DELEGATE ELECTION.

HEADQUARTERS People's Territorial Central Committee, Salt Lake City, Oct. 26, 1886.

To the County and Precinct Committees and Voters of the People's Party.

As the biennial election for Delegate to Congress will occur on Tuesday, November 24, 1886, your attention is respectfully directed to the following suggestions:

County Committees should proceed at once to fill all vacancies in the Precinct Committees, and give them necessary instructions, pertaining to their duties at the approaching election.

Precinct Committees should arrange for the conveyance of ladies and infirm persons and use their influence to have all voters who are registered go to the polls on election day.

The Precinct Committees should be present at the opening of the election, and two of their number continue at the polls until the election is closed.

Remain and witness the count, as representatives of the Candidates of the People's Party. Make a record of the result and report the same to the County Committee.

Exercise your privilege of citizenship and rally on November 22 to record a routing vote for the People's Candidate.

The Territorial Central Committee, JOHN SHARP, Chairman.

FRAGMENTS.

I. KIRKENDALL went to Chicago this morning.

"Vacation" at the Theatre, for the last time this evening.

THE DOLLYS close their engagement, "Vacation" at the Theatre this evening.

THE NAMES of the company of immigrants en route to Utah appear in today's paper.

THE BROCHES riders display their skill at Agricultural Park to-morrow afternoon.

GEORGE W. GROSS, of Summit County, has been commissioned by the Governor as a notary public.

THE TIME to answer in the timber suit of the United States vs. Butler has been extended to Nov. 15.

S. T. BOYD, general ticket and passenger agent for the Minneapolis & St. Louis Railroad, is in the city.

THE AMOUNT of damages asked in the suit of Samuel Levy vs. Salt Lake City, has been raised from $5,000 to $10,000.

MR. W. VAN DYKE, of Ogden, lent the lustre of his beaming countenance to the brightness of the luminous atmosphere to-day.

WAD-EL-WARD, wife and son will give oriental entertainments in the Theatre on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday evenings of next week.

THE excursionists who are expected to arrive in this city to-morrow evening from the east over the D. & R. G., will stop over until Sunday evening.

THE regular monthly meeting of the Board of Directors of the Deseret Hospital is postponed until the second Monday in November instead of the first.

C. W. BRANCH was fined $2.50 in the Police Court this morning, for trespass. His offense was going outside the bounds prescribed at the Utah Central depot to solicit passengers.

ARTHUR CURTIS, who battered the Chinaman Hong Hlop, was sentenced to 30 days' imprisonment, by Justice Pyper, to-day. His attorney, George R. Maxwell, gave notice of an appeal.

JOHN MACK and T. Maloney, of Frisco, are in town. They report things in the Horn Silver vicinity as being extremely dull, and people who have business elsewhere don't tarry to look at the scenery.

BENJAMIN DE MOTT was arrested last night for drunkenness. He left for his appearance for trial this morning, but evidently did not care to face the Judge, so he failed to respond, the amount was declared forfeited.

BROTHER THOMAS COLBURN, of Peterson, Morgan County, returned to this city last evening, from a visit to St. George. He expects to start for home to-morrow. He enjoyed his trip and visit at St. George very much.

A STRANGE story is being told in the press about a large tract of level, translucent rock, near the head of Snake River, which is evidently a petrified lake, and beneath the surface of which are immense quantities of petrified fish.

Is Cheyenne a few days ago a young woman named May Maxwell, once a beautiful and respected young lady, died from the effects of eating opium. The keeper of the opium den to which she was in habit of resorting was a Chinaman. He was arrested and fined.

SOME of the peddlers of merchandise around town have recently been offering Snyrna rugs for sale at a price considerably in excess of the value of the goods. They have also represented themselves as manufacturers' agents in this line of goods. Recent investigations of this reported to us show that these parties are frauds.

THOMAS MURRAY was again placed under arrest last night. This time the charge against him is assault and battery on Mr. Brooks. He protested his innocence, and was given until this afternoon to procure witnesses as to his exemplary conduct. He was released on $25 bail. This afternoon he was convicted and fined $10.00.

LOCAL NEWS.

APOSTLE TAYLOR indicted.—By a dispatch from Apostle John W. Taylor, dated Blackfoot, yesterday, we learn that he was yesterday indicted and arraigned on the charge preferred some time ago of inciting to lawlessness. Mr. P. B. Walker appeared for him and got the time to plead extended till next Thursday.

Left Baltimore.—A private telegram received in this city this afternoon announces that the company of Saints now en route for Utah, left Baltimore at nine o'clock this morning, and that Elder Butler with a small party from Wisconsin, left that State a few hours later. These immigrants are expected to reach Utah next Monday.

Back From Richmond.—Captain D. B. Stover, of Stockton, who with Harry Goodwin, went to Richmond as delegate to the Knights of Labor Convention, representing Utah, arrived in Salt Lake Wednesday evening. There were 750 delegates, and the stittings occupied seventeen days. There was considerable enthusiasm and a general good time was enjoyed. The Captain left a week before, but stopped over in Chicago two days to see his son Harry, who lives there; he is looking well and feeling well.

Bound Over.—The preliminary action in the case of the United States vs. Thomas Butler was concluded yesterday afternoon.

John A. Hillstead, brother of the alleged plural wife, and a very eager witness against the defendant, testified—I do not know where my sister is; have not seen her for over a year; she is about 25 years old; she went to defendant's family about two years and three months ago, and was then reported to be his hired girl; at least I called her his hired girl for about a year after that; since then I think she was either his wife or concubine with him as such; I've heard it talked of a good deal among the folks; I asked my mother about it once and she didn't deny it; it is generally accepted in the family that they are married, or are living together as man and wife; I last visited my sister at Mr. Butler's last winter; I did not then think she was married; I first began to think so from the manner of my sister's actions towards me and my mother, but she always lived with us—I might almost say I had been a father to her—but since the reports of the marriage she has never been near us at all; we lately met on an occasion—a sorrowful one—and I noticed my sister's absence from my father's funeral; I was told that she did not come because she was afraid to show herself; she lived with me, she had for a short time received the attentions of a young man named Main, and I afterwards heard she was to marry a man named Bates in Tooele; it was broken off, through the persuasion of Mr. Butler, who, I believe, married her himself.

David Hillstead, another brother, testified that he had heard that Anna was married to the defendant; he contradicted the former witness, saying that she was present on the day of her father's death, and also attended his funeral; witness believed Anna went to live at Butler's four or five years ago; she had not yet become a mother; had never heard she was married to anyone else but the defendant.

Mrs. Charlotte Bates, Mrs. Hillstead, Robert and Anna Hillstead and Joseph H. Woolley were examined but nothing additional was elicited. H. E. Phelps and Mrs. Springfield had never heard about the defendant's being a polygamist until he was arrested.

The Commissioner gave it as his opinion that it was a case of polygamy, and fixed the bail at $5000; as the defendant could only find one bondsman last evening, he was allowed to go, and obtain another this morning.

The Theatre.—There was a large audience in attendance on the first presentation of "Vacation" last evening, and it profited immensely.

Laughter and applause, and it was a success. The first two acts are the same as when the piece was brought out here some time ago—that is, they are a dish of hash containing nothing especially nutritious or deleterious; they are funny, but not so intellectually as the antics generally pertaining rather to the domain of the clown than that of the comedian. But there was a marked improvement in the third and last act, into which several new songs, new jokes and new business have been injected, making it "go!" and assuming some of the features of a genuine play. It runs through with a rush from first to last, and this is to be commended except as relates to the dialogue, which was so rapid a times as to become indistinct. All the songs were encored, and all were on their first presentation here. To speak of the performance as a whole with either indiscriminate praise or unmitigated abuse would be unjust; it is so-so throughout and very good in places.

"Vacation" goes on to-night for the last time.

Canvassing Board.—The Utah Commission have issued the following order relative to counting the votes to be cast at next Tuesday's election:

That A. L. Thomas, H. S. Kriebbaum, C. R. Barrett, V. L. Halliday and L. S. Hills are hereby appointed a Board of Canvassers to canvass the returns of the election for Delegate to the Fifteenth Congress, to be held in the Territory of Utah on Tuesday, November 24, 1886.

2. The Commission will fill all vacancies in said Board of Canvassers that may occur by reason of failure to accept the appointment or from other causes.

3. A majority of said Board of Canvassers will determine all questions coming before them, including the awarding and signing of the certificate of election.

4. Said Board of Canvassers will meet at the rooms of the Commission, No. 54 South, Main Street, in Salt Lake City, on Friday, November 20, at 11 o'clock a.m., when the election returns will be opened in the presence and under the direction of this Commission, and said Board of Canvassers will proceed to ascertain the number of votes cast for each person as Delegate to Congress, and they or a majority of them shall give a certificate of election to the person so ascertained to have received the largest number of legal votes; which certificate shall be delivered to such person, and said Board of Canvassers shall report their proceedings and the result to this Commission.

In Town.—Mr. J. B. Tomlinson, an old-time resident of Utah, but now residing in Denver, Colorado, is visiting his relatives, the Pitts brothers, in this city. The gentleman has been engaged in mining business for some years, and is well known as an expert, having learned by hard experience the elements of the business beyond the Atlantic. He is largely interested in mining matters and is, while enjoying a pleasant visit, looking out for the "main chance."

He will remain for a few days and then return to the Central State, of which he is a native in glowing terms. He has many friends among our respected citizens, and is living his younger life over while here.

Grantville Y. M. M. I. A.—On Monday evening, Oct. 25, was completed the fourth organization of the Grantville Y. M. M. I. A.; President W. G. Collett; counselors, Eugene F. Woolley and J. C. Strongberg; secretary, Richard Jefferies; assistant, Albert Erickson; treasurer, J. F. Rich; program committee, A. G. Sandberg, J. R. Clark, Jr., O. Johnson, Wm. Rutting, and Edgar Hale.

Conditions are indicative of a successful and useful career the present season.

The Furious Exhibition.—To-morrow at 2 o'clock, the "Wild West" contest between Pete Reid, of this city, and Robert Tait, of Iron County, will take place. If the ranchmen are on hand with the promised kicking and "bucking" horses, the spectacle will be quite exhilarating, and the movements of the riders terrific. The admission to the grounds—old race track—will be 25 cents.

Probate Court.—Proceedings to-day, in Salt Lake County:

In the matter of the estate of Thomas King, deceased, Edwin Dowden has filed his bond as administrator.

In the matter of the estate of John F. Rolison, S. P. Tinsdale and Adolph Anderson appointed administrators.

Estate of B. L. Adams, deceased; account of administratrix approved and sureties released.

David Love vs. Mary R. H. Love; decree of divorce granted.

CONTRACT COMPLETED.

ELLIS MORRIS RETURNS FROM MONTANA—SOME BIG MINES.

Yesterday a representative of the News had an interview with Ellis Morris Esq., the contractor of this city, who had just returned from Montana, where he had performed a contract on the Blackbird mill, between Silver Bow and Butte. He left here in August last.

The mill he helped to construct is one of the largest in the country, having 70 stamps, and since constructed for the mill two Sturtevant furnaces, two long flues up the hill side, two stacks, the brick-work for three double and one single sets of boilers, three revolving dryers for drying ore, four retorts, and one double assay office. For this work nearly 1,000,000 brick were required. The company had bids on the work lower than Mr. Morris', but they gave him the contract in preference to other bidders, being influenced, it may be supposed, by the reputation he has won in work of the kind. These make

TEN FURNACES of the kind which he has constructed within the last ten years; he has built all of them that have been so far erected in Utah, Nevada and Montana. He keeps in his employ workmen skilled in such work, and took a corps of them with him on this contract. Some ill feeling was manifested towards him by the Knights of Labor on account of bringing masons to Montana with him, but the reason why he did it was because of their skill and long training in that line of work in his employ; and as he paid liberal wages the ill feeling referred to soon wore off. The company were highly pleased with the manner in which Mr. Morris did his work and performed his contract.

The Blackbird Mine is certainly a MAGNIFICENT ROMANCE.

The vein is 28 feet wide and the ore runs at about $45 per ton. A conservative estimate places the ore now actually in sight at $13,000,000. It is the intention of the owners to erect next season a mill of similar capacity to the one just completed.

The machinery of the present mill was furnished on contract by Messrs. Frazier & Chalmers, of Chicago, and A. M. Grant, Esq., late of the Ontario mine at Park City, had charge of the work of construction. Mr. Hugh McMillan was the chief foreman and peater and did some splendid work. All the rock work was done by a Butte contractor, except the foundations of the furnaces, chambers, dryers and stacks, which Mr. Morris constructed.

Before returning home Mr. Morris visited Phillipsburg, 65 miles from Butte, where he saw Captain J. W. Plummer, formerly manager of the Mammoth, at Tintic, who is now manager of a splendid mine called the Granite Mountain. He is putting up a mill. This mine is one of FABULOUS WEALTH.

It produces large quantities of ruby ore which averages about $8,000 per car load in value. It is estimated that ore to the value of $16,000,000 is now in sight.

Mr. Morris gave an account of the recent accident that befell him. While upon the scaffolding he walked across a plank, and a few moments later attempted to re-cross it. In the meantime a painter had misplaced it so that when he stepped upon it,

IT TIPPED UP, precipitating him a distance of about 12 feet. In descending, his head passed within three inches of a carpenter's bench; instantaneous death would probably have been the result had his head struck the bench. He alighted on his right side, on a plank floor. The concussion of the fall broke the bones of the neck, making a painful wound. No bones were broken, but the right arm was lame and sore for two weeks. The left leg was also hurt, and the whole system badly shaken up. Those who saw him lying where he had fallen thought him dead for a time. On the way home he took cold, which seemed to renew some of the pain and soreness resulting from his fall, but he is now in a fair way to a speedy and complete recovery.

An Honest Article.—Simply by means of its merits, and in the face of tremendous opposition, Utah soap has at last won its way squarely to the front. It is now very generally recognized throughout the Territory as being equal to any imported brand. In another column is the strongest kind of endorsement from Gen. H. S. Eldredge, Superintendent of Z. C. M. I., of the goods manufactured by the Utah Soap Manufacturing Co.

It is an endorsement that ought to carry great weight with it, particularly as that institution offers to pay freight both ways, besides damages on all consignments of this soap sent out by it with out giving satisfaction. With such a guarantee as this dealers and consumers should "give Utah soap a trial."

Held to Answer.—The preliminary examination in the case of the People vs. Neils M. Anderson, charged with an indecent assault upon Maana Hansen, was held before Justice Pyper yesterday afternoon, the session being held with closed doors. Nothing in addition to the facts published in the News yesterday was elicited. The defendant, however, made a further admission than he did before the trial, saying he had attempted to kiss her, but denied any criminal intention. The circumstances shown, however, did not fully agree with the defendant's story, which, in part at least, is by no means plausible, and he was required to appear to the grand jury. Bail was fixed at $500, which, however, he was unable to furnish.

CULLED FROM LATEST EXCHANGES.

—The artesian well at Dillon is now down over 300 feet.

—Yet Woolworth killed a large Rocky Mountain grizzly bear at the head of Wolf Creek, Montana, a few days ago.

—The wool shipment from Livingston, Montana, the last season, consisted of 1,092 bales, weighing 228,880 pounds.

—Coyotes are very numerous on Wolf Creek, Montana, this fall and sheep herders have to exercise constant vigilance to keep them out of the herds.

—The acreage of fall wheat in Cache County already sown is much larger than ever before. A great deal of the wheat is up and looks unusually promising.

—A member of the Judith round-up in Fergus County, Montana, took a dose of strychnine a few days ago, but his life was saved by a large dose of "bacon grease."

—The Montana extension of the Manitoba line is now being graded across the Fort Berthold military reservation, and the line will be completed in a few days to that point before work ceases this autumn.

—John Bayley, a cowboy, has been missed from Fort Benson for over a week, and it was believed he had been killed for a sum of money he claimed to have. He writes to a friend in Fort Benton saying that he is all right.

—A young man by the name of Jones, a nephew of James Kennedy, of Belgrade, Gallatin County, Montana, while riding a bucking bronco, was thrown into a west-bound train and instantly killed, his body being mangled to pieces.

—Antelope Shirt, Hind Shot and Blood Shot, whose case was carried to a successful termination at the August term of the Montana Supreme Court, were discharged last Saturday in the District Court, and have left Bozeman to join their tribe on the Piegan reservation.

—Some boys in Miles City, Montana, last week scattered powder on a son of Mr. Kidder, of that place, and then applied a match, lighting the powder. O. C. Hicks and U. Freeland, fortunately, were close by, and extinguished the flames from his clothing and hair. Otherwise the little fellow would have been burned to death.

—James Beatty met with a serious mishap at his Mission Creek ranch, Montana, Tuesday night of last week. He went into an enclosure to attend his imported Holstein-Friesian bull, when the animal assaulted him, knocking him down repeatedly and dangerously injuring him about the hips and legs. He was, however, rescued by getting out of the enclosure and crawling to the house, after having been knocked insensible several times.

WHENEVER and wherever an honest article of high merit has been produced in Utah, this establishment has invariably given it that preference, encouragement, and opportunity, without which, no home product, however meritorious, can achieve success.

We have followed this principle for seventeen years, and have not yet seen the slightest cause to abandon or modify it, and it is our earnest belief that every Merchant of high principle, who values the true interest of the people whose patronage he seeks, will accept this view.

We endorse, believe in and recommend the SOAPS made in Utah, as the best articles in that line, and we will pay freight both ways and all other damages when dissatisfaction occurs.
