

UNIVERSITY OF UTAH

All the classes in the University are running as usual. The work in assembly began today in the rooms of the shop building.

Professor G. M. Marshall delivered a lecture before the students of the Salt Lake City High School Wednesday morning. His subject was "The Reading Habit."

Miss Bertha Rootes, a student of Stanford University, was a visitor Monday.

Professor Byron Cummings lectured at Mercur Dec. 31, on "Our Inheritance From the Greeks."

At Provo on Dec. 31st, he delivered a lecture before the U. C. T. A. His subject was "Greece in Art and Education."

Mr. Claude Richards, 61, N. has accepted a position in the public schools of Richmond. Mr. Richards is a member of the University Dramatic club.

The fourth year normals received their class pins Monday. The design is a diamond shaped body encircled with a scroll of purple enamel. Engraved on the face of the pin are these letters, '02, N. U. of U.'

Hon. James H. Anderson, chairman of the board of county commissioners, spoke at the chapel exercises last week.

The exercises next week will be conducted by Instructor H. R. Holmes.

Last Wednesday Professor Marshall addressed the Parents' class of the Y. A. at Provo on the subject, "Literature in the Home."

Professor Milton Bennion delivered a lecture on "Jerusalem" at Forest Dale last Sunday evening.

The freshmen will order their school pins next week.

The new music books for use in chapel have arrived. As a result the singing at devotional exercises is much improved.

Professor Marshall goes to Ephraim Friday, Jan. 11, where he will address the students of the Snow Academy. On Saturday, the 12th, he will lecture before Sanpete Co. teachers at that place.

The "Freshies" have issued a challenge to any class in the University for a game of hockey. They prefer to meet the sophomores.

On Thursday, Instructor McClellan's music classes were conducted by Mr. H. E. Giles.

This week there were five new students registered. This brings the total up to 667.

Yesterday morning Professor Stewart illustrated the ratio idea of teaching arithmetic by having a class of pupils from the seventh grade recite before the fourth normals. The rapidity and accuracy with which the pupils solved mentally, the problems involving position and specific gravity, was a complete surprise to the normal students.

At normal society yesterday Professor D. R. Allen exhibited with the stereopticon the American annotated photographer's set of prize lantern slides.

The other feature of the program was a solo by Miss Bessie Mayne.

At the Senate Thursday, President Elbert Thomas resigned. Dan Alexander was elected to fill the vacancy.

Misses Minerva and Louise Clark, who were graduated from the normal school in 1900, visited the University Friday.

Next Monday afternoon in room N. 32 the "Social League" will give the following program:

Violin solo Miss Janet Wittich
Recitation Professor Hancock
Song Mr. Gilbert
Talk, "Some Things to be Got Out of College Life" Geo. S. Gibbs
Recitation Miss Humphrey
Piano solo Elbert Gray

The Chronicle offers a prize of twenty-five dollars for the best patriotic college song; the maximum number of stanzas is six, the minimum number is four. The selection is to be in by Jan. 15. The offer is made to alumni ex-students and students. This song will be sung at the commencement exercises in June.

Mr. Ben Harker left today for a mission to Germany. A farewell party was given him in the Nineteenth ward Monday night. A number of University students attended the party.

UNIVERSITY TRAINING SCHOOL.
Principal J. E. McKnight returned to school last Monday. He has fully recovered from his recent attack of typhoid fever.

Last night the Parents' club was addressed by Professor W. M. Stewart. His subject was "The Speech Artistic."

The attendance at the training school was much better last week than it was before the vacation.

Miss Lenore Samson has been substituting for Mrs. Stephen. The latter will return to her school Monday.

Professor Stewart has been giving oral tests in the upper grades in arithmetic.

Commissioner James H. Anderson visited the training school Thursday. He expressed himself as being well pleased with the work done in manual training and domestic science.

SALT LAKE CITY SCHOOLS
Much regret is expressed at the contemplated removal to another part of the city of the family of Jas. H. Bouton from the Lincoln school district, where their children have always attended.

Miss Ida Parratt, who teaches at Mill Creek was a visitor at the Lincoln on Friday.

The following meetings are scheduled for the coming week: Sixth grade, Tuesday, Jan. 14, Mrs. Elliott; third grade, Wednesday, Jan. 15, Miss Pollock; seventh and eighth grades, Thursday, Jan. 16, Mrs. Elliott.

Mrs. Coray severed her connection with the Lincoln Friday. In behalf of her pupils, Miss Ellen Hodson presented her with a beautiful vase and a bouquet of American beauty roses.

Messdames Quiver, Bailey, Van Meter and Bogue were visitors at the Watson the present week.

Misses Zina Young, Alice Field and Inga Bjorklund of the seventh and eighth grades at the Lincoln school, visited the Quivir on Thursday morning. They were greatly pleased with what they saw.

Supervisor Wetzel held an optional meeting of teachers of beginners, first, second and third grades, at the High school today.

State Superintendent A. C. Nelson will address the pupils of the eighth grade Lincoln school on Thursday afternoon, Jan. 16.

Miss Shiell has resumed her work at the Grant.

Mrs. Angell substituted at the Summer on Tuesday, and for Miss Muna at the Union on Wednesday.

The Crescent society at the Wasatch has elected the following officers: Leslie Woodruff, manager; Frances Graham, editor with Wilma Burnester, Mabel Conrad, Nannie Berryman, Alma Peterson and Daisy Davis as associates.

Miss Mary Meeks succeeds Mrs. Coray at the Lowell.

A parents' meeting was held at the Lincoln school on Friday afternoon and, while the attendance was not large the interest was excellent. The subject of "Familiarity and Attendance" at school was discussed. Miss Nellie Pettit representing the school, and Mrs. Pardee the home. Others taking part were Mrs. Von Elm, Mrs. Glavin, Miss Harold, Miss Arnold and Mr. Webster. The program was enlivened by a piano solo by Miss Ruby Condie, who was heartily encored, and a vocal solo by Mrs. Glavin who sang with her usual acceptability.

In the Butte "Miner" of Dec. 29 appears the picture of Miss Helen Denny, formerly a pupil of the Quivir, this city, but at present a pupil of the sixth grade, Lincoln school, Butte, Montana. The picture of Miss Helen is accompanied by an essay on "Kindness to Animals," for which she received from the Humane society of that city the first prize, a solid gold medal, offered by the society for the best production from sixth, seventh and eighth grades. Her old class at the Quivir had the pleasure of hearing her teacher, Miss Williams, read the essay as an opening exercise on Friday and her schoolmates are very proud of her achievement along literary lines.

Mrs. Larsen of the Quivir, is pleasantly located with Mrs. Coates at 388 East Third South.

The teachers of the Quivir are re-joining over the return of Miss Kate McKee, who has recovered from her recent severe illness, and resumed her duties at the Quivir on Monday last.

Mr. McDermott was a recent Quivir visitor.

HIGH SCHOOL.
On Wednesday morning programs were given in both assembly rooms. In the senior assembly room, Window Smith, member of the Quivir, gave a class of 1900, sang two very good solos. Mr. Eaton then introduced Prof. Marshall of the State University, who addressed the pupils on the subject, "The Reading Habit."

Mr. E. D. Critchlow spoke to the pupils of the first year on "The Art of Taking Pains."

The art department is larger than it has ever been before. Five new pupils have enrolled for work since vacation, thus bringing the enrollment up to one hundred ninety. This week some very creditable work was done in water colors, calendars. Those deserving special mention were George Barriatt, Frank Moore and Anna Godbe.

Miss Claranah's classes in English have been reviewing work in mythology this week preparatory to the study of the Iliad next week.

Miss Yardley's first year algebra class held a very interesting contest in factoring Friday. Those who remained standing were Gertrude Clayton, Zayda Holwell, Walter Keyling, Edna Porcher and Ruby Malin. The contest will be finished next week.

Miss Buchanan's beginning Latin classes held a unique contest Thursday. They were to write as many words as they could in twenty minutes, giving only the first form. In the first division Loren Leary wrote 163, Paul Stevenson 133, Arthur Jennings 132, and Howard Jones 132. There were fifteen who wrote over one hundred. In the second class, Frank Rick wrote 149, Frank Rick 165, and Edna Murdoch 148. There were fifteen in this class also who wrote over one hundred in the allotted time.

Tuesday afternoon Mrs. Jennings' French classes attended the French play "Les Culinieres," given by the French section of the Ladies' Literary club at the club house.

Next Thursday afternoon a picked team from the basketball team will play a match game with the L. D. S. team at the L. D. S. gymnasium. The cadets expect to begin the gun drill Monday afternoon. The companies will be divided into squads under the command of non-commissioned officers who will be under direct supervision of the commissioned officers.

The cadets held their first ball last evening in the N. G. U. Armory. The hall was prettily decorated with flags, high school colors and palms. Refreshments were served by Franklin. The following officers constituted the committee on invitations: Captain Earl Smith, Lieut. Harry Bero, and Sergeant Paul Nelden. The committee on floor and arrangements were Capt. Alex. Thomas, Lieut. Max Brown, Lieut. Roy Bourne, Sherwin Davis, and Mark McChrystal, and Sergeants Lee Turner and Harnett Pratt. Music was furnished by Christensen's orchestra.

Mr. G. Y. Taggart's picture "Prayer" now occupies the place of honor in the shadow box.

Ruby Thompson of the first year class has gone to Logan to live. She will enter the Agricultural college.

Gilbert Peyton, a member of the freshman class, left Tuesday with his parents for New York, where he will spend the winter. They will enter the Lawrenceville academy.

The classmates of Bessie Tracy, a member of the junior class, were grieved to hear of her death, which occurred Dec. 31.

Lillian Anderson of Park City has entered the sophomore class.

Mrs. Ryan spent the Christmas vacation in Eureka. Miss Peterson spent a part of the vacation with friends in Ogden. Miss Goddard spent the holidays with her parents in Portland, Oregon.

Mr. Eaton went to Park City Friday, where he delivered an address before the teachers of that city.

The visitors for the week were Jessie Horne, Eva Hamlin, and Walter Evans, all of the class of 1901. Walter Evans returns to Stanford this week, after spending the vacation in Salt Lake.

L. D. S. UNIVERSITY.
Since the holiday vacation the missionary class has about doubled its former enrollment.

President Seymour B. Young spoke to the fulfillment of the prophecies of Joseph Smith.

The Rho Beta Pi has received a challenge to debate from the society in the University of Utah, but has not as yet accepted it.

A new missionary class has been organized to meet three evenings a week. It will be taught for the first six weeks by Elder B. F. Goddard. The class numbers 150.

The evening Book of Mormon class will not meet again till the 25th of this month.

Instructor Walter H. Durrant has resigned his position in the University to accept a position at Paris, Idaho. His classes are now taught by Professor Mills and Instructor Fairbanks.

Miss Lydia Weston, who has been very sick for nearly three weeks, is at school again.

On Thursday the preparatory department was removed from the Lion House to the Social hall, which has been fitted up very conveniently for them. This gives ample room at the Lion House for all the other classes of the Normal and High School departments.

English I is almost ready to begin the subject of argumentation. If a proper time can be arranged the class will be increased by fifteen or twenty others, who desire to take only this part of the work.

The total enrollment of the University has reached one thousand. In view of the history of the school, this is quite phenomenal. Nor does this figure include the evening Book of Mormon class, which numbers several hundred.

A very entertaining program was provided last Wednesday morning by the Rho Beta Pi society. The question "Is Our Nation Declining?" was very ably handled. This society has forty members now, and is recognized as the representative organization of the school.

About $500 worth of the Clark library of natural science has been received, and the books are now in a large oak bookcase in room 24. They constitute the finest single collection for the study of natural history ever brought to Utah. A second list is now being selected.

The trustees decided yesterday morning to put a new first-class floor in the gymnasium and to light the room with electricity. This hall will presently be used for dancing, basketball games, and other forms of amusement. The students are enthusiastic over this prospect.

BRIGHAM YOUNG ACADEMY.
Provo, Utah, Jan. 9, 1902.—Over two hundred new students have been enrolled since school opened.

Prof. N. L. Nelson recently lectured in Grantsville and Tooele.

Pres. Smart, of Wasatch, was a visitor at school on Tuesday.

Twenty-two of the academy teachers attended the State Teachers' convention during the holidays.

During the holidays, Prof. Hickman lectured before the teachers' convention in Kane county.

Miss Watson, '02, who has been teaching in Randolph, was a visitor at school on Wednesday.

Ten volumes of the report of the war department for 1900 have recently been added to the library.

The typewriting classes will now meet in room 3, which is much larger and lighter than the one formerly occupied.

"Literature for the Home" was the subject of Prof. Marshall's excellent lecture before the Parents' class on Wednesday evening.

The academy library has recently received Seton-Thompson's works entitled "Wild America," "I Have a Knife," "Lives of the Hunted," and "Biography of a Grizzly."

The opening of the training school has been postponed one week in order that work may commence in the new building.

Miss Luella Lane, who taught the second grade of the training school last semester, has decided to continue her course as a student. Miss Hannah Cropper has been selected to take her place.

The sub-freshmen have been divided in two departments, junior and senior, for the purpose of better carrying on the work.

On Monday day an athletic contest will be held to ascertain who is the best all-around athlete in school. The victor's name will be engraved on a silver cup donated to the association by Mr. R. A. Barney.

The officers of the academy have arranged for a course in law to be given under the direction of Mr. Wm. E. Rydahl, a graduate of the Michigan university. The course will be the same as that given during the first year at any law school.

The athletic association has appointed Saturday February 15 as the day for the preliminary contest between classes. The best athletes of each class will then compete for the after service which is held as a trophy.

A special course of nature study will be given this semester for the benefit of students taking training. The class will meet three times a week under the direction of Prof. E. S. Hinkley.

At the mass meeting of the Athletic association on Wednesday, H. L. Woodward was elected manager of the baseball team, W. A. Colton the former manager, is now a student in the Leeland Stanford university.

Mrs. Ida Dusenberry, who has charge of the kindergarten department, will go to Washington, D. C., next month to attend the meetings of the International Council of Women. Mrs. Dusenberry will read a paper before the council on "The Activities of Childhood."

The sixth and seventh grades of the training school are following Dr. Dewey's plan of having a specialist teach the various studies. Some of the best teachers in the academy will teach the subjects of which they have made a specialty. The academy is the first school west of Chicago to adopt this plan.

BEAVER BRANCH B. Y. A.

Beaver, Jan. 8.—School opens this week under very favorable conditions. With one or two exceptions only all the old students have returned and many new ones with them to join our ranks.

Apostles Woodruff and Clawson and President Seymour B. Young, who were in attendance at the Beaver Stake conference, visited with us on Monday morning and gave us many valuable instructions during the meeting, at which there was a good attendance of people from Beaver and elsewhere in addition to the students.

On Monday evening all met together for a short time, and listened to a program which had been prepared by some who remained on the grounds during vacation, and participated in a "handshake" in order to become acquainted with the new students.

Among those who are especially missed from our number is Bro. Amer Tamm of Milford, and Norman White of Beaver, the former having met with a serious accident before Christmas by having a horse fall upon him, breaking his leg, and the latter who has been very ill for the past few weeks with a lingering fever. We hope to see both to school again in the near future.

AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE.
Logan, Jan. 10.—Work was resumed on Tuesday, Jan. 7, with most of the students in their places. About fifty new students have been admitted, mostly in the winter courses.

President Kerr and Dr. Gowans represented the faculty at the State Teachers' association, though many others became members.

At the request of some members of the faculty, Professor Engle will deliver a series of Saturday afternoon lectures on Sociology. He has already lectured several times on this subject before the literary societies.

The "Societas" will now spend some time in the study of Churchill's "Crisis." Each member procures a copy of the book.

The walls of ten stories of the new building are now laid, and owing to the mild weather, work is advancing rapidly. The contractor says: "All there is to do now is to finish it, and it will be done."

Mr. Hill went to Ogden last week to attend a party given by Mrs. Baggby of the board of trustees.

Professor Linfield has gone to California to purchase for the college farm department a new herd of holstein and shorthorn cattle.

The domestic arts department is much crowded. About twenty new students have just been enrolled, and many others are making application.

Messrs. Burton Thomas, W. L. Quayle, N. P. Nielsen and Misses Mildred Fargson and Osband, who have been absent from one to four years, are among the new students.

Messrs. Williams and James of Malad are detained at home by a dead sister. They expect to return next week.

Miss Emma Lish, who has been two years a student in the college, died at her father's in the Fifth ward during vacation, after a long and painful illness.
