BREVITIES.

Long division—Divorce.
Carpenter's language—Plane talk.
A welcome robber—the man who takes your part.
"Chicagoized" is the new name for divorce.
Saw handles and fine-tooth combs are now made from potatoes.
London's population increases at the rate of 240,000 a year.
Transactions in the New York Gold Room net almost $60,000 daily.
The Scriptures have been translated into more than three hundred different languages.
Napoleon intends making his court like Bonaparte's, by creating a corps of pages.
It is stated that the Carlton, the chief English Tory club, spent $1,200,000 in gold in the recent general election.
Fortifications are to be erected, at intervals along all railways leading from Paris to the German frontier.
An anti-sweating society has been formed among the operatives in a shoe factory in North Adams, Mass.
In the room of a wretched old man who starved to death in a garret in Paris, recently, 35,000 francs were found in a drawer.
The wife and daughter of a lately become New York millionaire receive daily instructions in reading, writing and spelling.
Work upon the California end of the 2 1/2 Parallel Railroad is being pushed off by March 1st, the road will be completed to Gilroy.
Homan, who married Old Bull's youngest daughter, in August last, and was one of Norway's best lawyers, committed suicide, recently, while temporarily insane.
In Michigan, a woman can recover from a saloon-keeper the money spent by her husband for liquor. Such a law is that would avert a great deal of suffering among the poorer classes.
A flag made entirely of silk grown and manufactured in California is to be raised over the capitol of that State.
Garibaldi talks fourteen different languages. English he last acquired in America in 1850 and 1851.
Kosuth makes a precarious living as a copyist of legal documents in Dublin. He left Dublin in order to avoid being arrested for debt.
The Christians is confident that the Kansas Pacific Railway will be extended up the Arkansas as far as Fort Lyon the coming summer.
An English newspaper speaks of New York as a "station on the notorious Erie Railway" and Chicago it calls a "frontier city."
A French Viscount has been kicked by a Parisian for insulting his dumb wife, whom the Viscount had followed and plied with importunities, on the principle that silence gives consent.
Witty sayings are as easily lost as the pearls slipping off a broken string; but a word of kindness is seldom spoken in vain. It is a seed which even when dropped by chance, springs up a flower.
The snow shed erected over the track of the Central Pacific Railroad is twenty two miles in length by sixteen feet in width and sixteen feet high. Forty million feet of lumber was used in its construction, and it covers an area of nearly 43 acres.
An Irish girl who responded the other day, to the inquiry of a South End lady, in Boston, as to whether she could make bread, by exhibiting her finger nails full of flour with the satisfied remark, "Shure I can, there's the marks of me making it two days ago," was indignantly surprised that the lady objected to her on the score of uncleanliness.
Young Stevens, of Hoboken, son of the late E. A. S., will, if he attains his majority, probably be the most opulent person in America. His real estate opposite New York has reached an enormous value, which, in addition to his other availables, will make him, at twenty-one, worth at least $150,000,000.
A very extraordinary association has recently been formed among certain aristocratic ladies of Paris. They have agreed to nurse their children henceforth at their own breasts, and to encourage other women to do likewise. Hitherto no fashionable lady in Paris, except the Princess de Metternich, has condescended to suckle her own children. If the new association finds general imitation throughout France, there will be a panic in the wet-nurse market.
Found at last.—The man who is not going to White Pine has been found at last, but has pneumonia, heart disease, liver complaint, cancer of the stomach, is in the last stage of consumption, thinks he is about taking the small pox and was anxious to spar his way into the pest-house. When questioned, he said he did not care about going to White Pine. He is the first man we have seen who did not think of visiting the new mines in the Spring.—Virginia Enterprise
If we may believe accounts from Sydney and Queensland, a slave trade of the most abominable character is now in full operation in the latter colony. There are regular man-stealing expeditions to the islands of the Polynesian groups, and the natives are kidnapped and forcibly taken to work on plantations in Queensland, or to those established in the islands of Fiji and Samoa. The better class of colonists revolt at the idea of such a system being carried on under the English flag, and are preparing to address the colonial and home governments on the subject.
