

UNIONS MUST OBEY THE LAW

Is What President Told Chicago
Committee of Labor Men that Waited on Him.

SO MUST THE CORPORATIONS.

Remarks Were in Reply to Presentation of Protest Against Sending Federal Troops.

Chicago, May 10.—The committee of labor men, appointed to call upon President Roosevelt and lodge with him a protest against the employment of federal troops during the present teamsters' strike, was granted an audience this afternoon. The committee consisted of Cornelius P. Shea, president of the International Brotherhood of Teamsters; Charles Dold, president of the Chicago Federation of Labor; Joseph O'Neill, vice president of the Chicago Federation of Labor; T. P. Quinn, a member of the Canvassers' union; and T. Rickett, president of the Garment Workers' International union. Outside of the members of the committee, President Roosevelt and Henry Loch, no one was present during the conference.

The following account of what occurred in the room was given out by Secretary Loch.

After presenting the protest to the president, Mr. Shea, acting as spokesman, said:

"We are here as a committee to present to you a statement stating our position in this controversy between the employers' association and the teamsters' association. We have understood that they had asked your aid for bringing troops into Chicago. We want to present our petition to you."

"Mr. Quinn, as yet the mayor of Chicago has not made any appeal to the governor, and therefore, of course, the governor has made none to me, and as yet nothing in the situation has demanded action by me."

President Shea of the Teamsters' union, then said:

"Let me explain that. The governor has been requested by the committee of the employers to demand federal troops; the statement has been made in the papers. I immediately telegraphed Gov. Deneen that we would allow him to appoint a commission."

"Regardless of that, I want to make our position known to you in regard to mob violence. Every time a mob congregates, every act of violence performed by either a union man or a non-union man, we are all responsible. I believe that we are skilled workmen enough in our particular craft to demonstrate to our business men of Chicago that it is to their interests to employ us. There is nothing at stake but the re-employment of citizens of Chicago who have been forced out of their positions. Violence meets with the condemnation of the officials, both local and national, of our organization. It does not meet with the sympathy of our organization. I simply want to say that we will be fair, to preserve the business interests of Chicago; that the prosperity of our employers is our prosperity."

The president replied to this, saying:

"Mr. Shea, I can only repeat what I have said. I am a believer in unions, my hearty support. I am glad to be able to say this to you gentlemen, before I say it to anybody else. Now let me repeat that I know nothing of the facts

CAPT. GRAHAM'S CURE Sores on Face and Back. Tried Many Doctors. Without Success.

GIVES THANKS TO CUTICURA

Captain W. S. Graham, 1221 Koff St., Wheeling, W. Va., writing under date of June 14, '04, says: "I am so grateful I want to thank God that a friend recommended Cuticura Soap and Ointment to me. I suffered for a long time with sores on my face and back. Some doctors said I had blood poison, and others that I had barbers' itch. None of them did me any good, but they all took my money. My friends tell me my skin now looks as clear as a baby's, and I tell them all that Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment did it."

of the situation. I know nothing of the rights or wrongs of the points at issue. What I have to say is based purely upon what I regard as the unfortunate phrasing of a letter presented to the president of the United States. I have not been called upon to interfere in any way, but you must not misunderstand my attitude.

"In every effort of Mayor Dunne to prevent violence by mobs or individuals, to see that the laws are obeyed, and that order is preserved, he has the hearty support of the president of the United States, and in my judgment, he should have that of every good citizen of the United States."

"Now, gentlemen, it has been a great pleasure to see you and I am glad to have had the chance to say this to you."

Mr. Quinn, who knew the president in his youth, said:

"Mr. President, what prompted us to come to you with this statement is that for the past two or three weeks there has been a continual howl for the federal army. I have known you long enough to know that you would not respond to a one-sided demand; that you will not respond until you have thoroughly investigated the case."

The president replied:

"The president of the United States has been requested by the committee of the employers to demand federal troops; the statement has been made in the papers. I immediately telegraphed Gov. Deneen that we would allow him to appoint a commission."

"Regardless of that, I want to make our position known to you in regard to mob violence. Every time a mob congregates, every act of violence performed by either a union man or a non-union man, we are all responsible. I believe that we are skilled workmen enough in our particular craft to demonstrate to our business men of Chicago that it is to their interests to employ us. There is nothing at stake but the re-employment of citizens of Chicago who have been forced out of their positions. Violence meets with the condemnation of the officials, both local and national, of our organization. It does not meet with the sympathy of our organization. I simply want to say that we will be fair, to preserve the business interests of Chicago; that the prosperity of our employers is our prosperity."

The president replied to this, saying:

"Mr. Shea, I can only repeat what I have said. I am a believer in unions, my hearty support. I am glad to be able to say this to you gentlemen, before I say it to anybody else. Now let me repeat that I know nothing of the facts

Suffering Will Not Help Your Disease, but Will Weaken Your Nerves.

Folks who think it is better to bear pain than soothe it are wrong. Old-fashioned doctors used to say it was better, because they had nothing to give with which to ease pain but dangerous, heart-paralyzing drugs.

But now, that a safe remedy has been found, Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills, it is wrong to suffer, for nothing can be gained but weakened nerves. A safe rule to remember is: When in pain, take an Anti-Pain Pill. This will soothe your quivering nerves. Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills relieve pain by restoring the natural secretions, in which they differ from opium and similar narcotic drugs, which relieve pain by checking the action of the glands. They are sure and harmless, and are the latest medical treatment for the cure of Headache, Neuralgia, Backache, Rheumatism, Dizziness, Toothache, Stomachache, Menstrual (Monthly) Pains, Also nerve irritations like Sea-Sickness, Car-Sickness, Sleeplessness, Indigestion, etc.

Pleasant to take, quick in results. "I have used Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills for sick, nervous headache, and have received the best results. I heartily recommend their careful use as a remedy for all such ailments." REV. HAY A. WATSON, D. D., Iowa City, Ia. Sold by druggists. At 25c. Money back if first box does not help. poor, must obey the law. As yet no action has been called for by me, and most certainly I do not call for by me I shall try to do exact justice under the law to every man, so far as I have power. But the first essential is the preservation of law and order, the suppression of violence by mobs or individuals."

This closed the interview, and the committee withdrew.

PROTEST PRESENTED.

Chicago, May 10.—A strongly worded protest against the sending of federal troops to Chicago was submitted to President Roosevelt this afternoon. The protest is signed by Cornelius P. Shea, president of the International Brotherhood of Teamsters; Charles Dold, president of the Chicago Federation of Labor; and by other leaders, charging that the employers had repeatedly ignored the request of the labor leaders for arbitration, the protest declares the employers openly boasted that federal troops would back up the employers' side of the controversy. The protest declares labor leaders, "rests not upon the militia or the army, but upon the ## patience and long suffering of the tolling masses.

"Can a few soldiers scare the men who make the armies and who compose the flower of American manhood? Do they think that the workers will submit to the decision of an arbitrator even should that decision fall to be all that might be hoped for, the appeal to the president closes with the request that he consider all the facts in the case before he permits any abuses of federal power in complying with a request for troops."

The committee presenting the protest was received by the president in person late this afternoon at the Auditorium annex. The members of the committee expressed themselves as gratified at their reception by the president. The president told them that no demand had been made for the use of federal troops in Chicago. The protest reads as follows:

THE PROTEST.

"To the Honorable Theodore Roosevelt, president of the United States of America:

"Honorable Sir:—This labor difficulty began as a lockout. So far as there has been any striking force, it has been a strike for arbitration. The unions involved are committed both upon principle and by specific contract to submit all disputes to arbitration."

"These contracts grew out of the desire of the unions to protect the public peace and welfare by providing for the prompt settlement of all disputes of opinion to the umpirage of an impartial third party, and accepting that decision, right or wrong, as binding upon both parties. Each of the unions has a guarantee of the preservation of law and order. All that the unions ask for or desire in this controversy is that an impartial arbitrator be appointed as specifically agreed to in the contracts involved. All that is desired is that the public officials shall join with the labor leaders in mandating the use of force to enforce the law, and that the law be enforced in the case of any violation of the law."

"The contract of June 20, 1903, provided for arbitration as follows in the sixth, seventh and eighth sections respectively:

"Sixth—It is agreed that in the event of a misunderstanding or any dispute arising as to the construction of this working agreement or any misunderstanding in regard to the operation or enforcement of this contract between the parties hereto, or as to all differences of opinion in regard to any section of this contract, between the party of the first part and the party of the second part, no house shall look out any members of said local union No. 21, and no executive board or business agent shall declare a strike; and the party of the second part shall not declare a strike, but such misunderstandings, disputes or difference of opinion shall be referred within 24 hours to the representatives of the parties to this contract for settlement; and in case such representatives fail to settle such controversy within 24 hours after the same shall be submitted to arbitration, it is agreed that each representative shall within said second 24 hours name an arbitrator, and the two arbitrators shall select a third arbitrator as possible name one disinterested person who shall not be a manufacturer or a member of any labor organization, and they shall select a third arbitrator within 10 days time settle the difficulty and the decision so rendered shall be binding on all parties to this agreement."

"You will therefore readily see that we have the right to demand arbitration, a demand that has been repeatedly spurned by the employers in the presence of Mayor Dunne of Chicago. And why spurned?

"Because they openly boast that they can spurn and that the troops under your command will shoot down any who desire to openly protest against their action. They flatter themselves that the federal army is their ready tool to act upon their suggestions, right or wrong—and they therefore refuse to have any inquiry made as to whether they are right or wrong."

"They can now ask, 'there is nothing to arbitrate,' but if a board should find there was something to arbitrate, public sympathy might be too strong for them, and they might not be able to 'crush out unionism once and for all,' as they openly declare they intend to do. But can they do it? Is the army all that these men think it is? Is it not a fact, after all, that the power of the army even rests to a great extent upon the support of the people? What would a few soldiers be against a nation?

"Without intending to be discourteous, or suggesting a threat, we desire to call attention to the true statement of this fact by Gen. Benjamin F. Butler of Massachusetts in his celebrated speech of some 60 years ago to the people of Lowell:

"If the workmen can be deprived of their freedom and their rights by threats of starvation of themselves and their wives and children, when they act according to the laws and their judgment, then they had better be slaves indeed, having kind masters, instead of being free men, who are at liberty to do what their task masters impose upon them or starve. And this question must be settled here and now."

"I know the power of these corporations; I know many of the men who have been in charge. They have made a mistake in attempting to use that weapon which is tried they are weak and you are strong. They have their mills and machinery, their bricks and their mortar, and that is the extent of their power. You are stronger than they. You have your right arms and your torches and by them we will blot out this accursed outrage."

"As God lives and I live, by the living Jehovah! if one man is driven from his employment by these men I will lead you to make a sheep pasture and a fishing place; and I will commence by applying the torch to my own house. Let them come out. As we are not aggressors, we seek not this awful contest."

"Peace rests not upon the militia or the army, but upon the patience and long-suffering of the tolling masses. The army, so far as it has any effect, is not to quiet but to disturb; it is not to terrorize, but to make the people meditate. They wonder what all this 'bluffing' is for. Can a few soldiers scare the men who make armies and who compose the flower of American manhood? Are we to let them cringe at the mention of troops?"

"If the laboring men are willing, the decision of an arbitrator will be a canon or club will command the obedience of every toiler affected."

"Even if we are right and the arbitrator decides against us, still we will bow to that decision."

"Then, if the decision of the man, unarmed and alone, can exercise this vast power, what is the use of the sacrifices of lives, calling out armies and making an opera house of government?"

"It is evident that a blunder has been made somewhere, somehow. Let us ascertain its source."

"Is it just or is it necessary to bring the United States army into Chicago in effort to smother the cry of the toiler for arbitration? Is it right or expedient to attempt to stifle the demand for the settlement of controversy by court procedure? Is the purpose of the army to prevent the carrying out of written contracts that are open to all who care to read them? Can you, your honored president, afford to use the forces under your control to stifle the demand for peace and the methods of peace? Why should our attempt to get and maintain peace be met by the army and by war?"

"Every laboring man knows these facts. What will be the results upon the citizenship of the nation if we, the American citizens ask for court procedure and order, they are met by the bullet and the bayonet? Is it not time to inquire as to the facts in the case? We submit that labor is an essential of national life. And the sympathy and cooperation of the laborer in their life work is as essential as the sympathy and co-operation of citizenship. Unity is a necessary fact of development and progress. Unionists can no more be destroyed in industrial life than can patriotism in political life. He is shortsighted indeed who cannot see that the cause of order is the cause of all, and that the destruction of one without protest is sooner or later the destruction of all."

"The revolutionists well understood that a law directed at Massachusetts was in effect a law against South Carolina. Franklin's saying that 'if we don't hang together we will hang separately' has become a truism."

"Shall that far-sightedness that was praised in Massachusetts be condemned in Chicago? Or shall that principle of action that was praised yesterday be condemned today? The thousands of unions springing up as the trees of the forest, answer no."

"Unionism has come to stay. It is merely the systematization of an inherent law of human action. It is therefore better to recognize this law and deal with it as such and make use of the high trial of manhood of which it is expression than to commit the folly of trying to crush it out, as George the Third tried to crush out the spirit of unity and independence in the colonies. Let us not awake to this fact after it is forever too late."

"We therefore trust that you will allow a presentation of the facts of the case to the laborers from permit to a abuse of the federal power by complying with the request of the notorious law-breakers of the land—the constant agitators for government suppression. All that we are asking is that our voice be heard."

"Respectfully submitted, by a committee appointed by the Chicago Federation of Labor to request a hearing before any action be taken by the federal president relating to the Chicago strike situation.

COUNT CZAYOWSKI.

Arrested on Charge of Getting Money Under False Pretences.

Paris, May 11.—Count Czaykowski, from whom his wife, who was Miss Edith L. Collis of New York, secured a decree of separation last November, was recently arrested, charged with obtaining money under false pretences from Patuisset & Loefer, bankers of this city. The bankers allege that the count secured an advance from them in order that he might proceed to the United States and claim $500,000 which he said had inherited from a Boston relative named Clarke. Patuisset & Loefer claimed that they received in repayment a check for $4000 drawn on an American banking concern from a Boston solicitor, but that when it was presented payment was found to have been stopped. When urged to repay, they allege Count Czaykowski proposed that M. Patuisset accompany him to America as adviser, promising him a substantial recompense. M. Patuisset agreed to do this, the bankers aver, but as the count demanded a further advance and delayed his departure the charge against him was brought.

Count Czaykowski was released on bail. The Turkish embassy intervened, it is said, and the count induced the count to return to Turkey, where he now is.

The Richest Man in the World.

The richest man in the world cannot have his kidneys replaced nor live without them. It is important, not to neglect these organs. If Foley's Kidney Cure is taken at the first sign of danger, the symptoms disappear and your health will be restored as it strengthens and builds up these organs as nothing else will. Oscar Bonnett Lebon, N. Y. writes: "I have used Foley's Kidney Cure and take great pleasure in stating it cured me permanently of kidney disease, which certainly would have cost me my life." Don't bear unnecessary burdens. Burdens of a bad back are unnecessary. Get rid of them. Doan's Kidney Pills cure bad backs; Cure lame, weak and aching backs; Cure every form of kidney ills. Lots of local endorsement to prove this.

Mrs. Sarah Beatty of 1361 West Fourth South says: "I have had attacks of backache for two years. For a week at a time I have been almost wild with pain just across the loins. When a person cannot bend, lift or turn, they are helpless, and naturally are long for some means to give even the slightest relief. A friend of mine who had obtained Doan's Kidney Pills at the F. J. Hill Drug Co.'s store told me they had brought her undoubted benefit and I at once began trying them. Following her advice I got a box and took a few doses. They helped. A continuation of the treatment for some time much to my surprise, and considerably more to my gratification, stopped the trouble entirely."
