Enormous Amounts to be Distributed
Among Beet Raisers and Farmers
—No Interruption to Trade.

financial crisis is Tuesday, the 10th of the month, which is pay-day for many big employers of labor. On that day it is the task of the general manager to "sweat" for ways and means to meet his payroll while the men under him have been doing that kind of service for 30-odd days and expect their money.

This is the second pay day since the financial crash upset the calculations

The smelters are paying wholly in cash. Manager Charles W. Whitley of the American Smelting & Refining company declared that all the checks drawn by his company on McCormick's bank were checks calling for cash payment and that cash was being paid out of them. "We met the situation so easily before," he said, "that this time there is no contrast."

The statement that cash was being paid out on the smelter company checks was also made by W. S. McCormick. It is understood that the special shipment of money was made into Salt Lake by the smelting company, and that the cash was deposited with W. S. McCormick, Salt Lake, and another of the Cornish, N. H., bankers.

The Utah Light and Railway company paid off its employees today by checks on the Deseret National bank. The big army of street railroad men presented their checks, receiving a usual amount in cash and cashier's checks, the latter now being generally accepted as cash without question.

The three sugar companies, the Utah Idaho, whose headquarters are in Salt Lake, and the Amalgamated and the Lewiston, whose headquarters are in $10,000, for factory labor today and about $1,000 on the 15th as the due payment to the farmers for their beef. The companies will give checks of their local banks, and these will pay 10 New York exchange cash, cashier's checks, and cash the same as last month, when a much larger amount was distributed without the least friction or interruption to trade.
