

found he lived in Ogden. The constable telephoned Sheriff Wright, who communicated with his wife and son-in-law, who lived at 1488 Twenty-third street. The dead man was Royal Britanious Millard, who came to Utah when a child in the early fifties, and lived with the family of Henry Parrish at Bountiful until about 1865, since which time he has lived a roving life. Being subject to fits he is supposed he died in one of them. His wife went to Willard last evening to take charge of the remains.

Governor Wells Saturday morning received the following, which explains itself.

Hon. Heber M. Wells,
Governor of Utah.

Dear Sir—On account of continued ill health, I hereby tender my resignation as judge of the Fourth judicial district of the State of Utah, to take effect upon the appointment of my successor.

Very respectfully,
E. A. WILSON.

Governor Wells has issued a proclamation authorizing Judge Ritchie to do the business of the Fourth district until a successor to Judge Wilson is appointed.

Miss Jean B. Russell will be queen of Utah's great Carnival. The Peart adherents this morning withdrew the protest filed Saturday and the executive committee duly and officially declared her queen. The voting was remarkable for the fact that the number of ballots deposited broke all voting count records the West is cognizant of. It was an index to the great enthusiasm over Carnival matters which pervades every walk of life, and is looked upon by the managers as an augury for the success of the Carnival.

The final count gave the following result:

Miss Jean B. Russell.....	135,530
Miss Vilate Peart.....	111,401
Miss Clarissa Thatcher.....	5,733
Miss Laura Beebe.....	2,747
Mrs. A. J. Atkins.....	2,918

PLEASANT GROVE, Utah, June 10, 1896.—The Pleasant Grove Sabbath schools are today holding their annual celebration in honor of Brigham Young. Special preparations have been made in the way of decoration, until the young grove north of the ward meeting house appears as the real abode of beauty, purity and patriotism. Great credit is due Supt. Smith and his aides for the energy displayed in this direction. Our Sunday school is acknowledged as being among the most prosperous in Zion. We do not feel to boast of our success, but we should like to express our appreciation of the labor of our Sunday school workers.

Sports and games were the order of the day. After the completion of the program and the day's exercises terminated with a Sunday school dance at Beers's hall.

Mrs. R. Winegar, of the Seventeenth ward, was injured in collision with a pole Thursday. The lady, her three daughters and little Leroy Hobbs were riding in a buggy along Fourth North street, when the horse shied at a rise in the road and ran the buggy into a telegraph pole. Mrs. Winegar, her youngest daughter and Leroy Hobbs were thrown out. Mrs. Winegar received a very bad cut on the head, besides being otherwise badly bruised. The lady was carried into the residence of Mrs. Nellie Druce Fugleley and pending the arrival of the ambulance and physician she received every kind attention, but was taken home in the ambulance in an unconscious condition. Dr. Wilcox made several stitches in the wound and soon had the lady feeling easy. The girls and the Hobbs boy were not injured.

The first land patent issued under the State laws was completed Tuesday morning. It is to James L. Payne, of Trenton, Cache county. The patent is to "the northwest quarter of the northwest quarter of section three of township thirteen north, of range one west of the Salt Lake meridian, in the county of Cache and State of Utah, containing forty and 40 100 acers, and further described as lot four of said section three." The consideration is $101. The paper is signed by Governor Wells, Secretary of State Hammond and Wesley K. Walton, secretary of the State land board.

Another patent was also issued to Aaron J. Hill for eighty and eighty one hundred the acres in Cache county, the consideration being $202.

No. 3 is to Isaac D. Winder of Burrville Sevier county, for forty and twenty-two one hundred the acres in the above named county, the consideration being $155.

SCOFIELD, June 13.—Scofield and Winter Quarters are very quiet these days, as the coal business has gone down and the ice business is on top. But we look for our little burzh to be enlivened soon, as the time is drawing nearer for the great event of the year in this part, the Elsieffed. It is expected that fully a thousand people will visit Scofield at that time. There will be good fishing and it will be a nice opportunity for the city folks to take a trip to the mountains.

The eight hours pay does not agree with the day men and drivers here very well, but the eight hours work is all right, and is quite acceptable, even if the days' wages are cut in some instances. The working people look upon it as a great benefit for the future, and that there will be a much smaller percentage of illiteracy among miners and others.

Winter Quarters is badly in need of a postoffice. If a person writes a letter in the evening, he cannot get it any further than the Scofield office for about thirty-six hours, and it will not reach Salt Lake until the third day.

MORMON BOY.

The health department has issued its report of vital statistics for the month of May, 1896. It gives the number of deaths for the month as 44, against 39 for the same month last year. The causes and number of deaths are as follows:

SUMMARY.

Total revenue.....	$152,805 31
Total expenditures.....	124,934 89

Balance.....$ 27,870 42

This statement does not contain any reference to the school fund portion of the taxes, or the warrants issued for such purposes. For the year 1895 the county's portion of the taxes was about $122,000. Every warrant issued by the county court during the year is included in the expenditures, a separate account being kept of each fund. The court was authorized to expend during the year $153,000 but fell short about $28,000, leaving that balance in favor of the court.

Montpelier, Idaho, Post: Our much esteemed friend M. D. Wells of Montpelier, we understand is about to move away to Salt Lake, where he goes to take charge of the Co-op. Wagon & Machine company's business. We are indeed sorry to lose him. During Mr. Wells' stay here he has made many friends for himself and the business he so ably conducted. The Post joins with his many friends in wishing him success.

Francisco P. Gutierrez, editor of La Gazetta, was stabbed by Evaristo Olivas, editor of La Union, in Los Angeles, Cal., Saturday night. For some time bad blood has existed between the two editors and they were sworn enemies. Gutierrez was standing on the corner talking to some of his countrymen, and it is alleged that Olivas came up and grabbed him. The latter held a high cane in his hand and with it he dealt Olivas a blow on the head. Olivas, it is said, then struck at Gutierrez with a pocket-knife which he held in his hand. Gutierrez was wounded in two places. One wound is over the heart and is considered to be dangerous.
