SALT LAKE OPERA COMPANY

Scores Another Grand Success in "The Mandarin" at the Grand.

E. J. Jones Meets With Severe Accidens - Waterworks Transferred -District Court Notes.

Yesterday afternoon E. J. Jones, the contractor and builder, while working on a house on 23rd street, was quite severely injured by one of the workmen letting a bunch of shingles fall on his head. The shingles were being drawn up to the roof by means of a pulley and up to the roof by means of a pulley and rope, and the bunch was not securely tied and fell, striking Mr. Jones a heavy blow, knocking him to the ground senseless. The workmen assisted him to the house, where he revived and was taken to his home, where medical aid was given him, finding that he was badly bruised, but it is thought he will be able to be out again in a few days.

THE SALT LAKE OPERA CO.

The Salt Lake Opera company came to Ogden last evening and presented at Grand that beautiful opera "The ndarin." The company in the past Mandartn." Mandarin." The company in the past has made a very glowing impression in Ogden and last evening was only a renewed evidence of the appreciation of the Ogden people of the ability of the company. They were welcomed here last evening and greeted with a large and appreciative audience, which was here in one continuous round of laughkept in one continuous round of laugh-tor from the raising of the curtain to the end, and loud applause greeted each net. The soloists were all encored loudly, their parts were ably rendered and great praise is due them with the rest of the company, for their masterly presentation of the opera.

WATERWORKS TRANSFERRED.

At the county recorder's office has placed on file the bill of been placed on hie the bill of sale, bonds, etc., in the transferring of the Ogden City water works to the new Ogden Waterworks Co.," which is owned by Messrs. Thomas D. Dee, David Eccles, H. H. Spencer, E. M. Al-lison et al. The new owners are now in possession of the system, the price paid by them is $400,000 in bonds se-cured by a mortgage on the property.

PROFITABLE ORCHARDING.

Weber county has always been considered one of the best parts of the State for fruit-growing. At the last State fair several Weber county fruit growers took prizes for the excellent size and quality of their fruits. Yesterday John Barker of North Ogden was in the city and in speaking with a "News" representative, had this to say of the profits of fruit-growing: "On sev-en-eighths of an acre of land on my fruit farm I have 134 pear trees planted and this year I harvested $300 worth of pears from that piece of ground." The trees, Mr. Barker says are young and all in good condition; they were

A Tramp's Narrow Escape from a Shocking Death.

Special Correspondence. Peterson, Morgan Co., Oct. 11 .- On Peterson, Morgan Co., Oct. 11.-On Thursday as a freight train was near-ing Peterson depot the engineer saw an object on the track which he thought was a bundle of clothes, but when nearing it, he discovered it was a man. He reversed his engine, but was so close to the man that it struck him, but he was not seriously hurt. It is sup-posed he had iaid himself down on the track to aleep. Special Correspondence, Springville, Utah Co., October 12.-The following unique invitation was responded to by very many: At Reynolds' Hall a social meeting of the friends of Mr. James E. Hall will be held on the fiftleth anniversary of his birthday, at 8 o'clock p. m. on Wednes-day, Oct. 10th. 1900. You are respectfultrack to sleep. Another young man was attempting to jump on the train and missed his footing, and got a good ly invited to attend and bring your plescratching up.

It was a unique affair, gotten up and participated in by friends in Mr. Hall's honor, for his selfsacrificing spirit in assisting the poor, the sick, the widows and the fatherless; not only of Springville but of other places in

Utal

The hall was decorated oppropriately, and on the north wall in large letters, surrounding the picture of the honored guest was the following: "Welcome, one and all. To the fiftleth birthday of J. E. Hall."
