

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

MOVEMENTS OF PRESIDENT YOUNG.—On Saturday morning meeting was convened at the tabernacle, Ogden at 10 o'clock. Presidents Young and Smith occupied the time; at the afternoon session President Wells and Elder W. Woodruff spoke. Yesterday Elders G. Q. Cannon and B. Young Jr. addressed the congregation in the morning, and Presidents Young, Smith and Wells in the afternoon. A large number of strangers were present at the meetings. The first principles of the gospel, unity, co-operation and internal improvement formed the chief topics of the discourses. Immediately after yesterday afternoon's assembly, President Young started for Huntsville, twelve miles distant, where he had an appointment to preach in the evening. He was accompanied by President Wells, Elder W. Woodruff, G. Q. Cannon, B. Young, Jr., John W. Young, W. H. Hooper, O. P. Arnold and a number of Elders from Ogden. President Smith returned to this city.

THEATRE.—On Saturday evening "I Couldn't Help It" and "Kenilworth" were presented for the last time. In the cavatina "Waiting" Miss Emma sang with the same success as on her previous rendition of this gem. In "Kenilworth" Miss Clelia sang the ballad of "Good bye, sweet heart, good bye," very effectively. "Twilight Beckoning's" comedy of "Rural Felicity" will be presented, in which the Misses Emma and Clelia will sing the popular ballads of "Coming through the rye" and "Mamma won't bring me out." The performance will conclude with a Vocal Concert, in which the Howson sisters will repeat the charming duet of "Sainted Mother," and Mr. Jerome the great character song of "The Grecian Bend."

MAIL CHANGES.—On and after to-day the mail to the East and West will be closed at 4:30 p.m.; and for the North at 5 p.m. The bags leave the post office at 5:30 p.m. This change is made in consequence of Wells, Fargo & Co.'s stages connecting with the railroad at Deseret Station, instead of Taylor's switch as heretofore.

ARRIVED.—Dr. J. P. Taggart, recently appointed Assessor of Internal Revenue for this Territory, arrived in the city this morning.

POLICE.—A. J. Clothier was this morning brought before His Honor, Alderman Richards, charged with drunkenness and disturbing the peace. He was fined $15 but nothing the "ready," he has taken a contract from the city fathers to work it out.

NEW YORK.—We learn through Elder W. H. Miles that Elder W. C. Staines reached New York on the 6th inst., and left for Boston on the 8th on business connected with the emigration; he expected to return to New York on the 10th. Bro. Miles also informs us that Elder E. Edredge and Knowlton reached New York on the 7th inst., they expected to sail for Europe on the 10th.

DROWNED.—Yesterday afternoon, between four and five o'clock, a boy named Oscar Johnson, son of Brother Johnson, cabinet-maker in the 13th Ward, was bathing with several other lads, in the slough to the south-west of the city, between the Sixth Ward and Mill Creek bridges, when he got out of his depth, and being unable to swim, was drowned before any aid could be rendered him. It was six o'clock before his body was recovered, and though every means was used that could be thought of, he could not be restored to life, and was without effect, he had been too long in the water, and life was extinct.

A SLIGHT MISTAKE.—We were informed last evening of some misunderstanding in reference to our report of the "Laying of the last nail." To set the matter at rest, we wish it distinctly understood that the account of the proceedings at the "Promontory," published in the DAILY EVENING NEWS of the 12th ult., was prepared on the spot by our regular correspondent "Anon," expressly for the columns of the Deseret News.

THE EMIGRATION.—Elder W. C. Staines yesterday telegraphed to President Young, that he expected 400 emigrants at New York to-day. His address is Box 3,918, Post Office, New York. Our citizens who may desire to communicate with Elder Staines will want to follow the advice of Captain Cattle and "make a note of" this last item.

DAN CASTELLO'S CIRCUS.—Our readers will notice in our advertising columns the announcement that Dan. Castello's Circus and Menagerie will shortly be in this city, on the way they will perform at Provo, Payson, Springville, and American Fork, reaching this city in time to give their first performance on the 28th inst. The subjoined notice in a Denver exchange will give our readers some idea of what they may expect to see when the "Great Show" gets here:

"The Circus has come and gone and left us, and Dan. Castello probably never visited a town where he gave so universal satisfaction as in Denver. We doubt not that he has his full share of pride in pleasing his audiences, and we are glad to assure him of his success. The circus was the most magnificent one here, and four times was the mammoth tent crowded. Storms could not keep the people away, neither the danger of laughing themselves to death. The performances of the company were equally as good, if not better, than we ever remember to have seen before. Persons certainly were better, while all could not fail to greatly please those present. Dan. Castello's circus is far removed from a humbug, and the people of the West in his grand march, will give him such ovations as a conquering hero might expect to receive. On Monday night, his last performance here, there were twenty-three hundred people present. In the afternoon there were probably eighteen hundred, while at the two performances on Saturday probably thirty-six hundred would cover the number. It can be seen at once that Dan. Castello has thus far made it pay to come to Colorado. His is the pioneer circus of the Plains, and he is entitled to the reward, if any there is."

Died:

On the 13th inst. at the mouth of Lamb's Canyon, Sally H.; daughter of G. H. and M. M. Bane; aged 15 days.

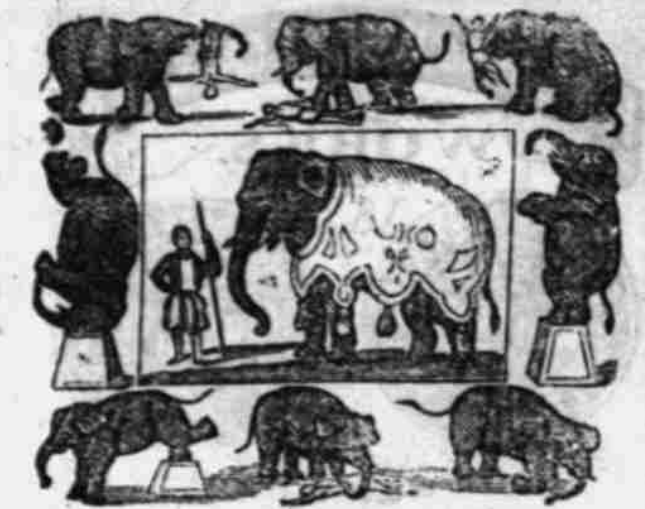

On the 9th inst., at Wanship, Sammit Co., of "Croup," Rosanna, daughter of William P. and Olive Peck, aged 3 years, 4 months and 29 days.

At Moroni on the 5th inst., Christen Christensen, son of Anton and Maria Christensen, aged 8 months and 9 days. Scandinavian papers please copy.

This morning, of congestion of the brain, R. H. son of Albert and Sarah Dewey. Aged 2 years, one month and 7 days. The funeral will take place tomorrow at 10 a.m. Friends are invited to attend.
