LOCAL BRIEFS.

Local restaurant men say they are particularly bothered in getting all the fine cuts they want; that the strikes at the river and Chicago do not seem to affect this market very much. Local prices of meats continue practically the same, and local meat markets say they are not worrying any.

The articles of incorporation of the Utah Philippine war veterans have been amended so that the officers of the association shall furnish bonds, and that every soldier, sailor and seaman who served in the Spanish-American war and can show honorable discharge papers, shall be eligible to membership.

The valuable two-year-old colt which was supposed to have been stolen from Mr. Hengeler of Riverton last week, was found dead in a ditch on the premises by its owner. The colt was a thoroughbred imported from Missouri and it was the intention of Mr. Hengeler to put the animal on the track this fall.

The Salvation Army is giving a series of picnics for children of the poor, and one was given yesterday afternoon on the old exposition grounds on Sixth East street. The next picnic will be given Thursday and thereafter on Mondays and Thursday of each week during the warm weather. Milk, bananas, grapes, watermelons and apples are furnished.

Frank C. Gattung, manager of the Salt Lake Tent & Awning company of this city, died yesterday afternoon from the effects of his fall from a ladder in front of the Constitution building, while fixing an awning. Deceased was a native of St. Louis, and leaves a wife and children. The funeral will be held the last of the week, when relatives will have arrived from the east.

The friends of Miss Isabelle Fowler, a clerk in the county recorder's office, were surprised to learn of her marriage on Saturday afternoon at Farmington. Miss Fowler, accompanied by her husband, L. O. Pratt, a well known sign writer of this city, went to Farmington and secured a license and were married by Justice of the Peace J. E. Robinson. They notified some of their friends in the city of the affair, and they in turn notified the parents of the young lady, who gave the young couple their blessings upon their return from Utah's Gretna Green.

Children, relatives and friends of Patriarch Samuel W. Richards meet today at Lagunita to celebrate the eightieth anniversary of his birthday; with feasting, social congratulations and good wishes for a continuance of a life of usefulness, such as his has been. In the many and varied callings of social and ministerial activities, extending as it has done to many countries and nationalities upon both hemispheres of the world of man's inheritance. Friends join with the Patriarch's many friends in good wishes for the future of his remaining days.

The meetings of Christian Endeavor Sunday mornings at the state prison are successful beyond the expectations of those engaged actively in the work. There were over 100 prisoners in voluntary attendance last Sunday, when Miss Mary Mayne, Miss Grace Davis, and Mr. A. M. Johnson made addresses, and Mrs. Grant Snyder favored the local society with a vocal solo. The presence of Miss Florence Dow, daughter of the late warder, among the Endeavorers, was the occasion of the extra large attendance, as Miss Dow made herself much beloved at the prison during her father's administration. Chairman P. A. Simpkins of the local prison Endeavor committee, has provided quite a number of Bibles for the use of the inmates of the institution.

THE RINGLINGS
HERE TOMORROW.

Great Circus Pageant Will be on Principal Streets at or About Ten o'clock.

ITS PRODIGIOUSNESS CONCEDED

An Army of Performers, All of Them Experts in Their Professions—A Wilderness of Features.

The long circus train of Ringling Bros. will come steaming into Salt Lake from Provo at brief intervals early tomorrow morning. As circus men are noted as hustlers it will not take long to unload the gilded caravans and erect the huge tents at the Agricultural park. There are 20 pavilions in all, the circus canvas is the largest ever carried by a traveling organization. The street pageant will start from the grounds promptly at 9:30 and move over the following streets: North Temple, to Fifth West, to Second South, to South Temple, to Main, to First South, to Fifth West, to North Temple, to fair grounds.

This street display is promised to be a remarkable exhibition of the growth and resources of "Ringling Bros." World's Greatest Show." There are said to be 1,200 people connected with the circus one way or another, and most of them will have some part in the street pageant. Nearly all of the animal den will be open. Twenty-five tableaux, bearing picturesque groups of national types, smartly gowned women, riders, fashionable whips and traps, laughter-making clowns, a huge herd of 40 elephants, soldier types of all countries, high-stepping horses of the finest breeding, trained domestic animals, a huge 65-stop pipe organ, numerous bands, and a host of other things, some familiar and others novel, are featured attractively woven in this three-mile procession.

The circus program is a huge affair, calling for the combined and individual efforts of 375 performers. Many of the leading artists make their first appearance in this country with Ringling Bros. The four Eldreda, champion bareback riders of England, and the four Bedlows, riding celebrities of Italy, are in this class. So, also, are the seven Glensierites, famous German acrobats; the Collins-Carlsons, French troublous dancers; and the Tasmanian family, noted Australian gymnasts. The Dacomas, Dollard troupe, Flying Fishers, Genaro and Theoli, three Rios, Fortuna brothers, Tybell sisters, Alvo trio, De Venues, Jackson family, and Kaufman family are circus factors of international reputation and bespeak the high character of the ring acts. Prominent riders besides the Eldredas and Bedlows are Orlin Davenport, the Holsons, Reno McFrey, May Davenport, Rhoda Royal, Lulu Davenport, John Agee and Miss Royce.

The menagerie is the finest in the country. It contains the only rhinoceros with any traveling show, two giraffes, a real baby elephant, still unweaned; a hippopotamus, gray or browned horses; a herd of 40 elephants, and a nursery of baby wild beasts. There are 108 cages in this department of the show. For a sensational feature "leaping the gap" on a bicycle is presented. Crazy makes his terrific ride down a narrow plane of 80 or 90 feet, jumps a distance of 52 feet astride his wheeled animal, and lands safely on the hippodrome track.

A big dramatic spectacle called "Jerusalem and the Crusades," precedes the usual circus program. It employs an army of people, and the costumes are lavish productions of the picture-que days when knighthood was in flower. Many of the lastimes of the tenth century are reproduced in this spectacle, and a ballet divertissement by 200 dancing girls illustrates the revolving spirit of oriental life. This production features stage scenery and properties and electric catwalks.

The big circus will exhibit at Agricultural park one day only, Wednesday, and give two performances, 7:30 and 9:00 o'clock. Admission tickets and reserved seat tickets will be on sale tomorrow at Smith's Drug store for the same prices charged in the wagons on the circus grounds.

DEATH ON GRASSHOPPERS.

J. N. Jacobson of Sappete Rakes in a Bounty of Nearly $900.

State Auditor Tingey has drawn a warrant in favor of J. N. Jacobson for $886.73 being the state's portion of the bounty on 82,010 pounds of grasshoppers destroyed by Mr. Jacobson in Sappete county between June 20 and July 25, 1904. The total amount received by Mr. Jacobson was $880.10 of which the state pays two-thirds and Sappete county one-third. This is the first claim for grasshopper bounty presented to the state auditor this season.

TEN YEARS AGO TODAY.

Omaha was in complete possession of the packing house strikers, who patrolled the streets, armed and making violent demonstrations. Citizens appealed for martial law.

A Rock Island train plunged over a trestle near Lincoln, Neb., and 13 were killed. The tragedy was attributed to train wreckers.

FIVE YEARS AGO TODAY.

The government decided to send 50,000 soldiers to the Philippines to crush Aguinaldo during the fall campaign.

It was announced that the Utah light batteries would arrive in Salt Lake on Aug. 19.

"MORMON" COLONISTS.

Two Hundred of Them Will Investigate Conditions in Canada.

(Special to the "News.")
Butte, Mont., Aug. 9.—A party of 200 "Mormons" passed through Butte over the Oregon Short Line yesterday afternoon, enroute to Alberta, Canada, where they will look over the field in contemplation of settlement in the northwest.

The party was from Salt Lake City, and after remaining several days in Canada, will return to the "Mormon" metropolis and propose to establish a colony in Canada.

"We expect to take in 100 or more families," said F. J. Wells, one of the party, "and if conditions warrant, will increase it to 200. Although there is plenty of territory still left in the United States upon which we could settle, the inducements offered in Canada for homesteaders are excellent. We have several large colonies in Idaho, Oregon and Montana, and they are thriving.

The movement is more of an industrial feature than a Church action. Our system of building homes is patterned after the first colonists of America. Every man who assists his neighbor does so, and to those who have not been fortunate aid is given, and the result is that as soon as a man gets a start he generally succeeds."

AFTER THE NUOICIS.

State and County Offer $500 Reward For Capture of Murderers.

Rewards amounting to $500 have been offered by Gov. Wells, on the part of the state, and the county commissioners, on behalf of Salt Lake county, for the arrest of Frank and Jamie Nucle, who are charged with the murder of Louis Parne at Bingham Junction on the night of July 4. Circulars announcing the reward and containing pictures and descriptions of the two men have been sent broadcast over the west by Sheriff Emery and it is hoped that they will finally be brought to light and brought back to face the charge against them.

One Woman Among the Thousands.

We received a letter from Waycross, Ga., from a woman who had been troubled with female complaint for a long time until she was reduced to almost a shadow. It affected her mind, she could not remember anything, could not get out of bed, and then she was told by a friend to try a bottle of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. She had gained 15 lbs. in the last month and never felt so well. She had been told by a friend to try a bottle of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. She had gained 15 lbs. in the last month and never felt so well.

UTLEY'S HEROIC WORK.

But for His Efforts Many Lives Might Have Been Lost.

(Special to the "News.")
Cheyenne, Wyo., Aug. 8.—Charles Utley is the name of the brave pumpman at the pump house siding who notified No. 4 of the turned switch and undoubtedly prevented a horrible wreck and the loss of many lives. He was shot through the left arm, but the wound is not as dangerous as at first supposed. He was attended by a physician from Cheyenne and is expected to remain on duty.

The posse in pursuit of the outlaws who attempted to hold up the Atlantic Express, are said to be close upon their heels. The bandits, four in number, are heading for the Blue mountains in which Butch Cassidy, Harvey Logan and other outlaws have hidden for years. An effort will be made to head off the robbers before they can reach their rendezvous. The outlaws are heavily armed and well mounted, and will doubtless put up a desperate fight before submitting to arrest. The pursuing officers are determined that the bandits shall not escape and unless they submit quietly will shoot them down. Word of a battle is expected hourly.

WAS WASTING AWAY.

"I had been troubled with kidney disease for the last five years," writes Robert R. Watts, of Salem, Mo. "I lost flesh and never felt well and doctored with will result in nothing. I tried all remedies suggested without relief. Finally, I bought Foley's Kidney Cure and less than two weeks later I was cured. I am now sound and well." During the summer kidney irregularities are often caused by excessive eating and drinking. Attend to the kidneys at once by using Foley's Kidney Cure. F. J. Hill Drug Co.

LOOSE MILK.

"Gimme a quart of loose milk," was the demand of the small boy to the corner grocer.
"Loose milk; what's that?" answered the boss.
"What me mudder wants—not what comes in bottles."
"Well, that's a new name, anyhow," rejoined the grocer.
"Loose milk, all seems to be a fairly good term to describe the milk which is sold by the measure to the customer, and is not put in the quart bottles sent out from the dairy farms. Loose milk is two cents a quart cheaper than the bottled, and under the vigilant eye of the board of health, is quite as good as the average dairy brand.—New York Sun.
