

Nervous Exhaustion.

Americans suffer more from nervous exhaustion than the people of any other nation in the world.

This large class, who will not or cannot refrain from taxing nature beyond her normal strength, and who suffer more or less from nervous exhaustion in consequence, will find Compound Oxygen an unfailing restorer of vital force.

The London Standard expresses the belief that the reported annexation of Samoa by Germany is an exaggeration.

Mayor Grace has begun proceedings to recover from the general government $892,991, with interest from 1861, for advances of money made by the City of New York to equip soldiers for the war, under Lincoln's call for troops.

New Orleans, 13.—The National Farmers' Congress to-day adopted the following resolution: "We feel that we have been denied our just rights, and now urgently press upon our senators the importance of immediate action upon the bill now before them, having passed the House by so handsome a majority, providing for a department of agriculture and making the head of that department a cabinet officer."

Louisville, Ky., 13.—Information reached the city this evening of the cremation of Wm. Frazier, wife and grandchild (all colored) on Thursday night, about 15 miles back of New Albany, Ind. It is supposed the house caught fire during the night, and the inmates burned while asleep, as their dead bodies were found in the ruins this morning.
