

could not go outside of the votes cast and find how many persons would have voted for either party, if they had had the chance to do so. He might state that this was a very strong case; it presented that question in about as strong a light as could possibly be found. There was practically no question whatever that these men were legal voters; but they were off the list. (Speaking to Judge Loofborough)—"Inasmuch as the decision is on your side, you had better prepare the findings and submit them to Mr. Brown."

Mr. Brown, however, said he would prepare them.

Judge Loofborough—Very well, and I will prepare findings also.

The matter thus ended, and Judge Anderson proceeded with the ordinary business of his court.

THE ELECTION RETURNS.

The canvass of votes for Deegate was concluded November 12 at the office of the Utah Commission by the Territorial Board of Canvassers, consisting of Secretary Sells, Judge Elias A. Smith and J. C. Conklin.

Complete returns were not in, there being a number of small precincts to hear from, but as the People's Party is in the majority in each of them, their votes would not change the result of the election.
