

appeal has been made to France for help.

A strange story is in circulation to the effect that the remains which will be honored by Austria are not those of the ill-fated scion of the House of Hapsburg, but of Hamero, a noted guerilla, who in life was not unlike poor Maximilian. The latter is said to be pining away in an obscure "dungeon" in Queretero, awaiting the arrival of welcome death.

LOCAL ITEMS.

THEATRICAL.—On Saturday night "Jack Cade" was performed to a crowded house, Mr Stark sustaining the title role, and the other characters being well represented by members of the company. The loud and frequent applause during the performance was the best criterion of the success of the play. Mr Stark's Cade was a little different from some we have seen, but every scene developed an intellectuality in harmony with the circumstances, situations and characteristics of the individual personated. We prefer Mr Stark's Jack Cade to any that we have seen before.

Considering that the company have been studying and playing in a new piece every night, they deserve credit for requiring no more of the prompter's aid. The amount of study involved in this has to be considered in forming a correct estimate of their efforts. The manner in which "Jack Cade" was performed on Saturday night declared most creditably for the company.

To-morrow evening, agreeably to the requisition of a large number of our citizens, Mr Stark will appear as Alfred Evelyn, in Bulwer's "Money." The first performance of this beautiful Comedy gave such complete satisfaction that nearly every one who saw it wished to see it again. This desire is gratified through Mr Stark remaining over to-morrow night and appearing in the piece. We expect a crowded house; and may say that it is rare indeed to find a company, even in a metropolitan theatre, so competent to do justice to this admirable Comedy.

SEVENTIES' HALL.—Secretary Willes has courteously left a note on our desk, informing us that Elder J. N. Barker, of Willard City, will lecture on Wednesday evening next, in the Seventies' Hall, on "Natural Philosophy, divided into six kingdoms, embracing the primary and elementary forces of nature." We presume this is an addition to the lecture by Elder Sears.

SABBATH MEETINGS.—Bishop David Evans, of Lehi, spoke at length on the Word of Wisdom, showing its pertinency and the necessity for the Saints observing it.

Afternoon. Elder Orson Hyde spoke. His remarks were reported.

Bishop L. E. Harrington spoke upon the necessity of preparing ourselves, by a faithful obedience to all the requirements made upon us, for administering in the ordinances of the House of God. Congratulated the Saints upon the efforts now being made in this City and Territory for the spread of education. It was gratifying to see what the Word of Wisdom is doing for this people—enabling them to save means for the building of temples, schools, and for the accomplishment of the purposes of God. In our social parties it has been too common to indulge in the stimulus afforded by alcohol and tobacco, while the only stimulus that ought to be required by Latter-day Saints is the Spirit of the Lord and the joy of beholding each others' faces. The Word of Wisdom is bringing this about. Spoke on the principle of honesty, and said that true honesty consisted in rendering to God and to all men that which belonged to them.

Concluded by exhorting the Saints to honor the principles of eternal life in all the transactions of life.

A CARD.

To the Inhabitants and purchasing Community of this Territory:—

Owing to the great decline in the prices of goods in the Eastern Markets (being determined to keep IN RATIO with them,) I have made a further reduction in the prices of goods, which upon examination will speak for themselves. I have also on hand a great many articles that have laid over for one and two years—which I will sell, REGARDLESS OF COST, even lower than the present rates in the Eastern Markets will permit of; viz: Table and Pocket Cutlery, Spades, Shovels, Scythes and Snaths, Bake Skillets, Locks and Latches, Tea and Table Spoons, Carriage Bolts, Cast, Blister and Plough Steel, Soap, Lye, Tobacco, and an immense variety of other goods, which are necessities for every day use. Farmers and Country Merchants would do well to call and examine the stock and prices, and as Greenbacks are scarce in the country, I will take for pay, Cattle, Wheat, Flour, Barley, Oats, Pork, &c., for which I will give a price that will guarantee satisfaction.
