Johnny Chapman, one time king of the local saucer, and also manager of the same, has had a prosperous time of it in the cast, according to word just received here. ### BAT REFUSED ROOMS; AND FILES LAWSUIT

Philadelphia, Aug. 5 .- Oscar Battling Matthew Nelson of pugilistic fame en-tered suit for $10,000 in the United tered suit for $10,000 in the United States circuit court here today against George C. Boldt and Lawrence McCormick of the Bellevue-Stratford hotel, alleging that last Tuesday evening he presented himself at the hotel desk as an applicant for a room, and after being allowed to register was told that "all the rooms were either occupied or actually engaged."

This action Nelson construes, in his bill of complaint, as a slander against his standing in the world. He alleges other hotels might be influenced by the same motives as the Bellevue-Stratford, and his travel would be considerably hampered thereby.

THOMPSON'S DEMANDS.

'Cyclone" Johnny Wants Thirty-five Per Cent, Win, Lose or Draw.

"Cyclone" Johnny Thompson, a scraper of some ability in the lightweight division of the game, is a most modest little fellow; that is, if you don't care what you say.

Up in Butte the fight promoters are trying to bring together Pete Sullivan and Thompson in a 20-round mix-up. Johnny, no doubt, remembers the sound thrashing Pete gave him some months ago at Pocatello and therefore the loser's end looks good to him. He demands 35 per cent win, lose or draw. It is not likely he will get what he wants.

ACCIDENTS AND

RULES OF THE ROAD

Word of Warning Sounded by President Speare of American Automobile Association.

The widespread prevalence of automo-ask whether motorists really understand the rules of the road and how to ect in usual and unusual circumstances to maintain the safety so much to be desired. It has been pointed out that in many cases these accidents have been due either to ignorance of the ordinary rules of the road or to the supreme carelessness of automobile drivers in ignoring the simple regulations that conduce to safety.

A word of warning has been sounded by President Lewis R. Speare, of the American Automobile association, and his endeavors to control the present wave of recklessness have been seconded by the other officers and chairmen of the various A. A. A. bourds.

Many of the recent deplorable accidents might have been avoided by the other officers and rules and sane driving," said President Speare. "There is also too much recklessness in crossing railroad and surface car lines, as well as passing electric cars in city streets, when passengers are alighting. Again, many motorists in descending hills, even if not very long or steep one, persist in keeping practically the full power of their motor on. If more motorists would throttle down the engine, or totally disengage it while descending a hill, the number of accidents from this source would be materially decreased. When the motorists suddenly finds himself in a tight place while descending a hill under full power or even partially so, and he loses control of his car it is the most natural thing in the world to attribute the difficulty to the fallure of the steering gear to work properly, whereas, there would probably have been no trouble at all were the machine allowed to coast down gradually under its own momentum." to maintain the safety so much to be

SOME ORDINARY RULES. Some of the ordinary rules of the road which every motorist ought to know by heart and invariably observe are:

1. Keep to the right when overtaken by a passing automobile or other vehicle going in the same direction.

2. Keep to the left when about to pass another vehicle in the same direction, in other words, the automobilist should pass another vehicle going in the same direction on the lefthand side.

3. Pass to the right when meeting a

3. Pass to the right when meeting a vehicle moving in the opposite direcvehicle moving in the opposite direction.

Among the clubs that have recently been aroused to renewed activity toward preventing this widespread tendency to recklessness are the automobile clubs of Cleveland, Rochester and Syracuse. A vigilance committee has just been appointed by the Rochester club, whose object is to deal severely with members and chauffeurs who persistently exhibit recklessness and carclessness in driving, and a vigorous campaign is also to be waged against autoists carrying fictitious numbers.

President W. F. Bonnell, of the Cleveland Automobile club, has issued a general letter to all of the members calling their attention to the fact that the city ordinances are being violated every day. So flagrant has this become that the chief of police in Cleveland has ordered that bulletins shall be issued every 48 hours giving the numbers of cars which have been recklessly operated. President Bonnell requests the members to co-operate with the officials toward suppressing this evil.

"Co-operation in this," he says, "will be helpful to the automobile manufacturers, the individual owner of a car and to citizens in general."
