

FLOATING FRAGMENTS.

Barly Spring has come at last.

Now is the time to go for the garden.

The barometer indicates settled weather for a spell.

The citizens of Rawlins had a lynchng bee on Sunday last.

A man and wife are wanted to attend a small farm and dairy. See advt.

The Valley House, Dillon, is being taken down and moved in sections to Butte.

The establishment of May & Wood was burglarized early this morning.

A horrible accident has occurred on the Northern Pacific R. R., in Dakota Territory.

Mrs. Martha Ellen Thornton was accidentally killed, at Farmington, on Sunday evening.

The San Francisco Chronicle gives the anti-Mormon crusaders a dig under the waistcoat.

Fort Douglas appears to be afflicted with a deserting boom just now. Quite a number of the boys are taking French leave.

"Learning," said a down Easter, "is well enough, but it hardly pays to give a five thousand dollar education to a five dollar boy."

It is to be hoped the notice served upon the roughs of Rawlins will not increase the number of inhabitants here. Utah has had enough burglar businesses of late.

The first immigrating company of Saints from the Southern States was to leave Chattanooga to-day, for Manassa, Colorado. It was expected to comprise 75 souls.

The overland coach for Helena upset near Boulder two hours ago, last Friday night, injuring a lady named Bonnell so much that she had to stop at Boulder.

"If May & Wood had had a safe, Mr. May would probably have considered it safe to leave his cash in it; consequently he may consider himself in pocket by the omission."

At Mr. Savage's establishment, to-day, we saw a crayon drawing of the noted race horse "Admiral," done by an Indian named Paul Manuligowena. It is a creditable piece of artistic work for an Indian.

The offer of $5,000 to the inventor of a "humane" cattle-car has brought out 700 models, none of which come up to the mark, however. What seems to be wanted is a car carpeted with Wilton, furnished with mirrors and roomy enough so that all the old cars can have lower berths.

A gentleman of Roseman has shown the News an improved railroad spike of which he is the inventor and patentee. It screws into the wood instead of being driven the same as a common screw bolt, and it is claimed that it will revolutionize railroad spiking all over the country where soft wood is used for ties.

John Burke shot and killed himself last night at the Seven-Mile House, on the road from Helena to Benton. He was a miner of the Judith county, and a year or two ago received $5,000 for his interest in a mine at Maidenville. The act was probably caused by a too free indulgence in intoxicating liquor.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

High Council.—The members of the High Council are requested to meet in the Council House, on Friday evening, March 24th, at 7 o'clock.

W. W. TAYLOR, Clerk.

Thirteenth School District.—A meeting of much importance to the taxpayers of the 13th School District, this city, will be held at the schoolhouse, a week from next Monday. All interested should read the advertisement.

Poetic Entertainment.—Brother Clegg, the "Springville Poet," returned from a trip through the northern settlements last night. Tomorrow night he will give his poetic entertainment in the 18th Ward Schoolhouse. His productions which he recites, are all of unexceptionably high moral tone and sentiment.

Fires on the Union Pacific R. R.—On Sunday the oil house of the U. P. at Laramie was burned down. A few hours afterwards the paint house belonging to the same company, at the same place, took fire, and was consumed with its contents. The origin of both fires is a mystery. The aggregate loss is $9,000.

Coming this Way.—The wild wave is coming west. Oscar is now on his way to California. Whether he will give Salt Lake a sniff of his gigantic sunflower and drooping lily, does not appear. Some people out this way think if he had to plow up a ten-acre lot covered with the golden glories, he would look at the western weed as something else than a thing of beauty.

Of Course.—Now is the time of year when the man with a sunny smile and a bundle of pictures of minnow pears, gigantic apples, huge cherries and prodigious peaches and plums, puts in an appearance. He exhibits the pictorial representations of fruit which never grew in an eastern nursery in represents, being merely paper productions. Yet some of our obliging orchardists spend much money yearly in purchasing trees from such agents greatly inferior and less adapted to this part of the country than can be bought of any of our responsible home nurserymen.

Considerably Prostrated.—Justice Hyer necessarily feels greatly exhausted to-day after the severe strain through which he passed yesterday. The surgical operation for the removal of a large tumorous substance from his jaw and neck was of the most delicate description, requiring great skill and care. This was readily imagined from the fact that the tumor was close to the jugular vein. The surgeon, Dr. Benedict, was three hours in performing his work, which was done skillfully and thoroughly. Dr. Fowler, as well as Dr. Young, assisted at the operation.

LYNCHING AT RAWLINS.

A VIGILANCE COMMITTEE MAKES SHORT WORK OF A COUPLE OF ROUGHIES.

For some time past Rawlins, on the U. P. R. R., has been made the rendezvous of a gang of roughs, who have been suspected of connection with a number of recent outrages committed in various parts of Wyoming. Some of the leading citizens employed a detective to keep an eye on such characters. The Laramie Times, from which we quote, says:

"This man informed his employers that there was a scheme on foot to burglarize the bank of Mr. James France and then 'go through' the store of J. W. Hogue & Co. The rascals evidently did not know that their movements were watched and reported on, for they lately began to carry things with a high hand, and on Friday night last three of them went to the laundry house of one Sing Lee, Chinaman, and bursting open the door of the place, brutally assaulted and almost murdered the inoffending Chinaman, and then proceeded to rob him of all the money and valuables he possessed. They succeeded in securing some $500 in cash, and then stole about two dozen silk handkerchiefs. The sheriff of Carbon County on Saturday arrested the three men supposed to be implicated in this little stroke of business, and on one of them found a pistol covered with blood, and also a complete set of burglar's tools. The men were taken to the jail and locked up. About 4 a. m. Sunday morning a crowd of about 100 men collected in the neighborhood of the jail, and marching up to it, demanded of the janitor two of the three men, named James Lacey and John Bol. These two the vigilantes took out of town to the stock-yards and there hung them."

On Monday morning the town was covered with notices informing the rest of the "gang" that they were known and giving them four-and-twenty hours in which to leave the town and county.

ANOTHER BURGLARY.

A BURGLAR WITH A PENCHANT FOR SMOKED HAMS.

This time it is May & Woods, butchers, who are the victims. This morning when Mr. May reached his premises on First South Street, in the same row where the burglary was committed a few days ago, he found the doors, both back and front, all open, and a large quantity of meat taken from the hooks and strewn about the floor. Fortunately no money had been left behind the previous evening, and an investigation disclosed the fact that all the property carried off consisted of four hams, valued at about $15.

The condition of the shop, judging from the way the meat had been thrown about, indicated that the robber had been incited by malice as well as the desire for plunder.

The thief evidently gained ingress by simply opening the padlock on the front gate of the shop.

Charles Burgess, the night watchman of the block, states that the burglary must have been committed after five o'clock this morning, as he heard the watchman on the block above, James G. Watson, "ere about at the front of May & Wood's shop at that hour."

WRECK ON THE NORTH PACIFIC R. R.

THIRTY PEOPLE KILLED AND MANY MORE INJURED.

The following dispatch from Bismarck, Dakota, came to hand this afternoon:

"News was received here at 11 o'clock last night of a terrible wreck at Sweet Briar, about 40 miles west of here, on the Northern Pacific. An engine came here from Mandan for physicians and assistance to attend the sufferers in the wreck. The engine was down between Bismarck and Mandan. It is a case of the engine from Mandan that Black Jack's work train, bound west, went through the bridge, and the passenger train, which was but a little behind, followed. Thirty persons are reported killed and many more injured. All the physicians to be found in this city have just started on a special engine for the scene of the wreck."

The kernel of the Nut.—The San Francisco Chronicle is unreasonably and rabidly anti-Mormon, and an advocate of strong and, we think, oppressive measures against them. But it seems to have been making discoveries regarding the real situation. Just listen to this from its columns:

"If there was any virtue in the leading Gentiles in Salt Lake, there might be some hope for successful reform of the evils of polygamy, but it is a question with them, not of public morality and the good of the country, but of a fat official position."

There isn't much poetry about that little paragraph, but a consideration of another element much more potent.

We know whereof we speak upon this point, by reason of information we have to the effect that certain parties, more or less conspicuous, have been intimating how and by whom certain offices are, under the anticipated regime, to be filled, and how certain public property is to be manipulated. In fact a pretty general counting of chickens before the process of hatching has been indulged in.

We have no reference in this connection to the honest portion of the non-Mormon part of the community, but the rabid, mercenary faction that has been chiefly instrumental in working up the present crusade throughout the country.

Taken to Farmington.—Tremaine, alias Ode, the professional burglar, was taken to Farmington this morning, for examination on the charge of robbing the Kayville Co-op. store. We understand the most telling points of the evidence that will be produced against him are the finding of the baggage check and a quantity of burglar tools, in a handkerchief, near the place where the team with which the robbers evidently escaped to Ogden, was discovered. The ownership of these articles is proved by Tremaine's own claim to being the proprietor of the value which was checked found. His commencing to shoot at the first appearance of his being arrested is also a strong circumstantial point of the prosecution.

Fatal Accident at Farmington.

FARMINGTON, March 21, 1892.

Editor Deseret News:

An accident occurred here last evening, which cast a gloom over the community, resulting in the death of Mrs. Martha Ellen Thornton, daughter of Cornelius and Mary Ann Tipple, and wife of Hyrum Thornton.

It appears she went to the chicken coop for some purpose, about 7 o'clock, and the roof of poles and dirt fell upon her. She was found about 6.30 o'clock and taken out from under the ruins, life being entirely extinct. Her body was very badly bruised, her shoulder mashed or broken and her tongue bitten off.

She was about 21 years of age, and leaves a husband and two children, the youngest about eight months old, to mourn her untimely death. Her husband was away from home at the time of the accident. She was a resident of Farmington.

The body was placed in care of the Coroner of Davis County, and an inquest held.
