EVENING NEWS.

Friday, January 2, 1890.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

Free Lecture.—C. W. Stainer, Esq., will deliver his lecture on the Pyramids of Power, in the Eleventh Ward Assembly Rooms, on Monday evening, at 7.30 o'clock.

Police Court.—This morning, a case of disturbance was fined $5; one of fast driving and disturbance $20, and three of drunkenness and profanity were fined, two $10 each, and the other $5.

Attention Firemen.—To-morrow evening, at 7.30 sharp, is the regular meeting of the Salt Lake Fire Brigade.

All those holding books from the Library will please bring them in at the meeting. R. H. HARDY, Secy.

Good for Fat.—We are always pleased to notice a kindly act when it comes to our knowledge. Mr. P. J. Langer, who keeps a meat market on First South Street, during the holidays just over, sent around and got the names of all the poor persons in the 15th Ward, where he resides, and sent each a nice roast of beef for Christmas dinner.

Heavy Loss.—In our columns elsewhere, will be found notice of two more deaths in the family of Brother George Y. Smith, of Smithfield, Cache Valley. These make four deaths in the family, which is nearly broken up, within the last few weeks. The survivors have the sympathy of all in their heavy bereavement. The family came from Dundee, Scotland, May 9th, 1862; arrived here on the 20th of October following, and settled in Smithfield November 1st, 1862.

Feeding the Poor.—Yesterday morning, as per previous arrangements, the teachers of the Eleventh Ward visited all the houses of the several districts, inviting the people to donate such provisions, etc., as they felt like giving for the benefit of the needy. The response was most hearty and liberal. The donations consisted of not only the "substantial" but some of the delicacies. They were brought by the teacher to the clerk who has charge of the poor donations, and then divided, and carried by the deacons of the ward and others, to about thirty-five families. Coal will also be distributed in a day or two, as was done on Christmas day.

The Scandinavian Mission.

We have been permitted to peruse an interesting communication from Elder N. Wilhelmson, to Elder Franklin D. Richards, dated at Lorentzen, Denmark, December 3, 1879. The forepart of the letter describes the voyage over the Atlantic, on board the S. S. Wisconsin, which left New York on the 5th of last August, and arrived at Liverpool on the 16th, where the outgoing Elders were welcomed by President Wm. Hodge and Elder John Nicholson. Elders Wilhelmson and Samuel left Liverpool next morning, and reached Copenhagen, August 19th, in good health. The weather, at time of writing, was very cold, the Baltic being frozen for the distance of a mile out from the harbor, and indications were ominous of a long and, to many, a dreary winter. Many of the poor were out of work, and consequently, without food. The Saints in Utah had done a great deal, during the past season, in emigrating their relatives and friends from that country, and it was hoped that their worthy efforts would not cease, until all were delivered from the woe and misery which were impending. Elder Wilhelmson had visited all the conferences in the mission, and attended 43 meetings, which were well filled by saints and strangers also. During the past 12 months, 886 souls had been added to the Church by baptism. There were now in the field, 42 Elders from Utah, and three more were expected soon to arrive. Besides these, there were many faithful local Elders, all busy in the good work. Elders John Eyre and Jacob B. Johnson, from Spanish Fork, were on their way to Iceland. Two thousand copies of the "Voice of Warning," had been printed in the Icelandic tongue. One Elder had also been sent into Finland, who had received two baptisms since his arrival there, and stated that the people said they had seen him in vision previous to his coming, so that they recognized him when he came into their midst. The work in Northern Sweden was also progressing favorably. The Elders were followed from place to place by people anxious to hear their words, and when baptizing, great numbers would gather on the banks and listen reverently to the ceremonial words. Altogether, the Scandinavian Mission was in a good condition, and the prospects bright for a successful future.

"Enquirer" Notes.—Quite a number of relations and friends, (among whom was President Smoot), of Bishop James W. Loveless, of the Second Ward, Provo, gathered at his residence on Tuesday, Dec. 24th, to celebrate that gentleman's fifty-first birthday. A good time was spent, and the bishop received the hearty congratulations and good wishes of all present.

The Provo Manufacturing Company received over 1,000,000 pounds of wool, during the year 1879, and paid out over $150,000 in cash during the same time for that article. This establishment manufactured over $150,000 worth of goods in 1879, and paid out in the neighborhood of $80,000 in wages and incidental expenses and over $1,000 for fuel. The company will be in the wool trade this coming season, and as usual, will pay the highest prices.

The Coming Concert.—"You cannot afford to miss this musical treat," is one of the truthful and prominent lines on the posters for the Carlees Concert, to be given next Monday night. This splendid entertainment will consist of vocal and instrumental solos, by our most talented local singers and performers, and overtures and grand selections by the Carlees Orchestra and the Croxall Brass Band. The auditorium will be well warmed, and everything arranged for the comfort and convenience of the audience. Practices are going off rapidly. Everybody should patronize this excellent local attraction.

For Sale.—Mr. A. Pratt, editor of the Idaho Banner, wishes to announce that he has been compelled to cease the publication of the Banner, and hereby announces to the public his retirement from the field of journalism. His printing materials are for sale, at really bedrock terms, and consist of an entire outfit of press, new type, and all the requisites to run a newspaper, and also the subscription list, which numbers over 300, together with the whole business of the Banner. Price $400. He can be found at A. M. Mueser's residence, 15th Ward.

A Handsome Present.—On New Year's day, the 10th Ward choir presented their Ward with a fine Organ for the use of the meeting house. The instrument is of the Geo. Woods make, and is of pipe combined, and cost $275. The means with which it was purchased, were the returns from parties and entertainments, and subscriptions from different sources, gathered in by the personal efforts of the ward choir. The movement to obtain an organ was agitated last September, and the instrument, bought and installed, for, was presented yesterday.

Manly Sexton's Report.—John H. Tattle, sexton of Manly, sends us the following report of mortality in that place during the year 1879: Males 16, females 14; of these, adults 15, children 16. Cause of death: Old age; 4; lingering consumption; 1; inflammation of bowels; 4; dropsy; 4; diarrhoea; 5; inflammation of brain; 1; burned to death; 2; premature birth; 1; still-born; 1; lung fever; 3; convulsions; 1; brain fever; 1; crop; 1; accidentally killed; 1—total, 80.

A Good Suggestion.—"The Junction" suggests a laudable performance by the original Salt Lake Amateur Dramatic Company in the widow's mother of Elder Ensign D. Mueser, who it will be remembered, was one of the founders of that combination. We heartily second the motion.

NEW YEAR'S BANQUET.

Yesterday was the occasion of a grand banquet, arranged by Bishop Taylor and counselors, in the 10th Ward School-house, for the poor and the aged of the ward.

The house was beautifully decorated for the occasion with festoons, hanging baskets, flowers, flags and appropriate notices.

A few minutes past 2 o'clock, the Bishop called attention and wished all a Happy New Year, with his blessing, adding a few remarks appropriate to the occasion. The choir sang a hymn, and prayer was offered by Counselor Henry Emery.

The guests were then seated to the tables. The widows to the number of nearly 40 occupied the south table. President Taylor and President A. M. Cannon, and parts of their families, the missionaries' wives and others occupied the centre table, which was set by Counselor McKean's family. The north table was occupied by 50 of the aged and others. The blessing upon the feast was offered up by President Taylor. The guests were seated upon each of the tables by the good sisters of the Relief Society, who, under the direction of the Bishop and Counselors, were most efficient in making the occasion a gratifying success.

The tables presented a princely appearance, as they were tastefully decorated and sumptuously spread with the best the season afforded. The substantial as well as all the delicacies that could be ingeniously prepared or that heart could desire, were provided in abundance.

Over 100 persons partook of the dinner, and after the feast was indulged in by all to their entire satisfaction.

President Taylor arose and made a few remarks, wishing all a happy New Year, and an eternity of them to come. He was gratified in being present on this happy and fitting occasion at the opening of the year. Was much pleased to see the present effort made by the Bishop and his Counselors to reach after and comfort the hearts of the aged, and the poor and feeble widows. He was particularly gratified to see that the missionaries wives were remembered, for, said he, they should be the first in the world to be looked after and provided for.

He closed his remarks by invoking God's blessing upon the Bishop and upon all who had aided in setting up this feast for the Lord's poor.

President A. M. Cannon followed, with a few appropriate and encouraging comments, commending the efforts of the preceding year. Apostle Joseph F. Smith, who was present, added a few fitting remarks, encouraging the continuance of these feasts, and wished all a prosperous life through the coming eventful year.

The committee on decorations and the presiding officers and teachers of the Relief Society were tendered a unanimous vote of thanks for their valuable labors in making the occasion pleasant and agreeable to all.

The Bishop and his Counselors were also tendered a hearty vote of thanks by all present.

After the tables were cleared and removed, the choir and several individual parties rendered a few songs, and duets in a masterly style.

With a few remarks from the Bishop and a benediction by Counselor McKean, the interesting services were concluded, all having enjoyed themselves to their heart's content.

As a continuation of the feast, the remains of the dinner will be divided out to the poor and to the needy of the ward.

Thanks are due to Brother H. B. Clawson for the use of his elegant and commodious sleigh, the "Julia Dean," which was of much service in gathering up the materials for the feast from the several teachers of the Relief Society, and also in bringing the aged and infirm to the feast.

The "Bustler."—The first number of the Ogden Morning Rustler, Jan. 1, is before us. It bids fair to be a spicy little sheet, and is about the size of the "Dispatch," previous to its enlargement.

Stage Fare—Out and Beaten.—The Silver Reef Miner says:

The stage fare from Silver Reef to Deseret—terminus of the railroad—is $25.

On Christmas afternoon an old man, a resident of Leeds, was severely cut and beaten by some person or persons unknown. John Waters was arrested on suspicion.

The Utah Eastern.—Major Wilkes, Surveyor, left for Coalville Wednesday morning, to begin the preliminary survey of the projected railroad from that place to Park City. It is anticipated that the cars will be running between those two points by next July. If this is realized, it will evince great energy on the part of the railroad corporation.

A Kindly Courtesy.—Superintendent James Dunn, of the Provo Woolen Mills, on Monday last, treated the employees of that institution to free passes, to witness the performance of the "Octoroon," which, in the hands of the Home Dramatic Company created quite a furor in Provo, during the holidays. The Superintendent chartered the house for $50, and gave the work hands all a chance to see the play.

The "Junction" Colossus.—The New Year's Junction is at hand. It comes out in double size, or rather has an extra sheet, more than one side of which is devoted to a chronological recapitulation of the notable events, local and foreign, that transpired during the year 1879.

Other sides of the issue contain local matters, a tale of the civil war, entitled "Friendly Fire," and other interesting matters. The compilation of this mammoth number, shows commendable enterprise on the part of the Junction Association.

MEN AND WOMEN out of employment can find no more profitable employment than selling "Plain Home Talk and Medical Common Sense," a practical treatise on chronic diseases, sexual physiology and a thousand things worth knowing, by the popular physiological author, Dr. R. B. Fox. It is the cheapest book in the English or German languages, 1000 illustrated pages; just issued on new type for $1.50. Liberal discount to agents. Two copies by mail, postage prepaid, for Two Dollars. Try it.
