Will Start Up.

PROVIDENCE, 28.—In view of the improved demand for prints, the Sprague Mills in this State, Maine, and the Connecticut print works, which have been idle for several weeks, will start up at once.

No News from Crook—More Ute Desertions.

CHEYENNE, 28.—Adair, the sutler of Crook's command, arrived at Fetterman to-day, having left Camp Supply on the 24th inst., up to which time there was no news from Gen. Crook. The remainder of the Utes deserted Lt. Spencer before reaching Supply Camp.

Notified of their Resignations.

WASHINGTON, 28. — Twenty-eight employees of the Pension Office have been notified that their resignations will be accepted, and that one month's pay from the tenth of September granted.

Consternation Among Government Employees.

The legislative appropriation bill for services causes close attention at the Treasury Department, and there is the greatest consternation among the employees over the knowledge that over five hundred dismissals will take place at the end of the present month. Many heads of bureaus have left town to escape the appeals that will be made in every department, and even the Secretary himself has thought fit to leave town to avoid witnessing the suffering the discharge will occasion. One of the most important reductions of the bill is the list of special agents of the Treasury, which is cut down from fifty-three to twenty. Among those whom it is understood are to be retained is Wm. G. Morris, San Francisco, and two names not yet decided upon. Among those discharged are Elisha Goddard, J. Evans, San Francisco, A. A. Staring, London, England.

The Washington Monument Society.

The Monument Society, which, under a charter from Congress, now holds possession of the unfinished shaft here, and everything relating thereto, had a meeting to-day to consider the congressional, appropriation of $200,000 and the provisions imposed. The Society decided to give a transfer deed to the Government relinquishing possession of the monument and surroundings. They signed a document to that end, addressed to the American people, to be issued in a few days, calling on them to aid the Government by continuing the subscription for the monument, thus sharing the honor of finishing the work. Members of the society say there was a deal of hope that Masons Odd Fellows and other societies would aid materially in the work, and they think much will be done by them. The monument has thus far cost $230,000, and is only about one-third done. The society has now over $10,000, and a quantity of material, memorial stones, etc. As soon as the transfer is effected, thorough examination will be made of the foundation of the structure by a board of engineers, and the work will be immediately resumed.

Political Canvass.

TOLEDO, O., 28.—The political canvass in the sixth district was opened on the part of the republicans to-night by Hon. J. D. Cox, candidate to Congress, who spoke two hours to a large and enthusiastic audience in the Opera House.

Lynchers Arrested.

AUGUSTA, Ga., 28.—Several persons who were engaged in the lynching of Williams have been arrested and lodged in jail, charged with murder.

O'Leary Entertained.

NEW YORK, 28.—O'Leary, the champion walker, was entertained to-night in the Union Square Hotel by 150 guests. Hon. Thos. Costigan presided. Speeches were made by Dion Boucicault, Richard O'Gorman, Donovan Rossa, Lawrence, and M. Kine, editor of the Sunday Citizen.

Bret Harte's New Piece for Robson a Failure.

The Times of to-morrow morning will print the following: Last evening, probably for the first time in his career, Mr. Stewart Robson was an object of public pity. It was the occasion of the production before a New York audience at the Union Square Theatre of Bret Harte's drama, written expressly for Robson, at the cost of $3,000 in cash out of the unfortunate comedian's earnings, and a royalty of $20 per night, to continue to the amount of another $3,000. It is the excuse of the coming American dramatist for the intervention in the back ground that the managers and actors of the day are incompetent to decide on the literary merits of a play from merely reading the manuscript; that they see a play in action before they tell whether it is good or bad. Unfortunately for Mr. Robson he has demonstrated this general proposition in a special, and to him, very expensive way. He has paid an enormous sum for a piece of writing that has not a scintilla of wit nor the slightest degree of literary merit. It had a fair trial in Chicago, and Mr. Robson was forced to see the mistake he had made. Once in action he could tell what there was in the piece. Intent, however, on retrieving his fortunes and getting his money back, he insisted on trying it in New York, and the result was last evening's performance. The audience assembled was brilliant, large, good-humored and indulgent, but the piece was, for any good nature, however, strained, and it may be set down as the worst failure witnessed on the boards of our theatres for years. The piece is utterly aimless, is without coherency of plot, definiteness of purpose or action, and lacking in any sort of artistic symmetry in its model, or its characterization in its aramatic personel. Its sentiment is maudlin and mushy, its plot shallow, its pathos laughable and its wit lachrymose. All in all, it is a proof that the ability to write a slangy poem does not qualify one to write a play.

The third took place between the Columbia College crew and Elizabeth Boat Club of Portsmouth, Va. The Quaker City Club withdrew. The Columbia steered a splendid course. The Elizabeth crew hugged the eastern shore, and did not steer well. When nearing Peter's Island the Elizabeth crew led by a length. Columbia drew slowly up, and the race, until the finish, was a hard struggle, Columbia winning in 9.11.

The fourth heat was between the Beaverwycks, Falcons and Duquesne boat clubs. The Beavers led from the start, with Duquesne running her hard. The Falcon crew, as they neared Peter's Plank, stopped rowing. The Beavers won in 9.14; Duquesne three lengths behind.

The fifth heat was between the Pennsylvania and Watkins boat clubs, Malta having withdrawn. The Pennsylvania boat stopped several times, and suddenly ceased pulling altogether, owing to weeds. Watkins cleared the course in 9.6½.

The most interesting heat came next, between the London rowing club and the Northwestern club of Chicago, the Atlantas having withdrawn because of sickness. The signal was given and the London, by a quarter length, made a clean, beautiful start. Neither boat steered well. At the bend the Londoners were very little ahead, but the Northwesterns' steering badly, lost ground. The London crew kept up a regular machine-like swing, and viewed astern looked like one man with one pair of oars. Near Peters Island the Northwesterns caught two crabs, and one near the start. The London was now two lengths ahead. The boats increased speed, until amid the cheers of the multitude, the London crew pulled past the flag in 8 55, followed by the Northwesterns four and a half seconds later.

The seventh heat was between the first Trinity crew of Cambridge, and the Oneidas. The former won in 9 6½. The latter seemed exhausted and came in in 9 54½. The winners of the seven heats to-day, Eureka, Yale, Columbia, Beaverwyck, Watkins, London and Cambridge will row to-morrow in three heats.

The Yacht Race.

CHICAGO, 28.—The yachts Ina, of Toronto, and the Frolic, of Chicago, sailed their second race to-day on Lake Michigan, running this time fifteen miles out to the stake boat, instead of seven as before. The start was made by the Ina at 10.36.-30, and by the Frolic at 10.36.54. They rounded the first stake boat at 2.35. 47 and 2.39.06. The Ina reached the second stake boat at 5.07.21, rounding it to port, and the Frolic rounded to the starboard at 5.09 20. Actual time in favor of the Ina 1.35. The Ina was ruled out, however, by the judges after a five hours' discussion to-night. She left the home stake to port instead of starboard as called for by the agreement of racing, and the race was given to the Frolic. The race was even more close than Saturday's, and was intensely exciting throughout. The Frolic is backed for another race against the Ina provided the latter will run.

The International Regatta.

PHILADELPHIA, 28.—The second heat was rowed at 2.15, or half an hour before schedule time. The boats were Vesper, of Philadelphia, Yale University, and the Crescent Boat Club of Philadelphia. The Vespers and Yales pulled a nice race, and for over half a mile were upon equal terms. Then Yale lost ground through bad steering, but work began to tell on the Vesper men. When near Peter Island their stroke fell over very much, Yale spurted and led by two lengths, which they held as they passed the flag, in 9.24; Vesper 9.15¾; Crescent 9.46¼.

Shot and Killed—Drowned.

ST. LOUIS, 28.—Adolph Bearfel, who had been out of work a long time, shot himself through the heart to-day.

George and William Douglass were drowned near the city yesterday while bathing.

An Insane Man Commits Suicide.

John Uhlrich escaped from the insane asylum on Saturday, returned to his residence, and cut his throat for fear he would be returned to the asylum.

Fatal Affray.

LEAVENWORTH, 28.—Jno. Becker and J. P. McGlendin had an altercation to-night, the latter was stabbed eight times in the head and twice in the side. He now lies in a critical condition and will probably die.

Desperate Attempt at Killing.

CINCINNATI, 28. — A German named James Hummill made a desperate attempt to-night to kill his wife and commit suicide. She has been endeavoring to get a divorce because of his extreme cruelty, and this afternoon he called at her home, and attacked her with a knife. Thinking he had killed her, he severed an artery in his arm. The police broke into the room and found them insensible. Both were taken to the hospital. The woman may recover, but the man will die.

WESTERN.

China and Japan Items.

SAN FRANCISCO, 28.—Arrived O. & O. Co's steamer Gaelic from Hong Kong via Yokohama.

Hongkong, August 3d, Shanghai 4.—It is currently reported that Tsen Yuying, Governor of Yunnan, has committed suicide in obedience to orders from Peking. No details given; but it is rumored among the natives that government takes this method of endeavoring to check further inquiry and demands for punishment.

Tsung Li Yamen is making renewed efforts toward conciliation through the Viceroy at Nanking, whom, however, the British minister has thus far declined to meet.

The insurrection in Cambodia was suppressed by the aid of the foreign forces. The Roman Catholic church in Ning Kuohfee was attacked by the mob, who threw combustibles among the congregation, and slaughtered numbers as they endeavored to escape from the edifice.

There has been heavy transactions in silk, at high prices, in consequence of the renewed demands from Europe and America.

Yokohama, August 12.—The new railroad between Osaka and Kioto, thirty miles long, was opened this month, and is now in regular operation.

The Prime Minister Sango, with several members of his cabinet, are now making an official tour through the northern provinces to complete the inspection recently commenced by the Mikado and suit.

The Mitzu Bishe Company has established a new steamship route from Yokohama to Hakodate, thence along the northwest coast to Tunakawa.

Nilagta Fusuki Tsuruga and Siminosiki are returning by way of Hiogo.

The Russian representative Stouve, formerly Minister Resident, has been promoted to envoy extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary.

The daughter of United States Minister Bingham was married on July 27th to James R. Wasson, employed in the Japanese department of education.

FOREIGN.

BRITISH AMERICA.

Waterspout Burst.

HALIFAX, 28. — A waterspout burst over the humane establishment at St. Paul's Island, on the 18th inst., destroying five buildings and killing one man. Two store houses and a dwelling house st much shattered.

GREAT BRITAIN.

War News—Schuyler on the Atrocities.

LONDON, 28.—A correspondent with the Servians at Alexinatz says the Servians lost 10,000 men in the first five days' fighting around that town.

Schuyler's preliminary report of his investigation into the outrages in Bulgaria fully confirms the worst that has been told of the atrocities. He found that much of the slaughter was done by Turkish soldiers. He denounces the report of the Turkish commission concerning these outrages, as a mass of falsehoods. He declares that sixty-five villages were burned in these districts and 15,000 men, women and children were killed.

Peace Prospects.

The Times says the realization of peace in the East depends upon ourselves. It rests with the representatives of England to speak words that should be decisive for peace or war. It depends upon our embassador in pressing the Porte to agree to an armistice. Whether the armistice shall or shall not be concluded, if his language is clear and strong, the thing will be done.
