MALIGNING THE MILITARY.

THE Virginia Chronicle gives account of an interview with W. W. Bishop, who has obtained some prominence through his connection with the Lee trial. We clip the following, which indicates the animus of Bishop, but which we regard as a libel on the military stationed here, and a misrepresen tation of a large number of respectable "Gentiles"-

"Reporter-What is the feeling prevalent among the Gentiles in Utah?

"Bishop-Very bitter; the same now as fourteen years ago. The troops are ready and anxious to be turned loose on the town. Within a radius of fifty miles of Salt Lake there are about 10,000 Gentiles who would be ready at a moment's no-tice to take a hand. The Gentiles of Salt Lake feel perfectly secure as of Salt Lake feel perfectly secure as to the protection of their property, but in the small interior towns the feeling is not one of security.
