HOUSE.

The Salary Grab, &c.

WASHINGTON, 11. — Townsend spoke on the legislative appropriation bill, alluding to its economic properties and Randall's vote for increase of salary last session.

Randall replied in substance that as the people had condemned that measure he accepted the verdict.

White—"I understand the gentleman to say that he realized the fact that the country condemned his vote on the back salary question?"

Randall—"It is none of your business what I realize (laughter), I have made my statement in that connection."

White—"Does not the gentleman believe that the country would be better pleased if that back salary were refunded?"

Randall—"That's none of your business either. While I do aught here that does not become a representative, the people will take care to consign me back to private life. I took that salary; the law gave it to me; my people have approved of me since, and it does not lie in the power of any miserable man here to talk about my conscience."

Wilson, of Iowa, in connection with the appropriations for the agricultural bureau, spoke of the importance of the flax-growing interests in his state, which he said would be seriously interfered with if Mr. Morrison's tariff bill should become a law.

Hunter made a speech on the currency question, against the resumption of specie payments until after the cancellation of the public debt, and in advocacy of the bill introduced by himself to establish the uniform rate of interest at six per cent. throughout the U. S. The House then adjourned.

WESTERN.

A Fuss in Samoa.

SAN FRANCISCO, 11.—A private letter from Apia, Samoa, says that the armed schooner Peerless, purchased here by Col. Steinberger for the Samoan government, was seized by the commander of the British ship of war Barracouta, after consultation with the American and British Consuls, for carrying arms under the American flag; she was dismantled and sold by Foster, the American consul, to Captain McKenzie, of Auckland. A meeting of foreign residents was then held, the British, German and American Consuls present, and Steinberger was called on to show his commission from the United States, which he did. The British commander forbade his countrymen to obey the Samoan laws, and sent to Fiji for another war ship. A proclamation was issued by the captain of the Barracouta and the American, British, and German Consuls, reciting that as the Samoan government has set aside the legitimate authority of the representatives of the foreign powers, they agree that hereafter the Samoan laws shall not be carried into effect with regard to foreigners, but they shall be governed by their respective consular courts. A letter, which is evidently written by a friend of Steinberger, says that the English will either force the Samoan government to send away Steinberger, which they will not do, or will take the island by force.

Want Condon Released — Another Project for Specie Resumption — A Crevasse.

The Assembly, to-day, passed a concurrent resolution, asking congressional action to secure the release of Edward O'Meagher Condon, an American citizen, imprisoned in Great Britain for participating in the Fenian troubles.

There has been a report on the street to-day, which has been partially confirmed by J. C. Flood, that arrangements have been completed for the government to take the product of the Consolidated Virginia and California mines for a year, and apply it to the resumption of specie payments. Flood says that the sale is understood to have been consummated, but all the details are not yet settled.

A crevasse in the levee of Grand Island, Sacramento river delta, is likely to flood the whole island, containing sixteen thousand acres, bearing a heavy grain crop.

Fighting in Sonora—Pacific Coast Whiskey Frauds.

A dispatch from San Diego says that a letter from Guaymas mentions an engagement between the Sonora state troops and the revolutionists, in which the former were defeated with the loss of nearly a hundred men.

A. B. Clark, special revenue agent, detailed to investigate the whiskey frauds on this coast, referring to a dispatch received from Chicago by the papers of the American Press Association here, today, stating on the authority of D. L. Phillips, the revenue agent recently on this coast, that testimony will be presented to Congress by the request of Secretary Bristow, showing the connection of U. S. Senator Sargent with frauds and corruption in the revenue service on the coast, states that, in his investigation into the frauds on the revenue here, he has found no evidence to implicate Sargent, and has no knowledge of any intention on the part of the secretary or the commissioner of internal revenue to place the investigations now being made in the hands of a committee of Congress. As regards Philips' statement, that the custom house here is rotten to the core, and that not fifty per cent of the revenue due is collected, D. Mills, special agent of the Treasury Department here, states that while it is true that a very large proportion of the revenue is not collected, the fault lies mainly in the defective organization of the customs service of this port, and the delegation of extraordinary powers to the collector rather than to fraudulent practices.

MOTHERING SUNDAY.—The harshness and general painfulness of life in old times must have been much relieved by certain simple and affectionate customs which modern people have learned to dispense with. Amongst these was a practice of going to see parents, and specially the female one, on the mid Sunday of Lent, taking for them some little present, such as a cake or a trinket. A youth engaged in this amiable act of duty was said to "go a-mothering," and thence the day itself came to be called Mothering Sunday. One can readily imagine how, after a stripling or maiden had gone to service, the old bonds of filial love would be brightened by this pleasant annual visit, signalized, as custom demanded it should be, by the excitement attending some novel and perhaps surprising gift. There was also a cheering and peculiar festivity appropriate to the day, the prominent dish being "furmety"
