MRS. F. S. CHANFRAU.-This talented artiste, accompanied by her agent, C. W. Tayleure, Esq., arrived from the west this morning and both are staying at the Townsend House.

Mrs. Chanfrau commences her engagement at the Theatre on Thursday evening, and will open with "A Wife's Ordeal." Here is what the San Francisco Chronicle says of that drams, on its presentation at the California Theatre:

"A new play, adapted from the French by C. W. Tayleure, and entitled "A Wile's Ordeal," was performed last evening for the first time on any stage. In the play the marital relation is viewed from different standpoints, and the pure, unalloyed love of a devoted wife is strongly contrasted with the false-heartedness of him who solemnly promised to love and cherish her. Allured by the wiles of a faithless wire, whose husband loved her devotedly, the recreant husband of the true wife forgets his solemn yow, and through a blind infatuation for the other becomes deaf to her fatuation for the other becomes feal to her loving appeals. The wife forsaken, a husband dishouered, each solicita the sympathies of the zudience, who applaud the virtues of these and condemn the erring ones, who conspire to bring misery into two happy homes. The concluding portion of the play, where the deserted wife, forgetting her great wrongs, overcome by that love which could not be considered out attrageless bravely to save her crushed out, struggles bravely to save her false husband from the avenging hand of the one he would dishonor, is intensely dramatic, and affords Mrs. Chanfrau considers ersble scope for her peculiar talents. The play has a good moral tendency and con-

LONDON, Nov. 24th, 1872. Editor Deseret News:

Dear Brother:-Having just returned from the conference held to-day, at East India Dock Road, to our boarding house, I feel like dropping you a few lines. We passed Queenstown on the 18th inst., at 4 a.m., and reached Liverpool on the 19th at 1-30 a.m. Brother Carrington with his son Brigham, Bro's Bleak, Gibbs and a few others came alongside the Minnesota in a tugboat at 7 a.m., to bid us welcome, and we were very glad to meet them. After taking breakfast with them, we went ashore, soon got through with the examinstion of our luggage, and drove to the "North Western Hotel," opposite St. George's Hall, where we found good and comfortable quarters, and felt thankful to be on terra firms again. We spent the rest of the day and the day following partly at "42" and partly in attending to business matters and making other preparations for our further journay.

New York, 17.—The Board of Emigration has now under its care nearly two thousand Italians, almost or entirely destitute. The Alms House at Ward's Island is taxed to its utmost capacity. Two hundred of these emigrants went to Virginia yesterday, to work on the new railroad. It now transpires that a large number of Italian children have been purchased from their parents and brought to this country to beg or steal. Terence Dolan was arrested last night, charged with rosating his infant son to death on a red hot stove.

Washington.—Cox's bill for the resumption of specie payments, introsumption of specie payments, intro-duced in the House yesterday, provides that on and after the 1st day of 1878 United States Treasury notes shall cease to be lawful money or le-gal tender in payments of debts, pub-lic or private, except in payments of debts contracted after February 15,1862, and before the 1st day of 1873, and exmatters and making other preparations for our further journey.

Brother Dunford went to Trowbridge, Wilts, to visit his friends, and Sister Thompson, who is still with us, went to Preston for the same purpose. Thursday the 21st at 9-15 a.m., Brothers George A. smith, Lorenzo Snow, and Fersmerz Little, and Sisters Eliza R. Snow, Clara S. Little, Mercy Thompson, and myself took train for London, where we arrived at 2-30 p.m. and put up at Mr. Cook's boarding house, opposite the British Museum, which is a very quiet place. Bro.
