DESERET EVENING NEWS MONDAY JULY 13 1908

Ivory Soap is the standard by which all other soaps are judged. Some soap manufacturers claim that their product is "as good" or "as pure" or "as cheap" as Ivory.

Possibly it is. But neither you nor any other sensible woman will bother with the "as good" kind! You want real Ivory Soap; not the imitation kind.

neer Day to be Honored.

Monroe, Sevier Co., July 10.-Yester-day funeral services were held over the remains of Mrs. Maria Gregerson, wife of N. P. Gregerson. She was born in Denmark July 9, 1834, and was 74 years old on the day of her funeral. She came to Utah with her husband and several children in 1870, and they have lived in Monroe since 1874. The speakers at the funeral were El-ders C. P. Christensen, August W.

The speakers at the funeral were El-ders C. P. Christensen, August W. Bohman: Warnock and Bishop Jos. H. Jenson. The choir rendered most ap-propriate musical numbers. Mr. F. B. Goold, the energetic agent for Sevier county of the Utah Sugar company, reports that 1,550 acres of beets have been planted this year, and they are in spiendid condition with the prospect of its being a banner year for this crop. If the company wants 2,500 acres planted in the county next year, it will certainly have no trouble in getting that amount.
