Solid Merit will Tell.

For all the bitter opposition to various rivals, no better illustration could be had of this fact than the immense sale already attained by the great Throat and Lung Remedy, Dr. Aug. Kaiser's German Elixir. For the cure of Coughs and Bronchial Affections, it is truly wonderful, even those suffering from Consumption in advanced stages find great relief, and numbers of patients have found, to their delight, not only relief but cure. It being perfectly harmless, makes it at once popular with mothers, who of all others have felt the necessity of such a medicine. The genuine bears the Prussian Coat of Arms, the fac-simile signature of Dr. Aug. Kaiser, and has his name blown on every 75 cent bottle. A trial size may be had for 25 cents. For sale, wholesale and retail, by the Z. C. M. I. Drug Department and Moore Allen & Co., Salt Lake City. dtf

EVENING NEWS.

Monday, November 17, 1879.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

To be Held in Ogden.—The next term of the Third District Court, commencing on the first Monday in December, will be held in Ogden.

Sneak Thief.—A lady in the Eighteenth Ward had a carpet stolen from her the other evening, the article having been hung out upon the porch rail for a airing.

Returned.—Messrs. A. O. Smoot, Jr., Utah County assessor, and John C. Graham, editor of the Enquirer, of Provo, who were up to the city for a few days last week, returned home yesterday morning.

More Thieving.—Thieves are still busy with the peace and comfort of the good people of Ogden. Friday night Mr. Alf Low had his mare stolen from his stable. And the same evening Stephens' elgar and gun store was broken into and two pistols taken away.

Beaver and Bereman.—The Beaver Watchman thinks, with the Herald, that Judge Bereman should reside in his district. So do we. By all means let them have him. Without depriving Beaver of his Bereman. He has our free permission to go home at once.

In Jail.—Bill Bailey, who shot and killed Dan Wight, near Corinne the other day, arrived in Salt Lake yesterday morning in charge of Sheriff Loveland, of Box Elder County, and was lodged in the city jail. He will remain there to await the action of the grand jury.

Obsequies.—The funeral services over the remains of the late Albert (Pet) Reggel, who died suddenly Friday morning, were held at the residence of the parents, this forenoon. Eight pall-bearers walked beside the hearse, and a large procession of vehicles, containing friends of the family, followed the remains to their last resting place.

District Court.—Proceedings Monday Morning, Nov. 17, 1879: Charlotte Arthur vs. Executors of the estate of B. Young; trial before the court. Motion of defendants for judgment on the pleadings in favor of defendants, allowed; Complaint dismissed. Plaintiff excepts; 20 days stay of proceedings allowed by consent.

Salt Lake City vs. R. G. Jones et al.; Court prefers case to be submitted to a jury.

Social Intruders.—Complaints have several times reached us that certain persons in this city make a practice of going around to the various dancing parties, without invitations, and by means of misrepresentation seek to gain admittance to the ball room. Their most common plan is to impose upon the credulity of the doorkeeper, by telling him that they have received invitations to the party, but have inadvertently left them at home. It has been necessary, in several places, of late, to speak quite plainly to these "gentlemen," before they could be persuaded to quit the society of those to whom their company was unwelcome. One would naturally suppose that persons of sensibility and refinement would hardly require to be told that it is not only impolite and undignified to try to go into any private company uninvited, but that when detected and found out, are proscribed to an entrance into select circles, their conduct can only be designated, mean and contemptible. There may be nothing morally objectionable to persons wishing to gain admittance to society, their character and manners may be entirely above reproach, but these are not always effectual as passports in social life. Often people who meet with their friends, do not desire the intrusion of a stranger into their midst, no matter how excellent his reputation or faultless his deportment, and true gentlemen will at once see and appreciate the reason for and consistency of such objections.

Discharged.—The four boys arrested on the charge of beating a Chinaman on Commercial Street, last week, were up before Justice Pyper this morning. Three were taken in hand Friday, but the trial was postponed until to-day to allow the other offender to be arrested. It transpired that the last mentioned was the only one who assaulted the Chinaman, and that he had done it in defense of a little boy whom the Mongolian was whipping at the time. All were discharged.

A white man was also up for insulting a colored woman, but it being proved that it was a tit-for-tat affair, in which both sides had exchanged bad language, they were discharged with a reprimand.

A dumb boy, for breaking a window with a snow ball thrown at some other boys who had thrown first at him, was also discharged, on payment by a friend of the damage inflicted.

Grain Meeting.—The annual Territorial meeting of the ladies' grain raising committee was held in the Council House, Saturday afternoon, at 2 o'clock. There was a good attendance of those interested and actively engaged in this important work, and reports were presented and read from various parts of the Territory. Business connected with this enterprise was presented and liberally discussed. The chairman of the organization, Sister E. R. Wells, desires that the secretaries of those societies from whom no reports have as yet been received, will forward the same to her as soon as possible, so that full showing of all the grain stored by the sisters throughout the several States of Zion, may be made before the close of the year.

Military Roster.—We have received a copy of the roster of the commissioned officers of the Fourth United States Infantry, issued from their headquarters, Fort Douglas, October 31st, 1879. The field and staff officers are Colonel John E. Smith, commanding regiment; Lieut. Colonel Henry Douglas, commanding at Fort Cameron; Major Montgomery Bryant, commanding the battalion of the Fourteenth Infantry in the field; Lieut. Colonel William W. McCammon and Quartermaster George T. T. Patterson, at Fort Douglas. There are 10 captains, 11 first lieutenants, and 11 second lieutenants, here and elsewhere. Companies E, H, I and K are on the Utah expedition.

"Enquiries" Notes.—The Sanpete Valley Railway Company intends shortly to start the construction of the road with a large force of hands. The Sanpete valley will soon echo the snort of the iron horse.

Last Thursday, William Gardner, of American Fork, while on the West Mountains, was lifting a ten-gallon keg of water from his wagon, when he fell and the keg rolled upon him, breaking his leg just above the knee.

Arthur Forbes, of the same place, son of Prof. J. B. Forbes, while playing ball with some other boys, on Wednesday, ran in front of the one who was batting, and was struck on the arm, breaking it two inches above the wrist.

The Conservatory Anniversary.—Wednesday, the 19th inst., is the anniversary of the founding of the Utah Conservatory of Music, and to celebrate the event, Mrs. Ferguson's pupils design holding a select social soiree in the Conservatory Rooms, at seven o'clock in the evening. The guests will be confined to the pupils and their invited friends, and the proceedings will consist of musical and literary exercises, appropriately associated with the delicacies of the festive board, and the enjoyment usual to a happy social gathering.

Diphtheria.—This treacherous disease seems to be slightly on the increase, here as well as in other places. In Provo, two cases (both small children) are reported in the family of President A. D. Smoot. We are pleased to state that the family of Brother Robert Patrick, of the 18th Ward, this city, who have been so sorely afflicted of late, are improving rapidly.

The Juries.—The Grand Jury, which has been adjourned for several weeks, resumes its duties tomorrow afternoon, Nov. 18, at 2 o'clock.

The Petit Jury will resume a week from to-day, Monday, Nov. 24th, at 10 o'clock a. m.

Afternoon Meetings.—Yesterday, the first afternoon sessions of the Ward meetings, this season, were held in the various meeting-houses throughout the city. In some wards, the attendance was very good, in others but moderate, and in some quite poor. The inclemency of the weather, no doubt, kept many away.

London Publications.—S. G. Reed, Esq., of the London News Depot, brings us Bow Bells Almanack, Poor Richards' Almanack, and Old Moore's Almanack, for the year 1880. Also the Family Herald for November, Reynolds and Lloyd's newspapers, Punch, for October, and the November numbers of Boys of England and Young Men of Great Britain.

Beaver "Watchman."—The second number of this paper has reached us.

The rumor that parties en route to Arizona, with the co-op herd, had been massacred by Indians, was unfounded.

Lieut. W. P. Goodwin and wife, of Fort Cameron, have gone east to visit friends.

Bishop Ashworth's health is declining.

Blocked by Ice.—The Utah Central locomotive, engaged in conveying rock from the depot to the Temple yard, was delayed several minutes near the southwest corner of the Block, this morning, by the ice that had formed on the rails from the overflowing of the adjacent water set. The driving wheels slipped and buzzed around as though the track had been greased, but the engine, after backing some distance, made a mighty effort and the frozen Rubicon was crossed at last.

Mutual Improvement Circular.—The presiding officers of the Mutual Improvement Association of this State have issued a circular to the various ward societies, recommending that all the branches resume as soon as convenient for the winter season, and also the continuation of the inter-missionary system adopted heretofore. To meet the cost of printing blanks for quarterly reports to be supplied the various associations, rent of halls for quarterly meetings and other expenses, each association is invited to contribute the nominal sum of one dollar annually, and send in its quota as early as possible. They are also requested to send in the days and hours of their regular meetings, as well as their present list of officers. The approval of President A. M. Cannon, and the sanction of Elder Joseph Standing's father having been obtained, a movement has been inaugurated to erect a monument to the memory of the honored martyr, and to raise means for that purpose, the officials of the several societies are requested (with the permission of their Bishops) to take up subscriptions, allowing no person to donate more than 25 cents, and barring no one from the privilege of contributing. Accounts should be strictly kept and collections forwarded to John W. Taylor at DESERET NEWS office, before the last of November.

What's the Matter With Jupiter?

One of the most remarkable spots that has ever appeared on the forehead of Jupiter, can now be seen with telescopes of moderate power. It is in shape a very eccentric ellipse, being seven or eight times broader than long, and it lies south of the southern equatorial belt, making a sharp contrast with the white expanse around it. This spot made its appearance several months ago. A close inspection reveals some remarkable things about it. In the first place its color, a light maroon, differs strikingly from that of any other portion of the forehead, although resembling the purplish hue of the northern belt. This color is so pronounced that it immediately strikes the eye even of one who is unaccustomed to the use of a telescope. It is not fiery, but somewhat resembles the red glow observed in clots of molten metal when cooling. The position of the spot is hardly less remarkable than its color. There is a striking difference in the tint of the two equatorial belts, the northern being of a reddish purple, and the southern gray. Close enough the great spot adjoins the northern belt instead of the one that it most resembles in color, and this gives it a peculiar appearance of isolation. It is as if pieces of the northern belt had been carried across its gray neighbor, and thrown down upon its white surface far beyond it, undergoing at the same time a considerable change of hue.

The enormous size of the strange spot is another marvelous circumstance, especially when it is remembered that it made its appearance quite suddenly, and, as may be inferred from the history of previous great spots on Jupiter, is liable to disappear with equal swiftness. A simple measurement shows that this spot probably covers not less than sixty million square miles, an area far exceeding that of all the continents and islands of our globe combined.

Another peculiar feature is the seeming proximity between the spot and the great south belt. In fact, the appearance of the spot there is a perceptible narrowing of the belt, and a bending away from the neighborhood of the spot, as if in obedience to some repellant force. If the spot were assumed to be the culminating point of an extensive elevation of the planet's surface, this appearance might be accounted for by the tipping of the belt in passing across one face of the elevation. What this great spot is and precisely what form of physical activity it represents are questions to which astronomers would probably hesitate to give a decided answer. New York Sun.
