THEY COULD SEE IT.

It was so apparent to the Contennial ju-rors, when they came to compare Ben-son's Capcine Porcus Plaster with other porcus plasters on exhibition, that it was greatly superior to any of them, and they were forced by their own convictions to give to the manufacturers of it the highest and only SEB ward of SEB merit over That the Word over on the and only and only SEE invested to overcome to objection objection ever found to the old Por o us interview to the old and hitherto popular porcus Plaster, that of slow action. Benaon's Capcine Plaster acts at once, relieves pain inimediately, and cures where others will not even relieve. While poissesing the above remarkable qualities, it is absolutely free from the lead poisons that many other plasters are found by analysis to contain. Sold everywhere.

Golding and myself went in Barton came there on the bart on on horseback; going in Gen. Bur-ton said he was thankful that so little blood had been shed; and told me that if any hostile demonstra-iowed to come to see me; tions were made that I should blow this privilege was stopped about the time of the escape of Gearson; on the 13th of Jane, the cali to advance; while in there I heard the talking and Morris' words to his people; on their mak-ing demonstrations I received the Klemgard came to the prison door signal from Gen. Burton to sound the advance, but only blew two or three measures of it, when my horse became fractious and com-menced prancing around, so that I saw no shooting but heard the reports, which only occupied about five accords: tan or twolve man foland told me there was a revelation and told me there was a revelation that the prisoners should be releas-ed; and upon my asking to see the revelation, he brought it and read it to me; I asked for a flag and was marching along with it, firing be-ing very heavy; after making some motions with the flag, the firing from the posse stopped in an in-stant, and I went right to General Burton's force going back after five seconds; ten or twelve men fol-lowed us in; I think we were the first four who entered the fort; I was 17 years old at the time; I had been with Gen. Burton out on the plains just previously. Cross-examined: In riding a fort; I Burton's force, going back after-wards for my friend Jensen; I served in the posse and was one of a party of 16 men that took the log house at the west end of the fort, around the Morrisite camp we were and was the first man to enter that REESC ouse; a man named Lewis was our the Morrisites after we went in the leader; we went from the mud wall; ene of the 16 men was shot through Re-direct: When I saw them make a rush toward the arms, I was very much alarmed, and felt that if they got the arms I knew we were gone; I also saw that if they were not immediately and promptly stopped they would soon arm themselves. By a juror: I was a little behind the other three and saw no shooting; these ten men who accompanied us Re-direct: When I saw them make a rush toward the arms, I was very much alarmed, and felt that if they got the arms I knew these ten men who accompanied us in stopped behind the school-house. I heard Mr. Burton say to the man who carried the flag that he want-ed them to stack their arms; I saw Mesars. Burton, Stoddard, Golding WILLIAM J.
