County Supt. of Schools has received partial returns from the work done by the pupils in the district schools of the county on Arbor day. The reports show that the pupils planted 14,827 trees on that day as well as a large number of flowers, vines and gardens. In Big Cottonwood district alone the children planted 6,632 trees.

The members of the old Lyceum De bating and Literary society, which flourished here years ago, will hold a re-union and banquet at the Commer-cial club on Monday evening May 2, 1994. A good program has been arranged for that occasion and a genuine good time is anticipated by those who were connected with that organization in its palmy days,

R. L. Polk & Co. have just issued their new directory of Salt Lake City, and it is probably the handsomest volume, as well as the largest and most complete ever from their establishment. In the opening statement, the publisher gives the total number of names in the directory as 36,478, and with this figure as a basis, the population of Salt Lake is fixed at 91,195.

Rev. W. H. Fish of the Unitarian church preached yesterday morning on "The Real Yellow Peril," in which he said "the true mission of Japan is to show a united front with China and the rest of the world, and to declare in Asia a Monroe doctrine, founded on the principles of civil and religious liberty that should win the approval of all true Americans."

The will of George N. Dow, deceased, warden of the state prison, has been filed for probate in the district court, together with the petition of Mrs. Alice I.
