CRITICAL ANALYSIS.

UNIVERSITY OF DESERET,
Salt Lake City, June 8th, 1887.

HAVING carefully examining Deland's Chemical Baking Powder with the microscope and with chemical reagents, I find that it is free from Alum, Starch, Flour, Bone Ash, Ammonia and White Earth; and that it consists essentially of Cream of Tartar and Bi-Carbonate of Soda.

The Baking Powder examined I purchased at Barnes & Davis, in this city.

EVENING NEWS.

SABBATH SCHOOL WORKERS.

Interesting Conference of the Deseret Sunday School Union.

Owing to the crowded state of our columns we only mentioned briefly the day after it was held the Sabbath School meeting, of which the following are the minutes:

According to announcement, a very large representation of those engaged in the Sabbath Schools of Zion met in the Tabernacle on Friday, October 7th, 1887, at 7 p. m., Elder George Goddard, of the General Superintendency, presiding.

The choir, composed of members from very many Sabbath Schools, sang: "Let Saints rejoice, the night is past."

Prayer was offered Elder Levi W. Richards.

The choir sang, "Give us room that we may dwell."

The roll was called, showing that the Sabbath Schools of Zion were represented by the Stake Superintendency from Oneida, Idaho, in the north, to San Louis, Colorado, in the south.

Assistant General Superintendent George Goddard said: I am pleased to see so large an attendance here tonight of those who feel interested in one of the most important institutions we have in our midst.

There are over 60,000 names enrolled on our books, connected with our Sunday Schools. We have met here as is our usual custom at our semi-annual and annual conferences to hold our Sunday School Union Meeting. We have quite a number of representatives from the different Stakes of Zion, a few of which we hope to hear from this evening. We would like to hear from all, but time will not permit on this occasion.

Superintendent John C. Cutler reported forty-three Sunday schools in the SALT LAKE STAKE.

We have six missionaries besides the Superintendency, who visit the Sunday schools three Sundays out of four in the month. The fourth we meet together, give in our reports and consult on the best methods to be adopted in the interest of the schools.

We have visited the Sunday schools of this Stake between three and four times each year, and find them in a flourishing and prosperous condition, and increasing in numbers under the direction and tuition of an efficient and excellent corps of officers and teachers.

THE SUPERINTENDENTS

of Maricopa, Bear Lake, Utah, Beaver, and Box Elder Stakes reported their Sabbath schools, and were pleased to say that renewed interest was being taken in this direction by the youth of Zion now more than had been in the past. The necessity of parents taking as much interest in these schools as do the children, and encouraging the latter by their presence, was advocated.

As regards the missionary labors, all or nearly all of the Stakes had adopted this system in connection with their schools.

The subject of concert singing was referred to and the great and good results derived therefrom portrayed. To accomplish this all the children who can read should be provided with books, and the ones used in the Primary organizations were spoken highly of.

SUITABLE HYMNS

could be compiled and printed in this form at a very small cost, and the call for such a book would justify this change. The choir leaders would of necessity require music in connection with these songs, but it could be dispensed with in these small and compact books. No doubt 40,000 of this kind of books would be required and called for.

Elders Karl G. Maeser and Charles F. Wilcox, officers of the Sabbath School Union, expressed the pleasure they felt at seeing the important and rapid progress this organization was making.

Assistant Superintendent George Goddard reported that a circular had been sent out to all of the superintendencies of the different Stakes of Zion concerning the observance of the Word of Wisdom and other requirements of the Gospel, and a prompt and favorable response had been received from nearly all of these brethren. This was most gratifying to the general superintency of the Sabbath School Union.

The exercises of the conference were interspersed with the singing of appropriate hymns and sacred songs by the Union choir under the direction of Elder Thomas McIntire, and these complemented by a beautiful organ solo by Prof. Jos. J. Daynes.

The services concluded with singing: "Praise God from whom all blessings flow," the large congregation rising to their feet and taking part therein.

Benediction by Elder John B. Maiben.

TERRITORIAL ITEMS.

CULLED FROM LATEST EXCHANGES.

A dispatch dated Albuquerque (N. M.), October 5, says: From a passenger who arrived in this city on last night's south-bound Santa Fe passenger train it is learned that five men were killed at different points along the road yesterday, one at Argentine, one at Strong, one at Syracuse, one at La Junta and one at Las Vegas. It appears that the men all met their death while walking along the track, through their carelessness. The passenger train arrived, being the one which killed the five men.

A dispatch dated Tacoma (W. T.) Oct. 5, says: All the Chinamen who were before the court here for illegally coming into the Territory were convicted in court to-day and will be sentenced to-morrow. The Mongolians were all given separate trials and each one convicted. These cases occupied less than an hour's time, and it is supposed to be the quickest disposition of criminal cases on record in the Washington Territory courts. One case was called, witnesses examined and it was given to the jury, and without leaving their seats they convicted the Celestial. This was continued with each of the others and the same jury rendered seventeen different verdicts.

A dispatch dated Santa Fe, N. M., October 6, says: Inquiry at the District Military Headquarters develops the fact that the government has no idea of transferring the San Carlos Apaches to the Fort Verde military reservation, as reported in recent dispatches from Arizona, and which is represented as causing great indignation among the settlers adjacent to Fort Verde, but it is considering the feasibility of removing thither only the Tontos, a small tribe of the Apache family, who are now located among the San Carlos Apaches at the San Carlos reservation. The Tontos are few in number, but are treacherous and quarrelsome, and the idea is to confine them to the Fort Verde military reservation, in order that their influence for mischief on the San Carlos Indians may no longer be exercised.

NAUVOO LEGION! ATTENTION!!

GENERAL ORDERS No. 1:

READ THE PROSPECTUS OF THE

CONTRIBUTOR—VOL. NINE.

The NINTH VOLUME of the CONTRIBUTOR commences with the November number, and will present to its readers a variety of ORIGINAL HOME LITERATURE unsurpassed by any previous volume. The leading historical series will be a carefully prepared History of the Nauvoo Legion, by Lieut. Richard W. Young, U. S. A. This military history of our people will include an account of the origin of the Legion, its services in Nauvoo, in the early days of Utah, during the Echo Canyon War, and the Indian troubles; its famous musters and drills, collisions with Federal authorities, disbandment and final repeal of its charter by act of Congress. Numerous and costly engravings of its conspicuous officers will adorn the volume. In addition to which we have had an elegant portrait made of LIEUT.-GENL. JOSEPH SMITH, mounted on his favorite horse "Joe Duncan." This drawing by Mr. John Hafen, is twenty by twenty-five inches and will be beautifully engraved. It is designed to accompany the volume as a memento of the Legion.

The aim of the CONTRIBUTOR has always been to encourage and improve our Home Literature. The new volume will contain matter from the pens of many old friends, including Presidents Wilford Woodruff, Joseph F. Smith, Moses Thatcher, F. M. Lyman, Geo. Reynolds, O. F. Whitney, B. H. Roberts, J. M. Tanner, J. E. Talmage, Emmeline B. Wells, A. J. Crocheron, M. M. Johnson (Ruby Lamont), and others, besides introducing the names of a large number of new writers.

The usual Prizes and Souvenir Medal will be given for a Christmas Story and Poem, and also a Prize for the best Serial Story based upon incidents in the Book of Mormon.

The Association Intelligence Department, under the immediate direction of the General Officers of the Y. M. M. I. A. will receive particular attention, and be made as useful as possible to the Associations. Officers are requested to contribute to this department.

Every endeavor will be made to make the Ninth a superior volume, and we confidently hope for its favorable reception by the young men and women of Zion, in whose interests it is especially published and all of whom are invited to write for its columns.

Subscription, per year, $2.00. Subscribers paying $2.50 in advance will receive a copy of the engraving of Lieut.-Genl. Joseph Smith, and may have their volumes bound at the end of the year FREE. Back Volumes for sale $2.50 each.
