LOCAL BRIEFS.

A dog poisoner is now sheltering in the northwestern portion of the state. The animal which the dogs have taken victim to has died.

The police had just arrested a young girl named Grace Merritt on the charge of poising. She gives her age as 20 and says her home is in Wyoming.

An unknown man fell into the cellar of the Hotel Wyoming, breaking his head and slightly here. The fall was about fifteen feet. Northwest man brought him out of the hole.

Young mother of Major Richard W. Tamm, who had been married recently, was making the pipe when a shudder was immediately communicated.

An inmate of the county infirmary by the name of Mrs. Jane Lewis died and was buried yesterday afternoon.
She was born in London and was 25 years of age.

Mrs. Dutson, the wife of Mr. Devereux Slocum, Denver county attorney, is expectant and will be able to return to her home in a few days.

H. M. Chey, who was arraigned before Justice Farber yesterday on the charge of robbery, was sent back to the county jail to give the D. C. bands required.

The West Side Democratic and Community company appears in the Fifth Ward singing. Some thought such a company should join the First Ward, the church and the Tabernacle. That Bassett Tab.
Ant. will also be rendered.

Several gypsies, who have been camping near the Oregon Short Line depot, have come to town and are looking for a home to free themselves being held a guest. The gypsies claim that this is the last and last time that the animal will be received.

The next day there will be a gala time for the departure of Plum after the Chinese new year beginning at 12 o'clock last night. An as usual with the Chinese, the last was a great one, in the setting off a great number of fire crackers, and the multitude of fireworks will be kept up uninterrupted with feasts and rice, cakes, etc.

The attention of Mrs. Russell and Homer was called to a house at 45 west Second Street last night. Upon entering the place they found a young man Tom Brown, who was boasting a sum of money of the house who lately came from Phoenix, who was with the woman and last night, while the woman was in bed, entered the room and after securing her of intruders proceeded to beat her until she was down and unconscious.
The woman was arrested.

The funeral of the late Richard D. Barth was held yesterday at 10 a.m.
Mr. Henry of the First M. E. church delivered the funeral oration.
The services were simple and appropriate to the deceased. In the absence of relatives all arrangements were made by his law office, G. P. Shew. The interment was made in the cemetery of the late Barth, which is the same as that of the deceased.
