A young Indian buck was quite an attraction to the passengers on the Utah & Northern train yesterday. He was six feet two inches high, broad-shouldered and well muscled, but not flashy. Some of the train induced him to step on the scales, which showed his weight to be 314 pounds.

LOCAL NEWS.
 Seventies' Conference.—The Seventies' Stake Conference will be held in the Assembly Hall, on Saturday, and not in the Tabernacle as previously advertised.

Robert Campbell, Clerk.
 First of the Season.—A meeting of the Patrons Debating Society will be held on Thursday, Sept. 10th, at 7:30 p.m., in the Ninth Ward school house. A full attendance of members is requested and a general invitation is extended to those desirous of becoming members.

By order of the chairman,
 C. E. BERRY, Secretary.

Sentenced to Fine and Imprisonment.—In the trial of John Mangum, the Italian who assaulted and brutally beat Daniel Lang, of Brighton, the evidence showed the case to be such an aggravated one that a fine of $20 and 30 days' imprisonment were imposed as a penalty. An appeal was taken to the Tenth District Court.

Illness of Ex-Mayor Jennings.—The numerous friends of Hon. William Jennings will regret to learn of the serious illness of that gentleman. He has been ill for the last two weeks and was supposed to be progressing nicely until yesterday evening, when he took a sudden relapse, causing great pain and prostration, which lasted till this morning when he became somewhat easier. We join with many others in a sincere hope for his early recovery.

Another From Utah.—The Scientific American of September fifth contains the following notice of a recently patented invention:

"A vehicle has been patented by John W. Burroughs, of Salt Lake City, Utah, Ter. This invention is a vehicle adapted to be propelled upon common roads by the power obtained from a coiled steel spring, which winds as the vehicle moves along, and provides a novel construction and combination of parts for such vehicles."

Off to Boston.—Brother Evan Stephens, well known throughout the community as a teacher and composer of music and a very genial gentleman, left this morning for the D. & R. G. for Boston, where he will pursue a course of studies in the New England Conservatory of Music to qualify him the better for his chosen profession. Arrangements have been made with him to act as special correspondent for the News during his absence, so that our readers will frequently hear from him. His numerous acquaintances, all of whom hold him in high esteem, will doubtless feel to unite with us in wishing him success while abroad and a safe return home.

A Magnificent View.—One of the grandest sights to be obtained in this region, or indeed in the world, is that which is now afforded from the top of the Temple walls in this city, that have now attained a height of 115 feet above the surface surrounding it, besides standing upon elevated ground. The city spread out like a panorama below, especially beautiful at this season of the year, as its houses are seen surrounded in foliage of varied hues, with a background of gently sloping hills and more distant mountains on the east and north, while south and west the broad expanse of the valley, dotted with smiling villages and skirted by the Wasatch and Quail ranges, and the placid lake present a scene of enchanting loveliness, one which the eye will not soon tire of gazing upon. Yesterday about thirty of the employees of the News were courteously allowed by the superintendent of the work to ascend the stairway to the top of the wall and feast their eyes upon the scene described, and they were unanimous in their verdict in regard to its grandeur.

CITY COUNCIL.

The City Council met in regular session last evening, Mayor Sharp presiding.

A petition was presented from E. F. Parry and a number of others, asking that the request of the D. & R. G. for permission to lay a track on South Temple St., parallel with the Utah & Nevada, and also feet north of it, be denied. The petition urged that the street was now almost inaccessible to teams and horses dangerous to children, the present network of railroads thereabouts was almost bewildering to foot passengers; the granting of the petition would depreciate the value of property, and no necessity existed for the additional track, as the D. & R. G. might arrange with the Utah & Nevada to run their road running past the gas works and up to the sampling mills. Referred to the committee on streets and alleys.

The U. C. Railway asked for permission to lay a track from the depot to the gas works. Referred to the committee on streets and alleys.

Francis Armstrong represented to the Council that he was being injured by the action of property owners on the south side of the city, in diverting the waters from their regular course. Referred to the committee on streets and alleys.

A communication was received from the green grocers' committee—Messrs. Brooks, Van Horn and Patton—calling attention to the fact that their petition of June 18th had not been enforced, and asking that it be reported on by the committee to whom it was referred, and asking the enforcement of the ordinance prohibiting peddling. The communication was laid on the table as the committee on markets had their reports ready.

Two reports were submitted by the committee on markets to the green grocers' petition, the minority report being signed by O. H. Scott. The majority report is as follows:

SALT LAKE CITY, Sep. 8, 1885.
 Hon. the Mayor and City Council, Salt Lake City:

Gentlemen—Your committee to whom was referred the petition of Messrs. Brooks, Van Horn and Patton, (a committee representing the green grocers of this city) asking that the markets be closed to the sale of garden products, etc., present our report thereon. We deem it impracticable to give effect to the petition, for the reason that Salt Lake City has no laws which can be used for the purpose in question.

However, the subject being referred to the committee on municipal laws, with instructions to report a bill for an ordinance relating to the sale of garden products, etc., in connection with this recommendation, we feel that we should report on the petition for the passage of such an ordinance, and signed by the green grocers and peddlers combined, dated August 10, 1884, was referred to the committee, but was never acted upon. We believe the passage of such an ordinance is the most feasible way of dealing with the question involved, in its present aspect.

Respectfully,
 ROBERT CAMPBELL,
 GEO. STREIBER, FELLOW,
 Committee on Markets.

After a second reading of the reports, the one made by the majority of the committee was unanimously adopted, and the petition was referred to the committee on municipal laws, with instructions to report a bill for an ordinance relating to the sale of garden products, etc., in connection with this recommendation, we feel that we should report on the petition for the passage of such an ordinance, and signed by the green grocers and peddlers combined, dated August 10, 1884, was referred to the committee, but was never acted upon. We believe the passage of such an ordinance is the most feasible way of dealing with the question involved, in its present aspect.

The police justice presented his report for August, showing the case tried, 19 dismissed, and fines to the amount of $1,330 assessed. Referred to the committee on streets and alleys.

The marshal's report of expenditures in his department for the month of August, showing a total of $212.50, was referred to the committee on police.

The supervisor of streets presented his statement of disbursements for the month of August, showing a total of $1,088.50. Referred to the committee on streets and alleys.

The superintendent of water works presented his report for the same quarter, showing expenditures $18,785. He stated that as a result of the cleaning out of City Creek and the opening up of fresh springs an increased water supply of 80,000 gallons per day has been secured to the city. Referred to the committee on water works.

The city poundkeeper presented his report, showing that twenty-one animals had been impounded during the six months ending May 31st. Referred to the committee on markets for inspection.

The following amounts were appropriated:

To Dog Tax Collector Williams, for registering 76 dogs in August, $76.
 To the U. C. R. R., for 13 axes and freight, $80.40.
 To W. J. Silver, for 8 wheels, etc., $27.67.

The report of the committee on streets and alleys, laid on the table last week, was taken up and referred back to the committee.

adjourned.

Sisters' Conference.—Conferences of the Relief Societies and Young Ladies' and Primary Associations will be held at Mantel, on Friday and Saturday next, and Sisters E. B. Wells and E. S. Taylor of this city will start out to-morrow morning to attend them. They expect to return on Monday, though it is possible that they may be induced to remain away longer, as some anxiety has been manifested to have them visit several of the other settlements while in that region.

Sisters S. M. Kimball, E. Howard and R. Pratt will go to Tooele on Friday evening's train to attend similar conferences to be held at that place on Saturday and Sunday.

The Relief Societies of Weber Stake will also hold a conference in Ogden to-morrow, the Young Ladies' Association on Friday and the Primary Associations on Saturday, at which it is expected that a number of visitors from this city will be in attendance.

Birmingham Conference Reunion.—The committee on the Birmingham Conference reunion at Fuller's Garden next Monday, are working with a will to make that gathering of old friends a time long to be remembered by them, and have issued invitations to persons outside of the city, as far north as Logan, and south to Nephi, which gives the holders of tickets a fair rates on the railroads, the time covering three days. The committee having the matter in charge is composed of Francis Crope, Jos. Argyle, S. W. Darke, O. S. Walsh, Thos. Green, Jas. Poatman, Mrs. Aubrey, Mrs. F. Platt and Mrs. E. O. Webb. They desire "Birminghamers" in a great city not to look for a special invitation, as only a general one can be given them, for fear that some few might not be thought of and would, consequently, feel slighted if not reached.

Attempts to Wreck Trains.—On Wednesday last a freight train on the Oregon Short Line ran into an obstruction which had been placed on the railway track, on a curve about four miles south of Soda-Springs. Ties had been fastened to the rails in such a way as to wreck a train from either direction. The freight was moving slowly at the time, and the engineer had been doing, coaxed on his way. A few minutes afterward a passenger train came along, and when quite close the engineer saw that the ties had been replaced on the track. The train was stopped, but not until the engine and one car passed over the obstruction. There were quite a number of passengers on board, and for the engineer's discovery a terrible accident would have occurred. The Union Pacific company offer a reward of $250 for the apprehension of those who committed the deed last night.

Swen Olsen, who burglarized the house of John and Ellen Olsen, at Risser, at Ogden, was captured at Cheyenne, has waived an examination and been bound over in the sum of $1,500 to await the action of the grand jury. He has not yet been able to find bondsmen.

Eugene O'Callahan was accidentally shot at the Carrie Leonard place, near Ketchum, Idaho, on Wednesday last. A companion pointed a Winchester rifle at him, while he was not loaded, and pulled the trigger. The bullet entered O'Callahan's hip, and inflicted a severe and dangerous wound.

Joseph H. Young, of Shoshone, Idaho, while trying to shoot a pig last week, became enraged at his pistol not working to his satisfaction and threw the weapon on the ground. As he did so it went off and shot him in the right side, the ball striking upward and coming out at his throat. He died about five minutes after he was shot.

An eight-year-old boy was killed last week on the Brunen River, Idaho. He was with his father, whose name is Taylor, cutting wood, when a cougar sprang out of the brush and seized him. The father ran to the house, got his gun, and shot the animal dead as it lay on the ground. The boy was too late to save his child—he was dead.

A brute by the name of Tom Roberts, residing at Lion City, Montana, last week outraged a young girl, a stock raiser's daughter, who was visiting him. To make sure of the man the miners of the place were required to stand up in line while the girl identified him, which she readily did. He was taken to Dillon for safe keeping, lest the incensed citizens should lynch him.

In the examination of Mrs. Marie, the woman suspected of having murdered her child and set it afloat in a box on the Weber river, before Justice Deert Ogden, her guilt was made so apparent that she was held to answer for the crime. Her husband, who is about 50 years of age, has not yet been able to furnish Miss Elizabeth Strigold with a bond of $500 to appear as a witness against her.

On Tuesday, September 1, a difficulty occurred between Wm. Garland and John Williamson, both machinists employed in the Utah & Northern road house at Spring Hill, Idaho, caused by the jealousy of Williamson because Garland received favors at work. Williamson, who is a shrewd, but soon returned with a revolver in his right hand and a four-inch dirk in his left.

When quite near Garland he commenced snatching the revolver at him. Garland dropped his tools and took the dirk, and in the struggle the two clinched, and in the struggle that ensued for the possession of the dirk, both fell. Garland was on top, and Williamson managed to make eight or ten slashes in Garland's body.

Nearly dismembering him—before they were separated. Garland got up and attempted to walk away, when he dropped to the floor in a fainting condition. Medical assistance was summoned and after an examination it was found that Garland had received a slight cut back of the left ear, one on the left side, opening cavity of the body and exposing the bone, (a portion of which had to be removed) and liberating part of the intestines; one on the right side of the head, and one on the left side of the head, and several of them are dangerous. Williamson was arrested and placed in jail, where he will be held until the result of Garland's injuries are ascertained.

Benefit Concert.—A complimentary theatrical in the shape of a benefit concert is to be tendered to Mrs. General Base at the Walker Opera House, to-morrow evening, in which some of the best talent in the musical line which the city affords will take part. The beneficiaries will also deliver some readings, in costume, from Will Carleton and other authors.

Fruit Pictures.—The other day an eastern lady, while visiting Mr. Savage's art bazar, was so captivated by two small paintings from the brush of Mr. J. T. Harwood, the young Lithuanian artist, that she purchased them to take to her home. The pictures are only a few inches square, and the subjects very humble. One represents a bunch of red and the other of yellow currants. They are gems in their line, being apparently as faithful representations of reality as can be made by pigments and brush in the hands of a skillful artist. As a painter of fruit pictures, Mr. Harwood shines. He produced a bunch of grapes that fairly stands out from the canvas in all its lucidness. It can be seen at Mr. Savage's.

Teacher's Association.—The Salt Lake County Teachers' Association will meet in the Fourteenth Ward Assembly Rooms, next Saturday, September 12th, at 11 a. m., to renew its labors for another year.

After his release he was again engaged by Sawyer as stable keeper and express wagon driver. Raymond was seen on Monday night, by a policeman, driving down the State Road. The officer stopped him and inquired his business, the reply being that he had been sent to bring a gentleman up to town.
