

The week has been a bride's week, a live number of the entertainments having been in honor of the season's brides, beginning on Monday and filling nearly every day. The several weddings have contributed their quota to the general atmosphere, while many events in the way of card parties, luncheons and dinners have made a series of festivities.

On Monday Miss Ethel Read one of the week's brides was guest of honor at a bridal shower given by Mrs. Walter Wallace, autumn leaves and red berries being the decorations and the time spent with music and games. About 20 were present.

On Tuesday Miss Veda Beebe another autumn bride was guest of honor at a card party given by Miss Sybella Clayton, the room being beautifully decorated in autumn leaves, and red and yellow chrysanthemums and carnations and the tally cards also being hand painted in autumn leaves. About 10 tables were played and prizes won by Mrs. Clara Young Howell and Miss Alice Nibley.

Dr. and Mrs. Harry N. Mayo entertained Mayor and Mrs. John S. Bransford and Dr. and Mrs. Fred Stauffer at a box party at the Colonial theater, Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell G. Schneider entertained at a dinner on Tuesday evening for Miss Ione Morrison and C. P. Overfield whose marriage will shortly take place, the tables being decorated in white chrysanthemums and bows of white silk and covers laid for about a dozen guests.

Miss George E. Atchison entertained at a bridge tea on Tuesday at the Country club, the decorations being in yellow, with a lace spiral over yellow satin, a centerpiece of white chrysanthemums and yellow henbells. About 12 tables were played.

Mrs. Carl H. Barnes was one of Tuesday's hostesses entertaining at an informal luncheon with covers laid for 12 and the table being decorated in autumn leaves and parades.

On Thursday the Misses Mignon and Viola Denhamer were hostesses at a card party given in honor of Miss Veda Beebe, the rooms being decorated in the Hollywood style, flowers, pink bows and other appropriate dresses and colors being served during the afternoon. A delightful feature was the musical program given by Miss Sybella Clayton and Miss Irene Kelly. Assisting the musicians were Misses Alice Campbell, Miss Helen Campbell, Miss Myrtle Jack and Mrs. William Mitchell. Prizes were won by Mrs. Wallace Hunter and the guest of honor.

Miss Ione Morrison another autumn bride was guest of honor on Thursday at a bridge tea given by Mrs. F. B. Stevens, four tables being played and a number coming in later to tea. The rooms were decorated in cosmos and chrysanthemums and assisting the hosts were Miss Hazel Sappington and Miss Edna Morrison. Prizes were won by Mrs. J. M. Howman, Miss Stein Fabian, Miss Hazel Sappington and the guest of honor.

Mr. and Mrs. Grant Hampton entertained at dinner on Thursday night in honor of Mr. and Mrs. George T. Odell who have recently returned abroad, the table being decorated in emblems suggestive of their journey, with a fish net draped over the cloth, and a steamship embedded in keg for a centerpiece, while the favors were sea shells and the place cards pictures of nautics.

Mrs. Lillian Riser and Miss Evelyn Garde have issued invitations for a large Hallowe'en party to be given Saturday evening, Oct. 30, at the home of Miss Garde in Sevier avenue.

A most interesting affair of the week was the reception given on Thursday at the new quarters provided as a workshop for the blind, where about 200 of the state's blind, with a number of friends, gathered and spent a most delightful evening in an entertainment furnished almost entirely by the blind. In addition to this an address was made by Gov. Soren, who spoke of his interest in their cause, and other pleasant features were a part of the evening's entertainment. Great interest has been manifested recently for the condition of this addressed class of the community and every effort is being made for their aid.

Miss Leona Edmunds was guest of honor on Wednesday at a shower party given by Miss Eunice Golding, the rooms being beautifully decorated in autumn leaves, festoons of red hearts and carnations and about 20 being present. Miss Golding was assisted by Misses Myrtle Jack, Mrs. Irene Kelly, Mrs. Alice Campbell, Mrs. Hazel Sappington and Mrs. W. H. McManus. The house prize in the bridge game was won by Mrs. Frank Bird. The club will hold its next meeting two weeks from today at the home of Mrs. C. A. Quigley.

Miss Daisy Raybould will entertain at a bridge tea next Wednesday afternoon.
