Editor Enquirer. Sir.-In your issue of the 25th inst., we noticed that a meeting of farmers had been held at the Court House, Provo City, August 21, will vou please give us a space in your paper to correct some statements published as having been made in said meeting. It is there stated that we did not object to having our lands overflowed by the lake, and that if the water were lower we would have to go further for our hay; and that others were willing to be recompensed value for value. We will state the facts as they are, and not draw upon our imagination. We were notified that a committee from Salt Lake City and county would be at the Spanish Fork depot on the 1880, for sale at this office. Mailed 20th inst., to meet parties who were directly interested in the raise of the lake. The party was met at the depot by Bishop Snell"and a committee of farmers appointed to meet them. The party was conveyed to the lake shore, they seemed to be very well posted with regard to what Office and be rewarded. would be most beneficial to us, i. c., have our land under water. They asked very few questions and visited very little of the land that was actually damaged; they did not seem to have come here to make a thorough examination, but as it appears have jumped at conclusions. We submit a few questions which we would be pleased to have answered. Who were the dozen that had objections? Was it not the other committee consisting of four persons, who represented about 30 others; the only ones the parties who said that if the lake were lowered, they would have to go farther for their hay? Have they got hay-land near the lake, or is in on the bench?
