THE EVENING NEWS.

Monday, - - - June, 5, 1871.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

THEATRE.—"Waiting for the Verdict" was performed in fine stile on Saturday night. Mr. and Miss Couldock, as usual, "held the mirror up to nature" in the rendition of their respective parts. "A Sunday on Amager passed off satisfactorily.

We are pleased to be able to state that Mr. and Miss Couldock have been re-engaged by the management for three more nights. They will appear to-night in "Uncle Dick's Darling," the former as Dick Dolland and the latter as Mary Belton. The performance will conclude with "The Double Bedded Room."

SERVICES AT THE TABERNACLE YESTERDAY.—Elder John Taylor preached in the forenoon, and in the afternoon the time was occupied by Elder Orson Pratt.

In the evening at half-past five o'clock, between five and six thousand persons, including a large number of juveniles, assembled to listen to discourses from Dr. J. H. Vincent, of New York, and Mr. D. L. Moody, of Chicago, and to the beautiful singing of Mr. Philip Phillips, of New York. Dr. Vincent spoke in a clear and concise manner on the nature of Sabbath school work and the necessity that existed for teachers engaged in it being thorough and efficient. Mr. Moody told, in a very graphic and effective style, a number of appropriate anecdotes illustrative of the subject upon which he spoke; "Salvation for all."

No one could listen to the sweet yet powerful singing of Mr. Phillips and be in the least surprised at the wideness of his fame. His songs are charmingly simple and are each adorned with an excellent moral, and he renders them with deep feeling.

IMMIGRANT ORDER.—We are informed that a general order has lately been issued from the War Department that no citizen prisoner shall be kept at any of the military posts of the United States.

"CHRISTEN OG CHRISTINE."—Clovermorgen (Imaalig den 7de Juni, vil den lille dellige Dramatiske Idyl: "Christen og Christine," ved J. L. Heiberg, blive opført for første Gang paa vort Theater. Mr. Monsen som Christen og Mrs. Monsen som Christine, samt Mr. Jonasson som Stanislaus. Mr. og Mrs. Monsen har ofte gjort Lykke i deres respective Roller, og Skandinaverne vil ubetinkivil gribe denne Leilighed at see et saa smukt Stykke udføres i deres Modersmaal.

THE MEETINGS AT OGDEN.—On Saturday morning Presidents Young, Smith and Wells, several of the Twelve, and a number of citizens, both gentlemen and ladies, left the depot of the Utah Central at 8 a.m. on a special train, for Ogden to attend meetings to be held in the Tabernacle in that city on Saturday and Sunday. The party reached its destination at about ten minutes to ten o'clock, and were greeted by the children of the Sunday School, with banners, and quite a concourse of the citizens. Carriages were in attendance to convey the visitors from the terminus to the meeting house, in which all were seated and ready to commence meeting at about a quarter past ten.

The speakers in the morning were President Joseph Young, Sen., and Elder Geo. Q. Cannon. The address of President Joseph Young was chiefly on temperance in diet, showing that health was not such a matter of chance as many seem to suppose, but depends to a very great extent on the amount and quality of food eaten.

The remarks of Elder Cannon were directed to the rising generation, exhorting them to shun evil practices,—such as smoking, chewing, drinking, lying, stealing, &c., in their youth, for if they acquired correct habits then they would be far more likely to become useful and honorable members of society in after life than they would if, in early life, they fell into evil habits and practices.

At the close of the meeting it was announced that President Young would deliver an address to the children in the afternoon.

In the afternoon the people in large numbers flocked to the Tabernacle, and a few minutes after two meeting commenced. President Young occupied most of the time, in an address to children and parents; his discourse was alike remarkable for the excellence of the instruction it contained, and for the breadth and liberality of sentiment and feeling it evinced. It was reported, and will probably appear in next Saturday's News.

The services of the afternoon were brought to a close by a short address from President Wells.

Yesterday morning the weather was much finer than on Saturday, and there was a greater influx of visitors from this city, and from the settlements north. The Tabernacle was far too small to hold those who desired to obtain admission. The speakers at the morning meeting were Presidents D. H. Wells and B. Young. The subjects discussed were, in great part, the same as on the previous day.

Hundreds were unable to obtain admission to the afternoon's meeting, at which the speakers were Elder Wilford Woodruff, Joseph F. Smith and George Q. Cannon. The Word of Wisdom, the traditions of Christendom and the necessity of the Latter-day Saints living up to and honoring their calling were dwelt upon in a forcible and highly interesting manner.

The visit was one, seemingly of pleasure and enjoyment to all who participated therein. President Richards, Bishop Herrick as well as the citizens of Ogden, generally, seemed to vie with each other in their efforts to extend hospitality and comfort to their friends from Salt Lake, and their effort, evidently was to make the visit so pleasant and agreeable that a desire to renew it at an early day might be created.

The party left Ogden in a special train at 5 o'clock last night, arriving in this city at about half-past six.

TERRITORIAL ITEMS.—Received by Deseret Telegraph:

BEAVER, June 3, 2-15 p.m.

The Ely Record, of yesterday, states that another shooting affray occurred in Pioche, which caused great excitement in that place. It appears that on Tuesday evening Mike Cassey and Jim Levy had some words, which caused both to be very excited. Jim Levy went and procured a revolver, and on his return found Cassey and Dave Reagle standing where he left them; he then stepped up behind Cassey, calling him by an obscene name, at the same time placing his pistol within two inches of his head and firing, the ball striking Cassey on the top of the head. Cassey then turned, partially, and as he fell caught Levy by the knees, when Levy struck him over the head with a six-shooter, and while the former was still falling Levy again fired, the ball striking him in the back of the neck and glancing down the spinal column. Levy then turned and fired at Dave Reagle, who had been talking to Cassey. Reagle drew his revolver and commenced returning the fire and one of the shots struck Levy, entering a little to the right of the chin, fracturing the lower jaw-bone, and lodged in the muscles of the neck.

Sheriff John Potter was immediately on the ground and covered Levy with his revolver, commanding him to desist, which he did. Potter arrested Levy and Reagle, taking them before the justice, but they were soon released on bail.

Levy and Reagle fired four shots each. Cassey never fired a shot. It is hard to tell at present how Cassey's situation will terminate. Levy's wound is not considered dangerous. The Record says this last bloody affair is but the foundation for another, to which it will surely lead, and that on a more extensive scale.

WASHINGTON COUNTY.—Brother J. D. Alphin, from Pine Valley, called this morning. He says that the crops at that place and surrounding settlements look fine, and there are but few grasshoppers. There is considerable mining excitement in that region. Two discoveries, said to be rich, have lately been made there. In passing through Iron county, on his way to this city, Brother Alphin visited the iron works there, which, he says, are in active and successful operation. Several important silver ledges had been discovered in that county. The present is a general time of health in the South.

ALDERMAN'S COURT.—Patrick Flemming, a soldier, was, to-day, fined $15 for fighting and resisting the police.

A FINE PLACE FOR A CAMP MEETING.—The Council Bluffs Nonpareil, gives the following description of the conduct of a portion of its citizens, on a recent Sunday, which makes one think that Council Bluffs would be an excellent place for a religious camp meeting:

"Toward evening loads of beastly drunkards, uttering such obscene and blasphemous language as would make Old Harry squeal upon his gridiron, drove by the residences of our most respectable citizens in a most debased state of intoxication, and shouting at the tops of their voices language unmentionable to ears polite. Toward the middle of the afternoon a crowd of disreputable females—some of them on horseback and half nude—were riding, and driving, and prowling to and from beer gardens, and carrying on in a manner disgraceful even among the wildest barbarians of the Hindoos."

DESERET PHILHARMONIC SOCIETY.—The Directors of this society desire to call the attention of the residents of Salt Lake City and vicinity to the following:

The Society's Classes are now held in the Council House. The advanced Vocal Class and Instrumental Rehearsals on Monday Evenings, and the Elementary Vocal Class and Vocal Rehearsals on Thursday evenings, commencing at 7.30 p. m. each evening, under the superintendence of Prof. GEO. CARELESS.

TERMS: $2 00 per Quarter in advance, to Vocal Classes.

Rehearsals free to members of the Society.

The Directors also desire to announce their intention of forming a Juvenile Vocal Instruction Class, to commence on Saturday next in the Council House, at 1 30 p. m., under the Superintendence of Prof. JOHN TULLIDGE.

TERMS: $1.00 per Quarter, in advance.

The attention of the Superintendents of Educational Academies and Sunday Schools is particularly requested to the opportunities afforded, by this Juvenile Class, for their pupils to obtain instruction in the elements of Music, an art which has now become an essential branch of the education of the young.

D. O. CALDER, President.
d2 CHAS. SMITH, Secretary.

QUANTITY VS. QUALITY.—DOOLEY'S YEAST POWDER stands pre-eminent in market as being the only Baking Powder that is free from injurious substances. Not only this, but each package contains the full quantity represented, while the quality is far superior to all others. Dooley's Yeast Powder will produce from twenty-five to fifty per cent. more good bread, rolls, biscuits, pastry, &c., than those of other manufacture, while it is always convenient to have in the house, and is reliable and economical. If you have not tried it, ask for it at your Grocer's and take no other.

MORE than one hundred thousand persons annually die in this country from Consumption, which is but the child of Catarrh. $500 is offered by the proprietor of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy for a case of Catarrh he cannot cure. Sold by druggists, or send sixty cents to Dr. R. V. Pierce Buffalo, N. Y., and get it by mail. A pamphlet free.
