LOCAL BRIEFS.

Hold Camp Fire Tonight—The McKean post G. A. A. will hold a camp fire this evening in Odd Fellows' hall.

James E. Talmage Will Speak—Dr. James E. Talmage will be the speaker at the Twelfth-Thirteenth ward tomorrow evening commencing at 6:30.

Attending Institute—State Supt. A. C. Nelson, Prof. Mosiah Hall, and Prof. H. R. Driggs of the state university have gone to Vernal to attend teachers' institute.

Death of Louise Naylor—Miss Louise C. Naylor, aged 47, died suddenly Wednesday evening of acute nephritis. The funeral will be held Sunday at 1 p. m. from the residence, 1175 east Eleventh South street.

President-General Coming—Mrs. Adeline F. Fitz, president-general of the Daughters of the American Revolution, will be in Salt Lake Nov. 11-14, on an official visit, and as the guest of the local society.

Predicts Big Wool Clip—Marcus Harris, the veteran wool buyer, says there will be an increase of 15 to 20 per cent next spring in the amount of wool shipped from Utah and Idaho. Prices also will be higher.

Fifty-Eight Enrolled—The Congregation Montefiore school has begun its fall term with 58 pupils in graded classes who study Hebrew for two hours a day, four days in the week, under the direction of Rabbi Joseph Heusch.

Smith to Return—J. H. Smith, a weather observer in this city from 1894 to 1899, and latterly stationed at Roseberg, Ore., has been transferred back to the Salt Lake office, to fill a vacancy caused by the transfer of V. H. Church to Indianapolis.

Theosophists to Organize—The Salt Lake branch of the Theosophical society will be organized next Monday night in Unity hall, action being preceded by a lecture from E. W. Munson on "Man and the Ancient Wisdom." Officers for the year are to be chosen.

Lectures on Porto Rico—Rev. David W. Crane of the Iliff Methodist church lectured Friday evening at the church on "Porto Rico and its People." Mr. Crane was for two years a missionary on that island, so was able to give an interesting narrative. There was a short program and social in connection with the lecture.

No Glanders Found—State Veterinarian A. C. Young has returned from Wasatch county, where he went in response to a report that glanders was prevalent there. The doctor failed to find any. When he reached home Friday evening he found a summons awaiting him to go to Cache county on a similar errand. Dr. Young is there today.

To Attend Dedication—President Joseph F. Smith went to Loa, Wayne county, Thursday where he will take part in the dedication of the new tabernacle for Wayne stake. He was accompanied by Elder Hyrum Smith, of the council of twelve, Bishop David A. Smith and Seymour B. Young, of the first council of seventies.

New Ice Plant Proposed—V. Wyss Thalman, a member of a firm of Pittsborg architects, who was in Salt Lake City last summer during the ice famine, is desirous of establishing here a fifty-ton ice plant, provided local capital can be induced to subscribe to the project. He is taking the matter up with the Manufacturers' association of this city.

Branch in Receiver's Hands—State Bank Examiner C. A. Glazier has returned from Ogden, where he went to take charge of the Ogden branch of the Japanese-American bank. He placed the bank in the hands of the receiver, W. D. Brown, appointed by Judge Howell of the Fourth district. Mr. Glazier says he found the branch institution in fairly good shape.

Delivery Wagon Upset—William Parks, a driver for the Co-op Furniture company, drove his delivery team Friday afternoon too near a caving ditch bank, when about to deliver a load at 823 west North Temple street, and his team and wagon upset, throwing Parks out. He was badly bruised up, and was removed to his home 148 west South Temple street in the patrol wagon.

New Music Studio—Miss Marion Gilkerson has opened a studio in this city, and is now ready to receive students. Miss Gilkerson is a graduate in both vocal and instrumental music, and has studied under such teachers as Klingenberg of Berlin, Prof. Penny, Kansas university, and Edwin J. Meyers, New York. Miss Gilkerson's card appears in the musicians' directory of The Saturday News.

Former Salt Laker on Exposition—A. W. Smith, formerly in the real estate business here, but now in Chicago, writes Secretary Perkes of the Salt Lake association urging that everything possible be done to advertise the United States Land and Irrigation exposition to be held in Chicago Nov. 20 to Dec. 4. The value of the exposition to Utah cannot be overestimated, he says.

Funeral of Warren Foster—The funeral of Warren Foster will be held at 10 a. m., Sunday, at Odd Fellows hall in Market street, under the auspices of Utah Lodge No. 1, I. O. O. F., of which the deceased was a member. The body will then be escorted to the Short Line depot by the lodge, whence it will be shipped to Denver for cremation. What disposition is to be made of the ashes has not been decided on by the family.

BIG SURPRISES AT BUENA VISTA

La Reine Hindoo and Madeline Musgrave, Odds-On Favorites, Are Beaten by Long Shots.

Favorites and long shots broke even at Buena Vista park Friday afternoon but the big surprises of the day came when La Reine Hindoo and Madeline Musgrave, odds-on favorites, were defeated decisively by long shots. La Reine Hindoo in the fourth race tried mighty hard to last to the finish line but she had a hard job to place while Godfather, a 10 to 1 shot, rushed up a winner.

In the fifth Madeline Musgrave at 1 to 2 and 1 to 3, was beaten by Inclement, an 8 to 1 shot, the favorite barely showing. While there was some disappointment in these races and also in the first when St. Joe was beaten by Silver Grain, a 10 to 1 shot, there was also joy among those who had picked the long shots and the books did not fare as well as they might.

Merlingo, Furnace and Rather Royal were the favorites to reward their backers and these horses ran splendid races. The crowd was a large one and there was plenty of enthusiasm despite the upsets.

JAS. H. CAMPBELL DEAD.

Well Known Citizen Dies in This City At Advanced Age.

James H. Campbell, an early comer to Utah, died Friday afternoon at his residence in the rear of 450 east Seventh South street, of general debility, at the age of 81 years. Mr. Campbell came to Utah in 1862 and for a number of years was employed by Brigham Young. He was always a faithful and consistent member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. He leaves a widow and eight children, as follows: Mrs. Henry Rice, Mrs. George Gugdell, the Misses Josephine and Margarette Campbell, James H. Campbell of Alberta, Canada; Robert R. C. R., Edward J., and A. G. Campbell of Salt Lake City. The date and place of the funeral will be announced later.

DEATH OF H. O. FULLMER.

Early Settler of Utah Called Suddenly While at His Work.

The death of Hannibal Octavius Fullmer, one of the early pioneers of Utah, took place Friday at his home 550 south Thirteenth West street. Although he had been a sufferer with diabetes for several years, his death came entirely unexpectedly. He was doing a little light work in the yard when he was seen to fall to the ground. Members of the family reached him a few moments later, but he was unconscious, death having intervened.

Arrangements for the funeral were made at the Thirty-second ward meetinghouse, Central avenue, between Third and Fourth South streets, in Twelfth West, at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon, but this may be changed later today. If it is due notice will appear in another part of the paper.

Mr. Fullmer was born in Ohio in 1827, and came to Utah in 1848 soon after the pioneers, with his father and mother, David and Rhoda Ann Marvin Fullmer. He was a farmer by occupation and all his life he was known as a staunch adherent of the Mormon Church. He married Rachel E. Brown Fullmer, by whom he had three sons and three daughters, all of whom live in Salt Lake City except H. F. Fullmer, who lives at Midvale. Their names are: Miss Pearl Fullmer, Mrs. Lulu Atkinson, Mrs. Abbie Miller, H. F. Fullmer, N. O. Fullmer and J. S. Fullmer. Interment will be in the city cemetery.

PIONEER FURRIER DEAD.

Moritz Mehesy, aged 80, pioneer furrier, died Thursday afternoon at the Holy Cross hospital, indirectly from the amputation of part of one leg, which had been injured. The funeral will be held Sunday at 4 p. m. from Evans's chapel with Jewish services and interment in the B'nai Israel cemetery. The deceased was a native of Hungary, coming to this country 38 years ago, and locating in this city in 1889. His health began to fail 10 years ago, when he went to Long Beach, Cal., the home of his son, E. Mehesy, who succeeded him in his business. Eight weeks ago, Mr. Mehesy returned to this city for treatment which failed to bring the relief sought. Mr. Mehesy leaves a large family of children and grandchildren, the former of whom are as follows: E. Mehesy and Mrs. I. C. Gloss of this city, Mrs. Ettel Kristanitis and Mrs. Dr. Agau of New York City; Mrs. Kate Newbin, London, England; Mrs. Josephine Roth, Montreal, Canada.

His favorite grandchild was Miss Rosemary Gloss, the singer and actress, now playing in "The Merry Widow," in the east.

AMOROUS HARP IS SILENT.

As Long as it Is, Fond Lover Will be Safe.

Ralph Phillips persisted in serenading the daughter of Theodore Syphus, against the latter's will, and often the young lover would make the night hideous until after 12 o'clock by playing a mouth-harp, robbing the good people in the neighborhood of their sleep. Syphus found little harmony in the wailing harmonica, and ordered the love-lorn youth to suppress his musical proclivities. But young Phillips was hopelessly bound in the spell of Orpheus and Eros, and several witnesses testified with some bitterness that the manner in which Phillips played on his harmonica beneath his beloved's window at 1 a. m. was sufficient provocation to warrant anything less than murder in the first degree. If all the world loves a lover, it appears there is small sympathy for a mouth-harp player who expresses his passion through the medium of that instrument. Judge Bowman found Syphus guilty of battery yesterday, but suspended sentence, pending the proof of good behavior of both defendant and plaintiff. Phillips was ordered by the court to hang his harp on a willow tree.

THE RIGHTS OF A COW.

Justice Hanks Called Upon for Ruling in an Odd Case.

Justice Stanley A. Hanks on Friday heard the case of Mrs. Grace Christensen against R. F. Kelly to recover $20 for being knocked over a fence by his cow. Her ribs were fractured and her body was bruised. The question to be determined by the court is whether the cow had as much right on the sidewalk as the woman. It appears from the testimony that Mrs. Christensen, who lives just beyond the city limits on State street, was out walking when the cow came down the sidewalk. Mrs. Christensen took off her apron and attempted to "shoo" the cow out into the road. The cow lowered her head and boosted Mrs. Christensen over the fence. The case was taken under advisement.

ASPHALT PLANT IS DESTROYED BY FIRE

Early Morning Fire Causing Loss of $4,000 Will Delay Street Paving.

OGDEN, Oct. 23.—At 6 o'clock this morning a fire broke out at the asphalt plant of the street paving company, located at the west end of the viaduct on Twenty-fourth street, and caused a loss of $4,000, partly covered by insurance. The fire was caused by the boiling over of a pot of asphalt.

The fire department made a quick run, but it was three hours before the fire was subdued. Supt. Frank Gowan came up on an early train and as soon as the fire was out put on a gang of about 40 men to clear away the debris preparatory to immediate rebuilding. Supt. Gowan telegraphed east and west in an endeavor to locate a railroad asphalt plant to replace the plant just destroyed.

The fire will work a great inconvenience to the citizens of Ogden, as it will delay the street paving for 15 days or more.

POLICE EFFECT CAPTURE.

When "Sic-ed" on Fugitive by Tooele Sheriff, They Land Man.

Chris Johnson, who is wanted in Tooele on the charge of horse stealing, was arrested yesterday afternoon by the police at the request of Sheriff J. J. Bush of Tooele. Sheriff Bush, who had no power to take his man into custody in this city, gave the police the man's address and asked Chief Barlow if he would have him arrested. Chief Barlow sent three men out to the address to bring Johnson to the police station. The police claim the credit for capturing the worst "gun man" and horse thief in the country. Johnson had been here four months living with his relatives.

WATCHING FOR HAWMAN.

Fred E. Hawman, formerly treasurer of the Red Men of the Minnequa tribe of Pueblo, Colo., who is wanted for the embezzlement of $1,116, is believed to be in Salt Lake City. When he left Pueblo he had a ticket for Salt Lake and the police have received a telegram to watch out for him. A description of the man has been forwarded to the police and there is a reward of $50 for his arrest. Hawman misappropriated the money in small amounts. He drew checks on the lodge's account until it was almost depleted. This money he spent for liquor and it is said that he had an "affinity" who obtained the greater part of it.

UNIVERSITY NEWS

Another demonstration of the utility of the Sterrett air pump was given at the university this afternoon under the direction of Prof. Bradford.

The first of the series of house parties to be given this winter by the Medics took place last night at the home of A. L. Hunter, 390 K street. After playing games of various kinds, refreshments were served.

Upon the recommendation of the board of regents the faculty has secured a room in the Newhouse building for the use of the Barristers' club.

The Rev. P. A. Simpkin was the speaker at the regular chapel exercises Friday.

BENEFIT DANCE FOR BOY.

Judge C. M. Nielson is working hard on the benefit dance at the Odeon Wednesday evening in aid of 15-year-old Clarence Hendricksen who lost both legs in an elevator accident some months ago. It is proposed to purchase a couple of cork legs for the boy as soon as sufficient funds are forthcoming. Several business men have already subscribed and considerable interest is being taken in the case of the lad, who prior to his accident was a support to his mother. The tickets for the dance can be secured at Judge Nielsen's office 338 Constitution building.

NEW INCORPORATIONS.

The Boston Insurance company filed certified copy of its articles of incorporation in the office of the secretary of state Friday, thus qualifying to do business in Utah. Karl D. Hardy of Salt Lake is named as agent for the company in this state. The company has a capitalization of $300,000. The application for admittance to Utah was made by President William R. Hedge and Secretary Freeman Nickerson.

The Land Clearing & Improvement company of Utah filed articles of incorporation with the county clerk yesterday, placing the capital stock at $80,000 in shares, of which 24,000 shares are held in the treasury. The officers are: W. R. Probert, president; B. L. Kesler, vice-president; H. B. Probert, secretary and treasurer, and these, with J. H. Giles and J. M. Harmon, comprise the board of directors. The company takes over the Giles cylindrical sagebrush grubber for $56,000.

ORIGIN OF THE REORGANIZED CHURCH AND SUCCESSION.

A book of 140 pages showing the latter-day apostasy.

This book is invaluable and indispensable to missionaries and all other students of Church history. It deals thoroughly with the origin of the Reorganized church and conclusively proves it to be of apostate sources, also that that church has departed from the doctrines of the Prophet Joseph Smith and now attacks them vindictively, denying many of the principles of the gospel. The book also treats the Succession in the Presidency and shows that PRESIDENT BRIGHAM YOUNG WAS PROPERLY ORDAINED TO LEAD THE CHURCH.

By Elder Joseph F. Smith, Jr.

NEW REAL ESTATE CONCERN.

The Real Estate Exchange and Loan Company, recently organized with Heber C. Iverson as president, E. C. Ashton, Vice President, Lon J. Haddock Secy. and Treas., and D. W. Adamson Manager has opened offices at 125 South Main Street.

The company will do a general real estate business—and loan business but will specialize on farms, ranches and orchards and in building homes.

The exchange part of the business will be appreciated by the public for the reason that many people living in the city would like to exchange their home for a good farm or for some other more desirable location or size and kind of a house and which can be accomplished through the exchange agency.

No doubt these gentlemen will appreciate the patronage of their friends.
