TODAY'S METALS:

SILVER 60¼
LEAD, $4.25
CASTING COPPER 16¼

The volume of business on the Salt Lake Exchange today was not great, for the selling by not one story—that there are buyers in the field for good stocks was shown by Daly-West and Grand Central, both of which have taken part in figure much above the ordinary. Daly-West, which is now shipping and promises to pay early dividends, sold at $12.50, which is about final, whereas some months of stagnation are bodies, based easily taken at $8.50. the highest prices yet reached by either of these companies.

The day's sales were 21,500 shares for $6,700.25. Daisy caused a little stir and sold up to 37½, while Daly did business at $12.50, and Grand Central, which was weak, the stock selling as low as 45. Northern Light also showed stationary at 4½, and Hercules sold at 67, where the stock was quoted as at the close of the call.

For mining stocks Eagle and Blue Bird took the initiative, a sale occurring at $1.30. Horning was active between 4 and 5 cents, and Iron Blossom sold at 3½ cents. Of Bingham mentioned Jennie 13, and Bonanza Kings changed hands at 65c. Uncle Sam, however, on shares having a market at a dollar.
