief to answer to, as they turned his hogs, horses and cattle loose, broke his stable and pig pen and engaged in such other malicious mischief as their ingenuity could devise.

Joseph Cowley and Joseph Kidd, two young men of Logan, were sentenced during the summer to two years each in the penitentiary, for cattle stealing. A petition for their pardon is now being circulated and signed. It is believed they have sincerely repented and under existing circumstances it is thought that justice and public safety do not demand their further incarceration.

George Callary's remains were brought from Pocatello on Wednesday for interment at his old home in Mendon. He was thought to be recovering from an attack of typhoid fever, but a relapse intervened and he died.

The Sage Brush Glee club has accepted a pressing invitation from Prof. Shepherd, of the choir at Paris, Idaho, to participate in a concert to be given in the Stake tabernacle at that place on the evening of November 8th.

Mrs. Aaron De Witt died on Saturday evening of typhoid pneumonia. The lady has resided in Logan for many years. The funeral services will be held tomorrow.

Editors Ward, of the Beobachter, and Davis, of the Oneida Standard, have been breathing the balmy air and viewing the beautiful scenery of Cache's capital city.

John Lloyd, a young man who came from Montana on a visit recently and is stopping with his sister, Mrs. J. A. Hendrickson, is down with typhoid fever.

On Friday evening Prof. Maeser held the last of a series of meetings in Cache valley in the interest of the Church Board of Education.

John H. Squires has returned to his home from a mission of about two and a half years to Germany.

The mine is now in shape to supply all teams from a distance cheap.

Slack, containing Nut and Pea, 10 cents per wagon load.

The Grass Creek Coal is worth twenty-five per cent more than any other Weber Coal.
