

to the fury of the storm. Finally some took to a small raft. Hardly had the people got on this when a heavy sea washed off every soul, and of the Captain and eight men only one remained on it. During the night and following morning five others were washed off the wreck in a similar manner, leaving only four survivors, who were rescued by a boat from the shore. Thirteen persons perished including the wife and four children of Captain Gasston, all were natives of England. Two of the Captain's children were picked up, but died a few minutes after being rescued, either from fright or exhaustion. Following is the list of the lost. First officer, Geo. Foye, second officer, Arthur Holmes; steward, name unknown; John Johnson, Lewis Smith, Fred. Handerson, Arthur Porthouse, Ernest Molton, Mrs. Emily Gasston and four children.

NEW YORK, 18.—At a meeting of the stockholders of the Florida Ship Canal and Transit Company yesterday, the board of directors were authorized to make a contract for the construction of the canal, the work to be started at the earliest possible day. The eastern terminus of the canal will be in the vicinity of the mouth of the St. John's river. The canal will run across the peninsula at its narrowest point and will be 136 miles long, 230 feet wide and 30 feet deep.

NEW YORK, 18.—The Korean Embassy was received at the Fifth Avenue Hotel this morning by President Arthur. Prince Min Tong Jk made an address upon being presented, which was replied to by the President.

NEW YORK, 18.—The Times celebrates its 32nd birthday by reducing its price from four to two cents. The price of the Sunday edition is reduced from five to three cents; the size of the sheet, eight pages, is not reduced. The Times says: "This important change is made because the Times wishes to include in its daily readers a large class of men and women who do not like to pay four cents for their morning paper. In this age, and in this republic, there should be no aristocracy of newspaper readers. A journal which is rich and well to do, and is read because of its excellence should also be read by the poor because of its cheapness."

CHICAGO, 18.—The Christian Convention, under the guidance of D. L. Moody the evangelist, began a three day's session here this morning. About three thousand persons, chiefly ministers and evangelists, were present. The convention will be devoted chiefly to the consideration of methods for carrying on the work of evangelization throughout the country, especially in the large cities during the coming winter.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, 18.—Between six and seven hundred miners of the Hocking Valley, with delegations from about forty clubs from other parts of the State, arrived at noon to attend the State tariff convention this afternoon, under the auspices of the association of American Economists. A State organization will be effected and addressed made by Judge Lawrence, General Green, B. Raum and others.

FOREIGN.

LONDON, 17.—Sir George Nares, the distinguished Arctic explorer, writes the Times a few hopeful words to the friends and relatives of those composing the Greeley expedition. He says there is still hope that Lieutenant Greeley may have reached Port Foulke late in the season.

Latest returns from the agricultural districts of England show a large increase in foot and mouth disease among cattle.

The authorities at the last moment decided to take O'Donnell to Southampton instead of Plymouth. It is not known whether this course was taken because of information received by the police relative to movements of sympathizers with the prisoner. O'Donnell says that he has not been in irons nor handcuffed; that the custodian treated him with remarkable kindness, allowing him to go on deck mornings and afternoons, and he had his meals served him in his own cabin.

O'Donnell has an Irish cast of countenance and piercing black eyes. He shook hands heartily with the detectives who received him from the cab. Holcomb reported that O'Donnell says he does not so much mind being tried for the murder of Carey, but is afraid he will be recognized by the police as a participant in other affairs. The detectives who have charge of O'Donnell are the same men who were engaged in ferreting out the recent dynamite conspirators. The railway car in which O'Donnell will be conveyed to London, and the carriage preceding it and following it, will be filled with policemen.

The Lord Lieutenant for Ireland has issued an order abolishing the office of special resident magistrate for Dublin, and appointing four divisional magistrates, who will direct the movements of the resident magistrates and police.

A Berlin dispatch says Gladstone is expected at the meeting with the Czar. His presence there is regarded of first importance.

Much anxiety continues at Canton. It is considered probable that in case of another attack on the foreign concession, the Chinese troops in the gunboats there will make common cause with their countrymen. A hundred British soldiers are kept at Hong Kong ready for action in case of emergency. The Chinese at Foo Choo are restless, and hostile to Europeans. A British gunboat is ordered to anchor opposite the concession.

The Chinese press insists that the Black Flags were victorious in the recent fight.

A member of Henry M. Stanley's party has arrived at Madeira. He reports that the French burned Loango, because the natives refused to sell certain territory to them.

In the opinion of leading American firms, a shipment of specie will soon be made to New York.

Paris, 17.—The French Government has withdrawn its orders to an English firm to construct river gunboats for service in Tonquin, on account of inability to agree upon terms of contract.

The Republique Francaise urges that it is to the material interests of all European power to make common cause with France against the rising by China of barriers to commerce.

The rumors of dissensions in the French Cabinet are revived. It is thought they will result in the retirement of Challemeil Lecour.

Berlin, 17.—It is rumored the Emperor and Czar will shortly have a conference at Kiel.

Germany, Ultramontane organ, says: The Pope, acting in harmony with Prussian Bishops, has, without assenting in principle to the legislative enactments in regard to education of the clergy, consented to grant a dispensation for the past, and for this once only. Germania adds: If the May laws continue in force, a like spirit of toleration cannot be further exercised. Political sagacity should counsel the government not to disappoint the confidence of the pope, of which he has now given proof.

Philadelphia, 17.—The tapestry weavers of Horner Bros. returned to work, the firm having increased the wages demanded.

Lawrence, Mass., 17.—All the duck mills are in full operation. A third of the other mills have stopped; 200 men are out at Everett mill.

Merzburg, 17.—The Emperor William was present at the grand banquet in honor of the foreign military officers here. The Emperor also attended a fete of the Provincial Diet in the evening.

During the cavalry charge in the German military maneuvers to-day, many troopers were injured owing to the blinding dust.

Vienna, 17.—It is stated the Porte has instructed the Turkish Ambassador at Berlin to sound the German Government respecting a Turco-German alliance; Turkey in the event of war between Germany and France, undertaking to make diversions upon the French in Tunis and Algeria.

Pesth, 17.—There have been fresh anti-Jewish disorders in the Hildes district.

The Hague, 17.—Parliament opened to-day. The King referred to the calamity that had befallen the people of Java, and said he felt assured the charity extended to the sufferers would be equal to the great necessities of the occasion.

Socialists made the opening of Parliament the occasion for political demonstrations. Parades favoring universal suffrage were posted along the route of the royal cortege.

Alexandria, 17.—Two men convicted of participation in massacres after evacuation by Arabi Pasha were hung to-day.

Ho g Kong, 17.—Gen. Bonet has arrived here from Hanoi. Operations in Tonquin are suspended till the arrival of reinforcements.

The disagreement between the French military and civil authorities has reached a crisis, Dr. Hammond, French civil commissioner for Tonquin, having relieved Gen. Bouet of his command, and appointed Colonel Bichot and Baudens to share it equally. Gen. Bouet will return to France immediately.

The French outposts at Palan are menaced daily, and will probably withdraw, as the place is scarcely tenable.

In the recent battle the Black Flags fought with great bravery.

It is believed Gen. Banet's arrival means his removal from the naval command.

Melbourne, 17.—There is no chance of Laycock rowing a match with Hanlan, as Laycock has a badly fractured leg.

Durban, 18.—The Cape government sent an ultimatum to Cetewayo, requiring him to surrender himself and followers within 10 days. If he fails to do so, troops will be sent to arrest him.

COPENHAGEN, 18.—Members of the royal family of Denmark, with their guests, will to-day lunch with Gladstone on board his steam yacht.

Paris, 18.—Marquis Tseng, Chinese Ambassador, had a conference with Jules Ferry, president of the cabinet to-day.

London, 18.—It has transpired that O'Donnell, after shooting Carey said: "Shake hands Mr. Carey, I had to do it," not "I did not do it," as first reported. It is understood that Mrs. Carey has offered evidence of the most astonishing nature, which she declares will clear her husband's character. She has handed letters to the authorities which include the correspondence of a member of Parliament.

Paris, 18.—The Marquis Tseng, Chinese Ambassador, had a conference with Jules Ferry, President of the Cabinet, to-day.

Admiral Peyron, French Minister of Marine, having received a telegram from Hanoi mentioning that the early arrival of reinforcements had produced a good impression, and also that Gen. Bonet had been sent on a mission, telegraphed to Saigon and Hong Kong asking for full details of Gen. Bouet's departure.

Copenhagen, 18.—Gladstone has sailed for England.
