

CONFERENCE IN WAYNE.

The Stake Two Day's Meeting and Relief Society Assembly.

Minutes of the Wayne Stake quarterly conference, held under the banner at Orem, Wayne county, Utah, Sunday and Monday, August 13 and 14, 1896. Elder Willard J. Hastings, president of the Stake, presiding. There were present on the platform Elder William Paxman, president of the Utah Stake; Elder Peter Christensen of Nephi, the Stake presidency; a few members of the High Council; Patriarch Franklin W. Young; Elder David Paxman and one or more members of the priesthood of every ward in the Stake.

At the first session of conference Elder Willard J. Hastings, Elder M. Hansen and George H. Stottles of the Stake presidency addressed the Saints, Reliance was made by them to the preparation condition of the Saints living in the eastern part of the Stake. They were complimented for their perseverance and industry and were exhorted in continue to plant orchards and vineyards, to plant in abundance shade trees, and make their homes beautiful and inviting. The Lord is overruling the destiny of His Saints, the world is beginning to cover Zion, and God is blessing on the commencement of His purpose.

Elder Ole Olson said he had experienced all the hardships and privations of a pioneer life. He could sympathize with the suffering of Elias and Gross' valley, but comforted them with a promise that they should be honored of men and favored of God in their trials. He encouraged them to persevere, especially in teaching to strengthen the faith of the Saints, and show a strong testimony to the work of the Father.

Elder David Paxman was the first speaker, and it was in his speech in which the Saints of all received the Holy Ghost, the effects that the possession of this Spirit produced in their lives, and urged that the Saints of all the Stake should receive the same. Faith once delivered to the Saints, One of the greatest and most important duties of all parents is to teach their children the Gospel in its purity.

At the afternoon session the Stake presidency addressed the Saints, John Hansen and Edward Abbott, Elder Joseph Eckersley read the statistical report at the Stake for the six months ending June 30th, 1896. The general condition of the Stake was presented by Elder Hansen. Hansen and wife were unanimously sustained by the Stake as the First Presidency.

Elder Wm. Paxman was then called to address the Stake, and enjoyed a full half of the day in the discussion of the great interest of the Stake. He was pleased for the first time in his life to visit the State of Illinois and meet with them to ascertain. He was greatly gratified to behold so many familiar names, the fruits grown among the choicest and best; the people are hospitable and kind, and he related gladly to the Stake the progress of the work of the youth of Zion, as it should be treated at some length upon the virtue and power of the Holy Priesthood.

Elder Peter Christensen of Nephi briefly addressed the Saints. He had never been privileged to make a speech with such a large audience, but did his best to comfort the Saints of Wayne Stake. He spoke upon the beauties of the organization of Christ's Church and rejoiced greatly in the progress of the work.

Immediately after the afternoon meeting a Stake Priesthood meeting was held. Elders W. E. Hansen, H. M. Hansen, G. H. Stottles and Franklin W. Young were present. The topic treated was the need for greater interest in the Church and the influence of home in the lives of our young men and women about Zion. In the spirit of the conference, the Stake president gave the great help this organization to the Holy Priesthood.

On Monday morning the conference was addressed by Apostle M. W. Hansen, Elder F. C. Christensen, Walter L. Banks and Levi C. Wager, Elders Jacob M. Hansen, Elder Wilson and Franklin W. Young, who reported the Thirteen, Lynxes, Catenas, Vikings, Lions, Panthers and Mountain Wards. These wards, and the Stake president, were attending their annual conference here; they will be at home in the Kingdom of God, honored by Him for their integrity, they may return to the example of the saints and be a credit to their names.

A Sunday school meeting was held in which President was addressed by Elder Joseph Eckersley. After the service was delivered by Elders Jacob M. Hansen, John J. Eckersley, Wm. E. Hansen, W. E. Hansen, Walter L. Banks and Levi C. Wager, Elders Jacob M. Hansen, Elder Wilson and Franklin W. Young, who reported the Thirteen, Lynxes, Catenas, Vikings, Lions, Panthers and Mountain Wards. These wards, and the Stake president, were attending their annual conference here; they will be at home in the Kingdom of God, honored by Him for their integrity, they may return to the example of the saints and be a credit to their names.

Elder Willard J. Hastings and the instructions given during our conference have been very minute. It we make a mark in this Church, it will be in the name of our Savior, Jesus Christ, and faith. We are to exert a vigorous influence and the earnestness that should overshadow the heart; it is referred to the great evil wrought by evil-speaking and backbiting and the measure for cultivating the spirit of forbearance and brotherly love. He gave advice that the afternoon meeting would be given into the hands of the Stake president, and that the Stake president would be responsible for these meetings. Remonstrance was given by Elder Wm. Paxman.

After close of the meeting, all the speakers left the platform, except a number of state watermen provided by Brothers Joseph J. East and John J. Foster, who had each brought a wagon load of melons from their gardens. The wagon was used for carrying with pleasure the surprises with which the meeting was abounding by the hungry crowd.

The afternoon meeting was presided over by President Wm. Paxman. He gave a short sermon from James 4:10. Calvert spoke upon the magnificence of the Bishop's work. He gave the first organization of the Prophet Joseph Smith, and the progress of the cause of Zion every year by the sister, in caring for the sick, feeding the poor and supporting any wrongdoing the Bishophood or the Church suffered in taste, way, and conduct.

He also spoke upon the great work given at the last general Stake Conference. The sisters were exhorted to perform faithfully and well their high calling, and asked to release themselves from the carelessness of other occupations that may have for their sisters the training of my young.

The statistical and financial report of the Stake of Wayne Stake for the year 1896, was given.

Elder Wilson presented the authorities of the society, all of whom were associated by unanimous voice.
