The Princess Mathilde receives skep-tics one day of the week, and ecclesias-tics on another. The Empress is said to have exclaimed, upon hearing this story: "That is just like my cousin! She eats Renan with her brother, and W. F. ANDERSON, M. D.. priests with her sister-in-law."

SURGEON AND PHYSICIAN, BOOTS, SHOES, &c., It is pleasant to see refinement pene-trating into retired homes. The more piano, the less wolf, the less dirt. The eautiful should never be out of thought. It is as right that the bread should be put upon the table in a comely shape as that it should be eaten.

The Israelits observe Saturday as their Sabbath, and can cite Scripture for their purpose. The greater portion their Saboath, and can ente Scriptine for their purpose. The greater portion of Christendom observe Sunday; the Greeks, Monday; the Persians, Tuesday; the Assyrians, Wednesday; the Egyp-tians, Thursday; the Turks, Friday.

The Chinese on the Russian border Hides. like the English missionaries very much, and extended a cordial welcome to them. The main reason is that the Second South Street, missionaries distribute Bibles bound in WAGENER & ENGLEBRECHT, Proprietors. English expense.

The Mayor of Macon (recently caught a negro thief, at midnight, robbing his garden. The Mayor shot at him and brought him to a halt. Nothing daunt-ed, the negro indignantly exclaimed BOOKSELLERS AND STATIONERS" that the "time was coming when people could go where they pleased without being halted."

A brilliant meteor was observed in London on the night of October 7th. It lasted about five seconds. Everything was as clear as day, the cathedral and houses at the north-west corner of Canwas as clear as day, the cathedral and houses at the north-west corner of Can-non street, standing out in bold relief against a brilliant sky. The lights in the gas lamps were for the time inthe gas lamps were for the time invisible.

A privateer's commission dated Sep-tember 18, 1782, and signed by John Hancock, Governor of Massachusetts, is exhibited at Springfield, Mass. It ap-points Edward Palmer to the command of the Speedwell, an armed boat of ten tons burden, mounting two swivel guns and period by sixteen men, for the and navigated by sixteen men, for the purpose of cruising against the enemies of America.

The Kuklux spirit of this "blarsted country" has infected the British Tories. At a recent Conservative dinner at Rug-by, England, a gentleman (?) said he would go twenty miles to see Mr. Glad-stone hanged; and in South Warwick-shire another worthy specimen of the educated party declared that he would not vote for any candidate who did not think that John Bright ought to be as-sassinated. sassinated.
