SATURDAY'S GAME AT BUTTE

Salt Lake Team Played Excellent Game And Defeated the Champions.

And Defeated the Champions. Salt Lake put a temporary stop to Butte's winning streak on Saturday, and won a game by rattling good bail playing, the score being 4 to 3 when the last man went down in the ninth inning. The game looked all Butte when the Salt Lake bunch gathered in three runs by bunching live hits off Dowling. The miners made a hard fight to overcome the lead of the visitors but were unable to do so. Tozer for Salt Lake had a big lead over Dowling. He allowed but sat buts and half as many runs while bowhing was touched up for 11 hits. The summary follows: summary follows:

AFTER CIRCUIT CHASERS.

Effort Made to Bring Fast Horses Here From the Northwest During Fair.

Chicago Handicap.

From the Northwest During Fair. If the six-day horse race meet sched-uled to take place at Agricultural park during the state fair is not a huge suc-cess it will not be the fault of those who have tho matter in hand, for they are now doing all in their power to bring a string of circuit chasers from the northwest here to compete for the 50,000 prizes. From Sept. 21 to 25 the horsese will be in Portland and will then jump to Bolse City Oct. 12 to 17. The present scheme is to have the horses come directly here from Portland and after finishing here go to Bolse. Small towns would be missed but Bolse could be reached in good time.
