

Monday

NOVEMBER 16 1909

3

OGDEN.

Understood

It is well understood by reliable dealers that

D. PRICE'S DELICIOUS Flavoring Extracts

Vanilla
Lemon
Orange
Rose, etc.

have constituted for years past the standard flavor in all the markets of this country. If the opinion of the best class of consumers is at all worthy of acceptance, they are the purest, strongest, and finest flavoring extracts in the world.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.

PROVO, Nov. 15.—Marriage licenses have been issued to the following couples:

J. O. Brock of Mammoth and Martha Garrett of Provo.

Stanley White and Temple Loney both of Lehi.

PREVAILED UPON TO TRY HIS TREATMENT AND NOW SHE IS WELL WOMAN.

COOPER CONVERTS GROW IN NUMBER

More Local People Join Daily in Praise of "Stomach Man."

MRS. E. M. FLEURY'S OPINION

Prevailed Upon to Try His Treatment

And Now She Is Well Woman.

BACK FROM LONG MISSION.

PROVO, Nov. 15.—Elder Wilford Booth returned from a seven-year mission to Turkey last Wednesday, accompanied by Mrs. Booth. This is the second mission Elder Booth has filled in Turkey the first being of four years' duration. During his last mission he presided over the Turkish mission.

On his arrival Saturday morning at 9 o'clock Elder Wilford Booth was coming from Turkey telephoned from Helper to his brother, Judge Booth, in this city that he was coming and asked the judge to meet him at the depot. The urgent reason for this was that Elder Booth had an Armenian family by the name of Ormanian with him. They have relatives in Salt Lake City. Elder Booth wanted to leave them in charge of some one who would help them to find their friends while he continued on to Salt Lake. Judge Booth did not receive the telegram and was not at the depot and as the Armenians cannot talk English Elder Booth took them with him to Salt Lake. From there he phoned to the Salt Lake office of the Western Union and arranged to have the telegram office for the telegram and received it at 8 o'clock on the 15th.

FUNERAL OF E. A. BRISCOE.

PROVO, Nov. 15.—Judge Noon, accompanied by his daughter, Mrs. E. A. Briscoe, arrived Saturday from Telluride, Colo., bringing with them the remains of E. A. Briscoe, who died last week. Funeral services were held in the Congregational church yesterday. Rev. W. H. Goodwin preaching the funeral sermon. A large congregation of relatives and sympathizers attended the services.

WOULD NOT PAY FOR MEAL.

OGDEN, Nov. 15.—O. B. Woto was arrested in a restaurant on lower Twenty-fifth street Saturday night and booked in the county jail. He was committing a meal without paying for it. Officer Bob Chambers happened to pass the restaurant just as Woto was threatening to "clean out the joint" and the Japanese proprietors of the place were endeavoring to collect for the meal served to Woto.

PROVO NOTES.

A. Mrs. Spencer and two children have been brought down from Tucker suffering from typhoid fever. They have been placed in the county infirmary for care and treatment.

There are now seven cases of smallpox in a mild type in Provo, all under control. The disease is not spreading, nor fear any great increase of the disease if the people will exercise care and report suspected cases to City Physician Hughes.

There is a prospect of eastern and local capital visiting in the erection of a big hotel in this city in the near future.

LOGAN.

The News is delivered by carrier every night (Sunday excepted) at 5 cents per month. All payments and complaints regarding delivery should be made to David C. McAllister, publisher for Logan, Saturday and Semi-Weekly News. Orders taken for Church works, Residence 47 South First West Street.

Carrier west side of Academy Ave.

Carrier west side of Academy Ave. Ind. 10-A.

PROVO.

The News is delivered by carrier every night (Sunday excepted) at 5 cents per month. All payments and complaints regarding delivery should be made to David C. McAllister, publisher for Logan, Saturday and Semi-Weekly News. Orders taken for Church works, Residence 47 South First West Street.

Carrier west side of Academy Ave.

Carrier west side of Academy Ave. Ind. 10-A.

B. Y. UNIVERSITY

AGRICULTURAL SHOW

Names of Prize Winners in Fruit, Grain and Vegetable Displays.

(Special Correspondence.)

PROVO, Nov. 15.—The exhibit of the B. Y. University agricultural department which opened Thursday evening and continues this week is drawing large crowds of people. In addition to the fruit, grain and vegetable exhibit there are also exhibits from the industrial departments of the university.

The following exhibitors drew first prizes: Apples—Grimm, Golden, 29 bushels; Pears—Star, F. S. Pease; Pears—Whiter Peartain; Theodore Parry; Waterhouse; James A. Lovelace; Rhode Island Greening; Walbridge F. Spencer; Gano, Walter Cox; Jonathan and Arkansas Black; Z. S. Taylor; Wolf River, Harvey Booth; Winslow, O. J. Terry; Stayman; Winslow and Ben Davis; Theodore Parry; Rome Beauty; Gano; Pearson; Pears—F. S. Pease; W. H. Berry; English Russet; York Imperial; Smokehouse; Peawee; John R. Stubs.

Grain and Vegetables — Wheat, Hans Anderson; barley, Peter Boyce; pop corn, Yellow Danvers onions; Walter Cox; corn, F. M. Snell; turnips, beet; celery; and radishes; W. Hardin; onions; E. D. Cartwright; beets; A. Lovelace; turnips; Fred Busch; potatoes; James A. Lovelace; turnips; F. Spencer; field squash; James A. Lovelace; manglewurzels; E. S. Hinckley.

FOURTH DISTRICT COURT.

PROVO, Nov. 15.—Alma Hitesman of Lehi came up for sentence Saturday morning. The young man who had left a single joint a few weeks ago, was sentenced to seven years in the penitentiary.

C. McReynolds, who forged a check on the First National bank of this city, was sentenced to two years in the same institution.

In the Fourth district court for criminal neglect, failure to provide for his children. He was sentenced to 60 days in the state prison. Defendant was given three months Monday to secure bonds for the performance of his duty in caring for the family, in which case sentence would have been suspended; he failed to get the bond and was therefore sentenced as above.

In the case of William B. Search vs. Joseph Smith et al, additional time to file reply to answer given till Nov. 27.

In the case of the application of Don C. Fulmer to restring the corporate limits of the town of Mapleton the case was continued till Nov. 27.

Estate of William H. Brown deceased; final account approved and distribution ordered.

Estate of Christina S. Taylor, deceased; order of sale of real estate.

DESPERATE BATTLE WITH MASKED HOLDUPS.

Wilson Brothers Capture Outlaw and Turn Him Over to Police—Pal Escapes.

OGDEN, Nov. 15.—On Saturday evening shortly before 8 o'clock, two masked men with drawn pistols walked into the Wilson Brothers grocery store, at 150 Twenty-eighth street and ordered Tom Wilson, one of the proprietors, and Clarence Tite, the clerk, to hold up their hands. They were about to comply with the demand when one of the would-be robbers caught a glimpse of George Wilson, who is a city councilman, seated at his desk in the rear of the building. Turning his gun on George Wilson, the highwayman was about to order him also to hold up his hands when Tom Wilson hurried a heavy weight at the hold-up, driving him a terrific blow in the face. He quickly recovered and fired his gun at Tom Wilson, the bullet passing within a few inches of Wilson's head, burying itself in the wall. Meantime George Wilson rushed up from behind and knocked the man to the floor. The other man, who had hurriedly escaped the front door, ran out and escaped in the darkness. A struggle for the pistol ensued and the revolver took place and finally George Wilson got hold of it and fired a shot or two at the highwayman's head. The latter was completely overpowered by the three men and the police patrol was soon on the scene with Captain Brown, Detective Peader and Detective Sheriff Murphy. At the police station the prisoner, the name of Elbert Wats, was arrested and stated that he lived in Suite, but that he came to Utah several weeks ago from New Mexico. He was searched and a return ticket to the Salt Lake & Ogden railroad was found dated Nov. 16. Local officers are inclined to think that Elbert Wats and the men who have been committing so many robberies in Salt Lake City and a description of them has been furnished to the Salt Lake officers.

SENT TO REFORMATORY.

OGDEN, Nov. 15.—Fred Bremer and Elmer Stewart, the two boys who were recently arrested by Juvenile court officers, and who had a number of pistol, skeleton keys, and other questionable articles in their possession, were committed to the Industrial school Saturday afternoon and it is hoped that the majority of those who have been committing so many robberies in Salt Lake City and a description of them has been furnished to the Salt Lake officers.

EE GETS $5,000 DAMAGES.

OGDEN, Nov. 15.—James Gee was awarded $5,000 for damages while working in one of the mine shafts for the Utah Construction company in Nevada. The accident happened Dec. 10, 1908. The judgment was rendered by consent of the attorney for both parties.

STATE ART INSTITUTE OPENS.

OGDEN, Nov. 15.—The eleventh annual exhibition of the Utah State Art Institute opened Saturday evening at the Ogden high school building under very favorable circumstances. Many well known artists and students and people were present and every seat in the large auditorium was filled. About 300 pictures are on exhibition in the various rooms. An address of welcome was delivered by Superintendent of Schools John M. Mills, and some special music was rendered by Prof. Spire Crum and Misses Kent, Donald, Hubbard, and superintendents of schools, acted as master of ceremonies during the evening. It is mostly due to his activities that the Institute was brought to Ogden, thus giving the people here an opportunity of seeing the work being done by Utah artists.

The public are invited to attend the institute every day from 9 o'clock in the morning until the same hour in the evening. There will be some one in attendance constantly to show visitors the work of art and to explain the merits of the exhibits. The Institute will be open for two weeks and during that time lectures in art and art work will be given by some of the highest in the profession. The lectures will be free and the exhibits are free, and the public are not only invited but urged to attend.

SENTENCED TO STATE PRISON.

OGDEN, Nov. 15.—In the district court Saturday afternoon, L. H. Marks, the young man who had left a single joint a few weeks ago, was sentenced to seven years in the penitentiary.

C. McReynolds, who forged a check on the First National bank of this city, was sentenced to two years in the same institution.

ESTATE TO STATE PRISON.

OGDEN, Nov. 15.—Fred Bremer and Elmer Stewart, the two boys who were recently arrested by Juvenile court officers, and who had a number of pistol, skeleton keys, and other questionable articles in their possession, were committed to the Industrial school Saturday afternoon and it is hoped that the majority of those who have been committing so many robberies in Salt Lake City and a description of them has been furnished to the Salt Lake officers.

STATE ART INSTITUTE OPENS.

OGDEN, Nov. 15.—The eleventh annual exhibition of the Utah State Art Institute opened Saturday evening at the Ogden high school building under very favorable circumstances. Many well known artists and students and people were present and every seat in the large auditorium was filled. About 300 pictures are on exhibition in the various rooms. An address of welcome was delivered by Superintendent of Schools John M. Mills, and some special music was rendered by Prof. Spire Crum and Misses Kent, Donald, Hubbard, and superintendents of schools, acted as master of ceremonies during the evening. It is mostly due to his activities that the Institute was brought to Ogden, thus giving the people here an opportunity of seeing the work being done by Utah artists.

The public are invited to attend the institute every day from 9 o'clock in the morning until the same hour in the evening. There will be some one in attendance constantly to show visitors the work of art and to explain the merits of the exhibits. The Institute will be open for two weeks and during that time lectures in art and art work will be given by some of the highest in the profession. The lectures will be free and the exhibits are free, and the public are not only invited but urged to attend.

SENTENCED TO STATE PRISON.

OGDEN, Nov. 15.—In the district court Saturday afternoon, L. H. Marks, the young man who had left a single joint a few weeks ago, was sentenced to seven years in the penitentiary.

C. McReynolds, who forged a check on the First National bank of this city, was sentenced to two years in the same institution.

ESTATE TO STATE PRISON.

OGDEN, Nov. 15.—Fred Bremer and Elmer Stewart, the two boys who were recently arrested by Juvenile court officers, and who had a number of pistol, skeleton keys, and other questionable articles in their possession, were committed to the Industrial school Saturday afternoon and it is hoped that the majority of those who have been committing so many robberies in Salt Lake City and a description of them has been furnished to the Salt Lake officers.

STATE ART INSTITUTE OPENS.

OGDEN, Nov. 15.—The eleventh annual exhibition of the Utah State Art Institute opened Saturday evening at the Ogden high school building under very favorable circumstances. Many well known artists and students and people were present and every seat in the large auditorium was filled. About 300 pictures are on exhibition in the various rooms. An address of welcome was delivered by Superintendent of Schools John M. Mills, and some special music was rendered by Prof. Spire Crum and Misses Kent, Donald, Hubbard, and superintendents of schools, acted as master of ceremonies during the evening. It is mostly due to his activities that the Institute was brought to Ogden, thus giving the people here an opportunity of seeing the work being done by Utah artists.

The public are invited to attend the institute every day from 9 o'clock in the morning until the same hour in the evening. There will be some one in attendance constantly to show visitors the work of art and to explain the merits of the exhibits. The Institute will be open for two weeks and during that time lectures in art and art work will be given by some of the highest in the profession. The lectures will be free and the exhibits are free, and the public are not only invited but urged to attend.

SENTENCED TO STATE PRISON.

OGDEN, Nov. 15.—In the district court Saturday afternoon, L. H. Marks, the young man who had left a single joint a few weeks ago, was sentenced to seven years in the penitentiary.

C. McReynolds, who forged a check on the First National bank of this city, was sentenced to two years in the same institution.

ESTATE TO STATE PRISON.

OGDEN, Nov. 15.—Fred Bremer and Elmer Stewart, the two boys who were recently arrested by Juvenile court officers, and who had a number of pistol, skeleton keys, and other questionable articles in their possession, were committed to the Industrial school Saturday afternoon and it is hoped that the majority of those who have been committing so many robberies in Salt Lake City and a description of them has been furnished to the Salt Lake officers.

STATE ART INSTITUTE OPENS.

OGDEN, Nov. 15.—The eleventh annual exhibition of the Utah State Art Institute opened Saturday evening at the Ogden high school building under very favorable circumstances. Many well known artists and students and people were present and every seat in the large auditorium was filled. About 300 pictures are on exhibition in the various rooms. An address of welcome was delivered by Superintendent of Schools John M. Mills, and some special music was rendered by Prof. Spire Crum and Misses Kent, Donald, Hubbard, and superintendents of schools, acted as master of ceremonies during the evening. It is mostly due to his activities that the Institute was brought to Ogden, thus giving the people here an opportunity of seeing the work being done by Utah artists.

The public are invited to attend the institute every day from 9 o'clock in the morning until the same hour in the evening. There will be some one in attendance constantly to show visitors the work of art and to explain the merits of the exhibits. The Institute will be open for two weeks and during that time lectures in art and art work will be given by some of the highest in the profession. The lectures will be free and the exhibits are free, and the public are not only invited but urged to attend.

SENTENCED TO STATE PRISON.

OGDEN, Nov. 15.—In the district court Saturday afternoon, L. H. Marks, the young man who had left a single joint a few weeks ago, was sentenced to seven years in the penitentiary.

C. McReynolds, who forged a check on the First National bank of this city, was sentenced to two years in the same institution.

ESTATE TO STATE PRISON.

OGDEN, Nov. 15.—Fred Bremer and Elmer Stewart, the two boys who were recently arrested by Juvenile court officers, and who had a number of pistol, skeleton keys, and other questionable articles in their possession, were committed to the Industrial school Saturday afternoon and it is hoped that the majority of those who have been committing so many robberies in Salt Lake City and a description of them has been furnished to the Salt Lake officers.

STATE ART INSTITUTE OPENS.

OGDEN, Nov. 15.—The eleventh annual exhibition of the Utah State Art Institute opened Saturday evening at the Ogden high school building under very favorable circumstances. Many well known artists and students and people were present and every seat in the large auditorium was filled. About 300 pictures are on exhibition in the various rooms. An address of welcome was delivered by Superintendent of Schools John M. Mills, and some special music was rendered by Prof. Spire Crum and Misses Kent, Donald, Hubbard, and superintendents of schools, acted as master of ceremonies during the evening. It is mostly due to his activities that the Institute was brought to Ogden, thus giving the people here an opportunity of seeing the work being done by Utah artists.

The public are invited to attend the institute every day from 9 o'clock in the morning until the same hour in the evening. There will be some one in attendance constantly to show visitors the work of art and to explain the merits of the exhibits. The Institute will be open for two weeks and during that time lectures in art and art work will be given by some of the highest in the profession. The lectures will be free and the exhibits are free, and the public are not only invited but urged to attend.

SENTENCED TO STATE PRISON.

OGDEN, Nov. 15.—In the district court Saturday afternoon, L. H. Marks, the young man who had left a single joint a few weeks ago, was sentenced to seven years in the penitentiary.

C. McReynolds, who forged a check on the First National bank of this city, was sentenced to two years in the same institution.

ESTATE TO STATE PRISON.

OGDEN, Nov. 15.—Fred Bremer and Elmer Stewart, the two boys who were recently arrested by Juvenile court officers, and who had a number of pistol, skeleton keys, and