REVIEW OF WOOL MARKET.

Boston, Feb, 13 .- The American Wool th and Cotton Reporter will say of the wool trade tomorrow: "The market has shown considerable activity and there has been a good-sized outward movement of the staple, which is re-flected in the record of shipments which aggregate over 4,000,000 pounds and the receipts, so far as can be learned, which we estimate at over four and a half million pounds. The business of the past week has been largely in territories, of which some good-size lines have been moved by severa houses, the estimate of these wools be ing about two million pounds. A good demand is also noted for fine unwashed and medium fleeces.

"The tone of the market, as far as prices are concerned, has been irregular and unsettled, the tendency of the whole in favor of the buyer, although prices are no lower as a whole than they were the first week. There is reported to have been some weakening in the West in certain quarters, but holders as a rule are still firm and are talking much higher prices than those which rule at the sea-board,

"The sales for the week in Boston amounted to 4,281,800 pounds domestic and 255,000 pounds foreign, making a total of 4,636,800 pounds, against a total of 3,939,400 pounds for the previous week." week.

The "Blue and the Gray" played to another large house at the Grand last night. The officers of the National Guard were present in force, giving a decided military aspect to the audi and putting it in entire harmony with the production upon the stage.

The production of "Nell Gwynn, which is underlined for the Grand next week, promises to be the most attractive offering yet put forth by Ralph E Cummings and his company. While essentially a cornedy of manners, Nel Gwynn" is replete with dramatic situa tions, made brilliant by sparkling wit The part of the orange girl who wins first the fancy and then the love of Charles II, is one of great attractive-ness. In the titular role Miss Laura Nelson Hall gives promise of outdoing her positive triumph of last week in "The Little Minister." Mr. Cummings will play the King and Miss Douglas has a most sympathetic and interesting part in the Lady Olivia in whose love affair with Sir Roger Fairfax, Gwynn so deeply interests herself. Nel new costumes made by Dazian, of New York, reached here today, and Messrs. Lewis and Goulet have about finished the scenery for the new production.

W. H. Brennan was busy with Prof. Stephens today in arranging for appearance of the big Sembrich Opera company on March 14th at the Taber-Gounod's "Faust."
