

LONDON, 14.—A Times dispatch from Capetown says: Letsea, the Basuto chief, has taken Thababosigo and surrounded Masupha, the malcontent whose submission is hourly expected.

Advices from Candahar to the 9th inst., through native sources, report that Ayoo Khan intends to attack Candahar as soon as his preparations are completed. Large numbers of tribesmen continue to flock to his standard.

Fully 100 men were engaged in the robbery. There were seven boats, each carrying seven men. The crew of the Juno were fastened down in the fore-castle, and armed sentries placed over them. The Captain and the revenue officers were shut up in the cabin.

It was no secret there were arms on board the ship. All the marauders were armed with revolvers. The six men arrested were before a magistrate yesterday. They all belonged to Cork, and were unable to give an account of their presence at the passage. They were remanded for trial. The most remarkable circumstance connected with the affair is, while the boats were leaving and still in view from the vessel, no alarm was given by the Captain and revenue officer on board at the time of the robbery. The patrol were in the road outside the dock wall, only twenty-five yards from the ship, and the slightest alarm would have reached them.

Four of the rifles stolen from the ship Juno have been found in a garden at Rochestown. It is understood the police have a clue to the men who fell into the hold of the vessel.

Sixteen more rifles have been found in Furze, not a hundred yards from where the first lot was found. It is stated that the owner of the missing ferry boat, which was employed in the raid, has been arrested. The constabulary have taken charge of two boats found derelict.

The seized rifles bear the stamp of 1840. They appear to have been polished up before consignment to the Juno.

The captain of the Juno states that after the marauders landed he heard the rattle of wheels on the road, showing that they must have employed carriages.

One hundred police patrolled along the river all of Thursday night, but no further clue to the identity of the Juno raiders was obtained.

WHY submit to the discomfort and humiliation entailed by a local disease of the skin, when GLENN'S SULPHUR SOAP will rid you of it with certainty and despatch? It is a remedy which never fails to relieve cutaneous disease, and, as a means of banishing defects of the complexion, it is equally reliable. The benefits arising from the use of Sulphur Baths, in cases of skin disease, and of rheumatism and gout, are well known, but the cost is too heavy to be incurred by many persons who would otherwise take advantage of them. GLENN'S SULPHUR SOAP answers the same purpose, and is both inexpensive and convenient. No one need stir abroad in search of a sulphur bath who has this admirable means of providing one in doors. It is incomparably the best deodorizer and disinfectant of clothing and bed linen in use, and prevents diseases of an obnoxious nature caused by contact. Sores, ulcers, bruises, scalds, cuts and sprains are promptly remedied by it; and its cleanly, healing and soothing properties constitute it a far more desirable remedy for scorbutic ailments than ointments of any description, since such greasy compounds soil the clothing, often aggravate, and very rarely indeed do any permanent good.
