LOCAL ITEMS.

THEATRICAL.—There was a very good house on Saturday night, the closing one of the regular season. The admirable comedy of "Leap Year" was the opening piece. The indisposition of Miss Colebrook, who had been cast for Miss O'Leary, rendered the reading of the part by Miss Alexander a necessity, though the former young lady held to the conviction that she would be able to appear until shortly before the performance commenced. This militated against the piece, although Miss Alexander is entitled to much credit for the manner in which she got through her task. The comedy should be played again at as early a date as convenient after the spring season commences. The characters are all good, and the "pairing" at the close, illustrative of Leap Year and the privileges which it confers on the ladies, was alone sufficient to make the piece successful. When the curtain fell, Mr. McKenzie, as Solus, found himself solus, on the auditorium side, with the proscenium doors closed and forbidding passage out of sight. A speech was called for, when in happy and humorous terms he alluded to Mr. Caine's Benefit on Tuesday night, calling attention to the poster announcing it, and expressing a hope—echoed by all present—that it might be a bumper. The "Illustrative Stranger" concluded the entertainment.

MR. CAINE'S BENEFIT.—The entertainment announced for the Benefit to-morrow evening abounds with attractions. The renowned sensational drama, "The Octoroon" (the capital feature the "Dead Shot," with a skating act by Mr. St. Ledger, the Sword Dance, by Miss Clive, and a Scotch Song, by Mr. Dunbar, make up a bill, that in quantity, variety, and excellence is unusually strong. Captain Croxall's Brass Band will discourse new and beautiful music during the evening. We expect to see the house crowded from orchestra to ceiling.

GOING SOUTH.—A number of the members of our theatrical company will start south on Wednesday, for a short professional trip between now and the opening of the spring season.
Among the number are Messrs. McKenzie, Lindsay, Margetta, Malben, Miss Adams and Miss Alexander, with Mr. Thompson as business agent. We need scarcely speak recom-mendatory of them and their abilities, for they are known throughout the Territory, and are well able to present performances a long way ahead of certain wandering professionals who have at different times visited many of our settlements north and south. As their stay will be necessarily short, we expect our friends in the settlements which they visit will extend them a cordial welcome and greet them with crowded houses.

DIED.—Bishop A. Cunningham, of the 15th Ward, died this morning at 4 o'clock. The funeral obsequies will take place, we are informed, at 1 o'clock to-morrow, in the 15th Ward hall.

SOUTHERN ITEMS.—We condense the following from the Dixie Times of the 19th, ult., whose Editor, we trust, will have no more cause for complaints at not receiving exchanges:—

The "Mormon Battalion" had a party on the evening of Wednesday the 12th, at which everything moved off most harmoniously. Songs, sentiment, dancing, toasts and recitals of facts and hardships of the Battalion were engaged by all present.

The "Dixie Minstrels," a troupe of "burnt cork" amateurs, were to make a first appearance at St. George, on the evening of the 18th. Messrs.
Russell, McAllister and Kenner, formerly of this city, are the principals.

The Washington Gardener's Club are making preparations for the erection of a club house and obtaining a library.

In St. George, a strong corps of hands were at work hewing rock for and laying up the walls of the Tabernacle. Work had recommenced on Prest. E. Snow's mansion.—Bro. Horley—"Glem"—was rushing up a barber's shop; and Bro. Morris was putting up a store.

The Dramatic Association of St. George gave their first performance this winter on Saturday evening, 18th, The "Artful Dodge" and the "Charcoal Burner" being the bill presented.

The weather was pleasant.

VAMOSO.—John Hedding, commonly known as Little Johnny, the butcher, who was held to bail on Saturday in the sum of $500 to appear before the Probate Court, to answer to the charge of stealing, is not to be found. One of the bondsmen was on the alert at daylight yesterday morning to discover his tracks, but was too late. Sold again!

WILL READ.—We understand that it is likely Lisle Lester will read a poem to-morrow evening, at Mr. Caine's Benefit, between the pieces.

The lady comes to us with the very highest character as a reader, and if she thus makes her first bow to a Salt Lake audience, it will be a treat to them; and a most excellent introduction to her.

Miss Nunn and Mr. Teasdale will also sing a comic duet.

ONE WAY TO MAKE MONEY.—Obtain subscriptions for the Utah Magazine. No. 3 is now out. This Magazine is circulating with great success in Salt Lake City and elsewhere. Send for terms and specimen copies. Address E. L.
T. Harrison, Salt Lake City.

FIRE IN THE 20TH WARD.—The roof of Mr. Mc-Callough's house caught fire this morning, owing to the chimney not being built sufficiently high above the roof. The result has been a burned house, but for the timely interference of Capt. Burt.
