

SPECIAL BUSINESS NOTICES.

LACE CURTAINS AND WINDOW SHADES A SPECIALTY.
AT Z. C. M. I. CARPET DEPARTMENT.
H. S. ELDREDGE, SUPT.
Patrons of a first-class hotel justly consider themselves entitled to comfortable rooms, a beautiful bill of fare, and courteous treatment in the office. All these, combined with a notable degree of elegance throughout, are to be found at the Commodore Hotel, Philadelphia, Pa.

PURE DIXIE WINE FROM THE VINEYARD OF JOHN C. RAIL.
TOQUEVILLE, AT Z. C. M. I. DRUG DEPT. 428

Teeth in Pain.
A sure drawback on personal appearance and personal comfort. Therefore, keep them in good repair with that established antidote for all the diseases that assail them, fragrant Socodont.

FRESH arrivals of Dressed Turkeys, at reduced prices, also Finnan Haddies, Yarmouth Bloaters, Kipper Herring, at Liddell & Brown's.

Leads' Medication Sale.
A cure for old sores, boils, tumors, cancers, ulcers, broken breasts, burns, bruises, chilblains, corns, bunions, etc. This salve will cure in every instance when used according to directions.

Geo. W. Crocker, Sole Agent opposite Kimball Block, Salt Lake City. Post office box 419. d238

BUY Home-made Goods; they will wear the best. A large stock of Jeans, White Linens, Flannels, Boots and Shoes, Yeast Powders, Soaps, Axe Grease, and other goods, at wholesale or retail, at the Old Constitution Building.

J. C. CUTLER, Agent.

SELLING OFF AT COST AT SHAW'S STORE, CLOAKS, SHAWLS, FURS, FLANNEL, BLANKETS. Remember, Bargains for all, at Shaw's Store, opposite Herald office. d30

The Housekeeper's Responsibility.
How many suffer from dyspepsia and other ills, by the neglect of the housekeeper to see that the food provided is made from articles that are not injurious to health. Among the articles which are perfectly pure and wholesome is Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder. Encourage its use by a liberal patronage.

THE Circular issued by the First Presidency of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints to the Presidents of the various Stakes of Zion, the Bishops of the different Wards, and the officers and members of the Church, is now for sale at this office, price 5 cents. Also, the Epistle of the Twelve Apostles and Counselors to the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints in all the world; price 5 cents.

HIP OR KNEE RUBBER BOOTS AT Z. C. M. I. FOR $4.50 TO $5.00 PER PAIR.
H. S. ELDREDGE, SUPT.

Read Quarters for Bargains at H. S. Phelps.
White W. Blankets - 2 75.
Horse - 2 75.
Kennebec Crochet Quilts 1 35.
Heavy - 1 50.

RED CANYON, ROCK SPRINGS AND WEBER COAL.
The only reliable market for lump, sorted and egg coal. Large stock always on hand, and full weights guaranteed. Prices low, and special attention given to suit the wants of the public. Office, Duane Bank Block. d238

LARGEST variety of Wall Paper in the City at Rivers Bros'.

FURNISHED or Unfurnished rooms to rent, single or in suite, in the Washburn Building. Terms moderate. Apply to N. Greenback & Co., at their office, on the premises. d17

FURNITURE, etc.—We have a large, new and cheap stock of furniture, feathers and house goods. Call next to Wells Fargo & Co's. HARRATT BROS.

You will save fuel and take more comfort this winter by having your windows made tight with weather strips. A new lot just received and prices easily reduced.
RIVERS BROS., Sole agents, south of Walker House.

IMMENSE variety of Chromos, Lithographs, Photo, Statuary and Motives, in various styles. All at the very lowest living prices.
RIVERS BROS., One door south of Walker House. d23

METALLIC and Rubber weather strip to go around doors and windows at H. Dinwoodie's furniture store, 75 1st South Street, Salt Lake City.

If you wish to travel by the shortest, quickest, safest and most comfortable route between Omaha and Chicago, you must buy your tickets via the Chicago and North-Western Railway. Its fare is as low as the lowest Pullman Palace Hotel dining and sleeping cars are run on its through express trains. The celebrated Pullman Hotel Cars are run by this line and by this line alone, between Omaha and Chicago. All coupon ticket agents sell tickets via this route. Inquire of any other route.

School School.
The next term of Mrs. M. E. Randall's select school will commence on Monday, the 14th inst., in Morgan's College Building, 14th Ward.

Also an Evening School, at the same place, commencing at 6.30 p. m.

For terms apply to M. E. Randall, College Building. d23

EVENING NEWS.

Published by David National Bank, Salt Lake City, January 15, 1877.

PRICE OF GOLD.
Official daily by United States Bank. Salt Lake City, January 15, 1877.
Gold at $1.00; Silver at $1.00.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

City Council.—All the members of the High Council are requested to meet at the Council House on Wednesday morning, 16th inst., at 10 o'clock.

William H. Taylor, Clerk.

English.—If a sufficient number of pupils can be obtained, Don G. Gorman, late from Chicago, will organize a class of the English language in this city. Application can be made to the names of Dr. J. R. Park, or at this office. The pupils will be composed of persons of both sexes.

Admitted to Jail.—George D. Gorman, proprietor of the store at the corner of 1st and 2nd streets, who shot and killed John W. Taylor, at that place on the 11th inst., recently had an examination before a justice of the peace at Neph, by whom he was bailed to the grand jury in bond of $2,500.

It appeared at the examination that the deceased was very bold, and that he had quarreled on the day before last. Samuel L. Smith, employed at the store, remonstrated with him, whereupon he attacked him, and seized him by the neck of his coat. He was finally ejected from the building, but subsequently burst in the door and drew a knife out upon the road, when the proprietor of the place, Mr. Taylor, fired at and almost instantly killed him.

The Governor's Message.—We summarize much of our space to-day to the Governor's Message, which was delivered this afternoon to the Legislative Assembly. It is a comprehensive document, containing many suggestions, and is written with good feeling and intentions. From the Governor's standpoint, we do not think it could be better. It is in no sense less offensive to the bulk of the people of the Territory, with whom he is not in accord on some points of religious faith and practice. But we give him credit for candor and motives springing from a wish to benefit the Territory and advance its interests as a part of our common country.

We have neither time nor space for criticism to-day, but recommend our readers to peruse it carefully, and note the people's representative to which it is entitled by the speaker's official position.

Spokane School Presentation.—On Monday Bishop A. C. Tupper made a very handsome present to the third ward Sunday school. It consisted of the portraits of the apostles, the choir leader and a copy of twelve teachers, half the number of the latter being gentlemen, and the other half ladies. These photographs are artistically arranged under a large plate of glass, the ground color of which is a rich brown, illuminated with beautiful ornamental flowerings, the work of brother Martin Lewis. This is enclosed in a massive frame, made of black walnut and other woods, set off with gold tooling. The testimonial was dedicated by the donor, Bishop Tupper, who handed it over last Sabbath, with appropriate remarks. At 10 o'clock he also presented, in behalf of Sister Anna Cross, of the 1st ward, a beautiful wreath of artificial flowers, made by her. It is worked in outline into the form of a star, to go with and hang around the frame. The testimonial is being hung up on the wall of the school-house, where it is an attractive ornament.

Indian relics.—This morning was shown to, by Hon. A. K. Thurber, some relics of Yellow Dent Corn taken from an old Indian camp, called Hieroglyphic, on Fishing Creek, a short distance from Rabbit Valley. The place is now famous because of the surrounding rocks being covered with hieroglyphical figures representing animals, deer, mites, human figures, etc., some of which are painted in colors, while others are cut in the stone. Besides the specimens of corn, pieces of (wheat, made from milkweed, pottery and other relics were found, all at a depth of about three feet from the surface. Under that thickness of debris of various kinds. At the depth where these were found, the bones of Indians having been previously found, and above that, bones of evidence of the Placitas, an advanced tribe, having camped on the spot. Brother Thurber is of opinion that the relics are at least several hundred years old.

The most striking of the hieroglyphical varieties of that section is near Glenwood, in the vicinity of the gray mill of that settlement. It consists of the figures of a man and woman, the female with hand extended toward the man, holding a round object in it. Between the mouth of the two figures is a distinctly marked line, as if to represent conversation. It very aptly strikes the beholder as an illustration of the biblical theory of Adam and Eve in the Garden of Eden. This is all entirely new. The Book of Mormon theory is that the present inhabitants of this continent were familiar with the theological theories of the creation of this planet and with the knowledge of a Redeemer.

One of the hieroglyphical varieties of that section is near Glenwood, in the vicinity of the gray mill of that settlement. It consists of the figures of a man and woman, the female with hand extended toward the man, holding a round object in it. Between the mouth of the two figures is a distinctly marked line, as if to represent conversation. It very aptly strikes the beholder as an illustration of the biblical theory of Adam and Eve in the Garden of Eden. This is all entirely new. The Book of Mormon theory is that the present inhabitants of this continent were familiar with the theological theories of the creation of this planet and with the knowledge of a Redeemer.

One of the hieroglyphical varieties of that section is near Glenwood, in the vicinity of the gray mill of that settlement. It consists of the figures of a man and woman, the female with hand extended toward the man, holding a round object in it. Between the mouth of the two figures is a distinctly marked line, as if to represent conversation. It very aptly strikes the beholder as an illustration of the biblical theory of Adam and Eve in the Garden of Eden. This is all entirely new. The Book of Mormon theory is that the present inhabitants of this continent were familiar with the theological theories of the creation of this planet and with the knowledge of a Redeemer.

One of the hieroglyphical varieties of that section is near Glenwood, in the vicinity of the gray mill of that settlement. It consists of the figures of a man and woman, the female with hand extended toward the man, holding a round object in it. Between the mouth of the two figures is a distinctly marked line, as if to represent conversation. It very aptly strikes the beholder as an illustration of the biblical theory of Adam and Eve in the Garden of Eden. This is all entirely new. The Book of Mormon theory is that the present inhabitants of this continent were familiar with the theological theories of the creation of this planet and with the knowledge of a Redeemer.

One of the hieroglyphical varieties of that section is near Glenwood, in the vicinity of the gray mill of that settlement. It consists of the figures of a man and woman, the female with hand extended toward the man, holding a round object in it. Between the mouth of the two figures is a distinctly marked line, as if to represent conversation. It very aptly strikes the beholder as an illustration of the biblical theory of Adam and Eve in the Garden of Eden. This is all entirely new. The Book of Mormon theory is that the present inhabitants of this continent were familiar with the theological theories of the creation of this planet and with the knowledge of a Redeemer.

One of the hieroglyphical varieties of that section is near Glenwood, in the vicinity of the gray mill of that settlement. It consists of the figures of a man and woman, the female with hand extended toward the man, holding a round object in it. Between the mouth of the two figures is a distinctly marked line, as if to represent conversation. It very aptly strikes the beholder as an illustration of the biblical theory of Adam and Eve in the Garden of Eden. This is all entirely new. The Book of Mormon theory is that the present inhabitants of this continent were familiar with the theological theories of the creation of this planet and with the knowledge of a Redeemer.

One of the hieroglyphical varieties of that section is near Glenwood, in the vicinity of the gray mill of that settlement. It consists of the figures of a man and woman, the female with hand extended toward the man, holding a round object in it. Between the mouth of the two figures is a distinctly marked line, as if to represent conversation. It very aptly strikes the beholder as an illustration of the biblical theory of Adam and Eve in the Garden of Eden. This is all entirely new. The Book of Mormon theory is that the present inhabitants of this continent were familiar with the theological theories of the creation of this planet and with the knowledge of a Redeemer.

One of the hieroglyphical varieties of that section is near Glenwood, in the vicinity of the gray mill of that settlement. It consists of the figures of a man and woman, the female with hand extended toward the man, holding a round object in it. Between the mouth of the two figures is a distinctly marked line, as if to represent conversation. It very aptly strikes the beholder as an illustration of the biblical theory of Adam and Eve in the Garden of Eden. This is all entirely new. The Book of Mormon theory is that the present inhabitants of this continent were familiar with the theological theories of the creation of this planet and with the knowledge of a Redeemer.

One of the hieroglyphical varieties of that section is near Glenwood, in the vicinity of the gray mill of that settlement. It consists of the figures of a man and woman, the female with hand extended toward the man, holding a round object in it. Between the mouth of the two figures is a distinctly marked line, as if to represent conversation. It very aptly strikes the beholder as an illustration of the biblical theory of Adam and Eve in the Garden of Eden. This is all entirely new. The Book of Mormon theory is that the present inhabitants of this continent were familiar with the theological theories of the creation of this planet and with the knowledge of a Redeemer.

One of the hieroglyphical varieties of that section is near Glenwood, in the vicinity of the gray mill of that settlement. It consists of the figures of a man and woman, the female with hand extended toward the man, holding a round object in it. Between the mouth of the two figures is a distinctly marked line, as if to represent conversation. It very aptly strikes the beholder as an illustration of the biblical theory of Adam and Eve in the Garden of Eden. This is all entirely new. The Book of Mormon theory is that the present inhabitants of this continent were familiar with the theological theories of the creation of this planet and with the knowledge of a Redeemer.

One of the hieroglyphical varieties of that section is near Glenwood, in the vicinity of the gray mill of that settlement. It consists of the figures of a man and woman, the female with hand extended toward the man, holding a round object in it. Between the mouth of the two figures is a distinctly marked line, as if to represent conversation. It very aptly strikes the beholder as an illustration of the biblical theory of Adam and Eve in the Garden of Eden. This is all entirely new. The Book of Mormon theory is that the present inhabitants of this continent were familiar with the theological theories of the creation of this planet and with the knowledge of a Redeemer.

One of the hieroglyphical varieties of that section is near Glenwood, in the vicinity of the gray mill of that settlement. It consists of the figures of a man and woman, the female with hand extended toward the man, holding a round object in it. Between the mouth of the two figures is a distinctly marked line, as if to represent conversation. It very aptly strikes the beholder as an illustration of the biblical theory of Adam and Eve in the Garden of Eden. This is all entirely new. The Book of Mormon theory is that the present inhabitants of this continent were familiar with the theological theories of the creation of this planet and with the knowledge of a Redeemer.

One of the hieroglyphical varieties of that section is near Glenwood, in the vicinity of the gray mill of that settlement. It consists of the figures of a man and woman, the female with hand extended toward the man, holding a round object in it. Between the mouth of the two figures is a distinctly marked line, as if to represent conversation. It very aptly strikes the beholder as an illustration of the biblical theory of Adam and Eve in the Garden of Eden. This is all entirely new. The Book of Mormon theory is that the present inhabitants of this continent were familiar with the theological theories of the creation of this planet and with the knowledge of a Redeemer.

One of the hieroglyphical varieties of that section is near Glenwood, in the vicinity of the gray mill of that settlement. It consists of the figures of a man and woman, the female with hand extended toward the man, holding a round object in it. Between the mouth of the two figures is a distinctly marked line, as if to represent conversation. It very aptly strikes the beholder as an illustration of the biblical theory of Adam and Eve in the Garden of Eden. This is all entirely new. The Book of Mormon theory is that the present inhabitants of this continent were familiar with the theological theories of the creation of this planet and with the knowledge of a Redeemer.

One of the hieroglyphical varieties of that section is near Glenwood, in the vicinity of the gray mill of that settlement. It consists of the figures of a man and woman, the female with hand extended toward the man, holding a round object in it. Between the mouth of the two figures is a distinctly marked line, as if to represent conversation. It very aptly strikes the beholder as an illustration of the biblical theory of Adam and Eve in the Garden of Eden. This is all entirely new. The Book of Mormon theory is that the present inhabitants of this continent were familiar with the theological theories of the creation of this planet and with the knowledge of a Redeemer.

One of the hieroglyphical varieties of that section is near Glenwood, in the vicinity of the gray mill of that settlement. It consists of the figures of a man and woman, the female with hand extended toward the man, holding a round object in it. Between the mouth of the two figures is a distinctly marked line, as if to represent conversation. It very aptly strikes the beholder as an illustration of the biblical theory of Adam and Eve in the Garden of Eden. This is all entirely new. The Book of Mormon theory is that the present inhabitants of this continent were familiar with the theological theories of the creation of this planet and with the knowledge of a Redeemer.

One of the hieroglyphical varieties of that section is near Glenwood, in the vicinity of the gray mill of that settlement. It consists of the figures of a man and woman, the female with hand extended toward the man, holding a round object in it. Between the mouth of the two figures is a distinctly marked line, as if to represent conversation. It very aptly strikes the beholder as an illustration of the biblical theory of Adam and Eve in the Garden of Eden. This is all entirely new. The Book of Mormon theory is that the present inhabitants of this continent were familiar with the theological theories of the creation of this planet and with the knowledge of a Redeemer.

One of the hieroglyphical varieties of that section is near Glenwood, in the vicinity of the gray mill of that settlement. It consists of the figures of a man and woman, the female with hand extended toward the man, holding a round object in it. Between the mouth of the two figures is a distinctly marked line, as if to represent conversation. It very aptly strikes the beholder as an illustration of the biblical theory of Adam and Eve in the Garden of Eden. This is all entirely new. The Book of Mormon theory is that the present inhabitants of this continent were familiar with the theological theories of the creation of this planet and with the knowledge of a Redeemer.

One of the hieroglyphical varieties of that section is near Glenwood, in the vicinity of the gray mill of that settlement. It consists of the figures of a man and woman, the female with hand extended toward the man, holding a round object in it. Between the mouth of the two figures is a distinctly marked line, as if to represent conversation. It very aptly strikes the beholder as an illustration of the biblical theory of Adam and Eve in the Garden of Eden. This is all entirely new. The Book of Mormon theory is that the present inhabitants of this continent were familiar with the theological theories of the creation of this planet and with the knowledge of a Redeemer.

One of the hieroglyphical varieties of that section is near Glenwood, in the vicinity of the gray mill of that settlement. It consists of the figures of a man and woman, the female with hand extended toward the man, holding a round object in it. Between the mouth of the two figures is a distinctly marked line, as if to represent conversation. It very aptly strikes the beholder as an illustration of the biblical theory of Adam and Eve in the Garden of Eden. This is all entirely new. The Book of Mormon theory is that the present inhabitants of this continent were familiar with the theological theories of the creation of this planet and with the knowledge of a Redeemer.

One of the hieroglyphical varieties of that section is near Glenwood, in the vicinity of the gray mill of that settlement. It consists of the figures of a man and woman, the female with hand extended toward the man, holding a round object in it. Between the mouth of the two figures is a distinctly marked line, as if to represent conversation. It very aptly strikes the beholder as an illustration of the biblical theory of Adam and Eve in the Garden of Eden. This is all entirely new. The Book of Mormon theory is that the present inhabitants of this continent were familiar with the theological theories of the creation of this planet and with the knowledge of a Redeemer.

One of the hieroglyphical varieties of that section is near Glenwood, in the vicinity of the gray mill of that settlement. It consists of the figures of a man and woman, the female with hand extended toward the man, holding a round object in it. Between the mouth of the two figures is a distinctly marked line, as if to represent conversation. It very aptly strikes the beholder as an illustration of the biblical theory of Adam and Eve in the Garden of Eden. This is all entirely new. The Book of Mormon theory is that the present inhabitants of this continent were familiar with the theological theories of the creation of this planet and with the knowledge of a Redeemer.

One of the hieroglyphical varieties of that section is near Glenwood, in the vicinity of the gray mill of that settlement. It consists of the figures of a man and woman, the female with hand extended toward the man, holding a round object in it. Between the mouth of the two figures is a distinctly marked line, as if to represent conversation. It very aptly strikes the beholder as an illustration of the biblical theory of Adam and Eve in the Garden of Eden. This is all entirely new. The Book of Mormon theory is that the present inhabitants of this continent were familiar with the theological theories of the creation of this planet and with the knowledge of a Redeemer.

One of the hieroglyphical varieties of that section is near Glenwood, in the vicinity of the gray mill of that settlement. It consists of the figures of a man and woman, the female with hand extended toward the man, holding a round object in it. Between the mouth of the two figures is a distinctly marked line, as if to represent conversation. It very aptly strikes the beholder as an illustration of the biblical theory of Adam and Eve in the Garden of Eden. This is all entirely new. The Book of Mormon theory is that the present inhabitants of this continent were familiar with the theological theories of the creation of this planet and with the knowledge of a Redeemer.

One of the hieroglyphical varieties of that section is near Glenwood, in the vicinity of the gray mill of that settlement. It consists of the figures of a man and woman, the female with hand extended toward the man, holding a round object in it. Between the mouth of the two figures is a distinctly marked line, as if to represent conversation. It very aptly strikes the beholder as an illustration of the biblical theory of Adam and Eve in the Garden of Eden. This is all entirely new. The Book of Mormon theory is that the present inhabitants of this continent were familiar with the theological theories of the creation of this planet and with the knowledge of a Redeemer.

One of the hieroglyphical varieties of that section is near Glenwood, in the vicinity of the gray mill of that settlement. It consists of the figures of a man and woman, the female with hand extended toward the man, holding a round object in it. Between the mouth of the two figures is a distinctly marked line, as if to represent conversation. It very aptly strikes the beholder as an illustration of the biblical theory of Adam and Eve in the Garden of Eden. This is all entirely new. The Book of Mormon theory is that the present inhabitants of this continent were familiar with the theological theories of the creation of this planet and with the knowledge of a Redeemer.

One of the hieroglyphical varieties of that section is near Glenwood, in the vicinity of the gray mill of that settlement. It consists of the figures of a man and woman, the female with hand extended toward the man, holding a round object in it. Between the mouth of the two figures is a distinctly marked line, as if to represent conversation. It very aptly strikes the beholder as an illustration of the biblical theory of Adam and Eve in the Garden of Eden. This is all entirely new. The Book of Mormon theory is that the present inhabitants of this continent were familiar with the theological theories of the creation of this planet and with the knowledge of a Redeemer.

One of the hieroglyphical varieties of that section is near Glenwood, in the vicinity of the gray mill of that settlement. It consists of the figures of a man and woman, the female with hand extended toward the man, holding a round object in it. Between the mouth of the two figures is a distinctly marked line, as if to represent conversation. It very aptly strikes the beholder as an illustration of the biblical theory of Adam and Eve in the Garden of Eden. This is all entirely new. The Book of Mormon theory is that the present inhabitants of this continent were familiar with the theological theories of the creation of this planet and with the knowledge of a Redeemer.

THE JOURNAL'S WASHINGTON SPECIAL.

The Journal's Washington special says: The Senate election commission, 12-12, discussed, without disposing of, the woman's suffrage constitutional amendment.

A Disgraceful Scene in the House.
The Times' Washington special says: The scene in the House yesterday, was of uncommon and disgraceful import. The Speaker conducted matters so skillfully, and nobody objected because nobody knew what was going on. At the back of the new scenes, which were put up in the hall, was a motley crowd of yelling, howling, demoniacal lobbyists, and in the gallery and hall was a curious compound of the best and worst of the country, who are urging forward the woman's movement.

Shafter's Conduct Condemned.
The Times' San Antonio special says: The testimony of Shafter before the committee of foreign affairs has produced a sensation. Shafter, it is thought, went back on the truth per force of political or military influence at Washington. His insinuations, made in an underhanded manner and aimed at Gen. Ord, are regarded as very disgraceful. His testimony was directly opposite to the statements made to the reporters in this city as well as to citizens generally and officers of the army. The Times' editorial is correct in condemning Shafter's conduct, and are highly prized by all who know the truth regarding border troubles.

The Times' London special says: There are rumors of a heavy battle near Tatar Bazarlik between Radetzky and the Turkish force falling back from Ichim. The reports give the victory to both sides, one of them saying that the Russians have been defeated with a loss of 3,000 and the wounding of Radetzky.

The Times' London special says: The testimony of Shafter before the committee of foreign affairs has produced a sensation. Shafter, it is thought, went back on the truth per force of political or military influence at Washington. His insinuations, made in an underhanded manner and aimed at Gen. Ord, are regarded as very disgraceful. His testimony was directly opposite to the statements made to the reporters in this city as well as to citizens generally and officers of the army. The Times' editorial is correct in condemning Shafter's conduct, and are highly prized by all who know the truth regarding border troubles.

The Times' London special says: There are rumors of a heavy battle near Tatar Bazarlik between Radetzky and the Turkish force falling back from Ichim. The reports give the victory to both sides, one of them saying that the Russians have been defeated with a loss of 3,000 and the wounding of Radetzky.

The Times' London special says: The testimony of Shafter before the committee of foreign affairs has produced a sensation. Shafter, it is thought, went back on the truth per force of political or military influence at Washington. His insinuations, made in an underhanded manner and aimed at Gen. Ord, are regarded as very disgraceful. His testimony was directly opposite to the statements made to the reporters in this city as well as to citizens generally and officers of the army. The Times' editorial is correct in condemning Shafter's conduct, and are highly prized by all who know the truth regarding border troubles.

The Times' London special says: There are rumors of a heavy battle near Tatar Bazarlik between Radetzky and the Turkish force falling back from Ichim. The reports give the victory to both sides, one of them saying that the Russians have been defeated with a loss of 3,000 and the wounding of Radetzky.

The Times' London special says: The testimony of Shafter before the committee of foreign affairs has produced a sensation. Shafter, it is thought, went back on the truth per force of political or military influence at Washington. His insinuations, made in an underhanded manner and aimed at Gen. Ord, are regarded as very disgraceful. His testimony was directly opposite to the statements made to the reporters in this city as well as to citizens generally and officers of the army. The Times' editorial is correct in condemning Shafter's conduct, and are highly prized by all who know the truth regarding border troubles.

The Times' London special says: There are rumors of a heavy battle near Tatar Bazarlik between Radetzky and the Turkish force falling back from Ichim. The reports give the victory to both sides, one of them saying that the Russians have been defeated with a loss of 3,000 and the wounding of Radetzky.

The Times' London special says: The testimony of Shafter before the committee of foreign affairs has produced a sensation. Shafter, it is thought, went back on the truth per force of political or military influence at Washington. His insinuations, made in an underhanded manner and aimed at Gen. Ord, are regarded as very disgraceful. His testimony was directly opposite to the statements made to the reporters in this city as well as to citizens generally and officers of the army. The Times' editorial is correct in condemning Shafter's conduct, and are highly prized by all who know the truth regarding border troubles.

The Times' London special says: There are rumors of a heavy battle near Tatar Bazarlik between Radetzky and the Turkish force falling back from Ichim. The reports give the victory to both sides, one of them saying that the Russians have been defeated with a loss of 3,000 and the wounding of Radetzky.

The Times' London special says: The testimony of Shafter before the committee of foreign affairs has produced a sensation. Shafter, it is thought, went back on the truth per force of political or military influence at Washington. His insinuations, made in an underhanded manner and aimed at Gen. Ord, are regarded as very disgraceful. His testimony was directly opposite to the statements made to the reporters in this city as well as to citizens generally and officers of the army. The Times' editorial is correct in condemning Shafter's conduct, and are highly prized by all who know the truth regarding border troubles.

The Times' London special says: There are rumors of a heavy battle near Tatar Bazarlik between Radetzky and the Turkish force falling back from Ichim. The reports give the victory to both sides, one of them saying that the Russians have been defeated with a loss of 3,000 and the wounding of Radetzky.

The Times' London special says: The testimony of Shafter before the committee of foreign affairs has produced a sensation. Shafter, it is thought, went back on the truth per force of political or military influence at Washington. His insinuations, made in an underhanded manner and aimed at Gen. Ord, are regarded as very disgraceful. His testimony was directly opposite to the statements made to the reporters in this city as well as to citizens generally and officers of the army. The Times' editorial is correct in condemning Shafter's conduct, and are highly prized by all who know the truth regarding border troubles.

The Times' London special says: There are rumors of a heavy battle near Tatar Bazarlik between Radetzky and the Turkish force falling back from Ichim. The reports give the victory to both sides, one of them saying that the Russians have been defeated with a loss of 3,000 and the wounding of Radetzky.

The Times' London special says: The testimony of Shafter before the committee of foreign affairs has produced a sensation. Shafter, it is thought, went back on the truth per force of political or military influence at Washington. His insinuations, made in an underhanded manner and aimed at Gen. Ord, are regarded as very disgraceful. His testimony was directly opposite to the statements made to the reporters in this city as well as to citizens generally and officers of the army. The Times' editorial is correct in condemning Shafter's conduct, and are highly prized by all who know the truth regarding border troubles.

The Times' London special says: There are rumors of a heavy battle near Tatar Bazarlik between Radetzky and the Turkish force falling back from Ichim. The reports give the victory to both sides, one of them saying that the Russians have been defeated with a loss of 3,000 and the wounding of Radetzky.

The Times' London special says: The testimony of Shafter before the committee of foreign affairs has produced a sensation. Shafter, it is thought, went back on the truth per force of political or military influence at Washington. His insinuations, made in an underhanded manner and aimed at Gen. Ord, are regarded as very disgraceful. His testimony was directly opposite to the statements made to the reporters in this city as well as to citizens generally and officers of the army. The Times' editorial is correct in condemning Shafter's conduct, and are highly prized by all who know the truth regarding border troubles.

The Times' London special says: There are rumors of a heavy battle near Tatar Bazarlik between Radetzky and the Turkish force falling back from Ichim. The reports give the victory to both sides, one of them saying that the Russians have been defeated with a loss of 3,000 and the wounding of Radetzky.

The Times' London special says: The testimony of Shafter before the committee of foreign affairs has produced a sensation. Shafter, it is thought, went back on the truth per force of political or military influence at Washington. His insinuations, made in an underhanded manner and aimed at Gen. Ord, are regarded as very disgraceful. His testimony was directly opposite to the statements made to the reporters in this city as well as to citizens generally and officers of the army. The Times' editorial is correct in condemning Shafter's conduct, and are highly prized by all who know the truth regarding border troubles.

The Times' London special says: There are rumors of a heavy battle near Tatar Bazarlik between Radetzky and the Turkish force falling back from Ichim. The reports give the victory to both sides, one of them saying that the Russians have been defeated with a loss of 3,000 and the wounding of Radetzky.

The Times' London special says: The testimony of Shafter before the committee of foreign affairs has produced a sensation. Shafter, it is thought, went back on the truth per force of political or military influence at Washington. His insinuations, made in an underhanded manner and aimed at Gen. Ord, are regarded as very disgraceful. His testimony was directly opposite to the statements made to the reporters in this city as well as to citizens generally and officers of the army. The Times' editorial is correct in condemning Shafter's conduct, and are highly prized by all who know the truth regarding border troubles.

The Times' London special says: There are rumors of a heavy battle near Tatar Bazarlik between Radetzky and the Turkish force falling back from Ichim. The reports give the victory to both sides, one of them saying that the Russians have been defeated with a loss of 3,000 and the wounding of Radetzky.

The Times' London special says: The testimony of Shafter before the committee of foreign affairs has produced a sensation. Shafter, it is thought, went back on the truth per force of political or military influence at Washington. His insinuations, made in an underhanded manner and aimed at Gen. Ord, are regarded as very disgraceful. His testimony was directly opposite to the statements made to the reporters in this city as well as to citizens generally and officers of the army. The Times' editorial is correct in condemning Shafter's conduct, and are highly prized by all who know the truth regarding border troubles.

The Times' London special says: There are rumors of a heavy battle near Tatar Bazarlik between Radetzky and the Turkish force falling back from Ichim. The reports give the victory to both sides, one of them saying that the Russians have been defeated with a loss of 3,000 and the wounding of Radetzky.

The Times' London special says: The testimony of Shafter before the committee of foreign affairs has produced a sensation. Shafter, it is thought, went back on the truth per force of political or military influence at Washington. His insinuations, made in an underhanded manner and aimed at Gen. Ord, are regarded as very disgraceful. His testimony was directly opposite to the statements made to the reporters in this city as well as to citizens generally and officers of the army. The Times' editorial is correct in condemning Shafter's conduct, and are highly prized by all who know the truth