also satisfactory. In some cases the board has made serious charges against the board, ignoring the fact that the board is a body of men and women who are elected by the people and who are not to be held responsible for the actions of a few individuals who may be in the board.

A CASE OF BURNING.

D. D. Levere, alias Henry Johnson, is held in jail here on a charge of burning a building in Ogden, Utah.

At the alleged high noon marriage ceremony in Ogden, there is some doubt about the hearing being held before Judge Greenman, as Judge Judd, U. S. Attorney, may transfer it to an Ogden court.

The statement of the prosecution in the case is that two years ago Levere became acquainted with a woman, Mrs. Mary E. Levere, of Ogden, and lived with her in Ogden.
