This old English phrase, derived from the fact that a hare is violent and excitable in March, anxiously awaiting Spring's sunshine, we prize and cherish, in order to gain liberty upon the western fields, to prepare for another season. Our own is a mild, temperate, and fertile section on the west coast, especially this coming season. Our Spring Bank is a green in quality, style and amount any previous in history. Imagine every train pulling into Salt Lake City. Room for us must have there! Hence, we are compelled to sacrifice dollars and cents.
