The state of Iowa carries no insurance on any of its property. The loss on the building, therefore, is total.

TRIAL OF SENATOR DIETRICH

He Interposes a Demurrer to Indictment Which Judges Sustain. Omaha, Neb., Jan. 4.—The trial of United States Senator Charles H. Deitrich, charged with conspiracy to violate the law by an alleged agreement with Postmaster Jacob Fisher of Hastings. whereby the latter paid a sum of money for his appointment, began today in the federal court. When the case was called the first matter brought to the attention of the court was a demurcer, in which counsel for the senator attacks the sufficiency of the indictment charging conspiracy with Postmaster Fisher to vio-late section 1781 of the revised statutes. Judge Vandeventer sustained the de-Judge Vandeventer sustained the de-murrer. In doing so, the court stated there was a misjoinder, masmuch as two separate and distinct charges could not be made in the indictment, the statute providing that but one charge can be made in a single indictment. Later, District Attorney Summers said:

"If this conspiracy indictment is not good, then there can be no indictment drawn under section 5440, charging con-spiracy to violate section 1781."

The court then set for trial the case wherein Senator Deitrich is charged with benefitting by a contract with the government for the leasing of a build-ing wherein was located the postoffice at Hastings.

Senator Dietrich's counsel then asked permission to withdraw the plea of not guilty and enter a demurrer to the indictment in this case on the ground that offense is charged. Gen. Cowan briefly argued the motion and the court took it under advisement until tomor-

Aside from the indictment charging the senator with profiting by the leasing of a building to the United States government while a member of Congress, there still remains an indictment charging him directly with bribery in connection with the appointment of a postmaster at Hastings.

THE IROQUOIS FIRE. Special Grand Jury May be Called to Investigate It.

Chicago, Jan. 5 .- A special grand jury may be called to investigate the responsibility for the Iroquois fire horror. The proposition has been discussed at a conference between State's Atty. Dineen and Coroner Tracger, and the decision was that Asst. State's Atty. Barnes should be detailed to canvass the situation today when the coroner takes up his plans for the inquest. The coroner will inspect the ruins of the theater during the day after which the public prosecutor will be given an outine of the evidence to be deduced at the inquest. On the report of the as-sistant state's attorney will hang be decision as to the summoning of a special grand jury.

The regular grand jury will be convened on Jan. 18. Its docket already is heavy. Should the coroner's jury hold any persons to the grand jury as responsible for the fire, the latter would be swamped with work. On the other hand, on the thoroughness of the in-quest depends the magnitude of any subsequent investigation. If the cor-oner's inqury is exhaustive the grand jury may have nothing more to do than to examine the evidence brought out at the inquest.
