

DESERET EVENING NEWS.

The Oldest Newspaper

ROCKY MOUNTAINS.

NO. 55.

THE SUPREME COURT.

Changes in its Rules to Meet Hebrew Corps Case—Important Decisions.*TWO MORE STATES PROTEST AGAINST THE FORCE BILL.*The Authorities at San Francisco Seeking Information Regarding an Alleged Murder.

By Telegram to the News.

THE U. S. SUPREME COURT.

Important Changes in the Rules Announced.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25.—The United States Supreme Court today announced some important changes in its rules designed to meet the case of the Hebrew Corps. The changes are framed especially to meet Hebrew corps cases, and are the result of the Justices' recent meeting in the Justices' room yesterday. The most important change is a requirement that all appeals of cases and citations, unless specially ordered otherwise, must be filed within thirty days from the date of the Supreme Court's decision. Cases will not exceed thirty days from the decision of the lower court. Unless the record and cause is enclosed within a sealed envelope, it will be rejected by the court, if in session, and by the clerk during vacation time.

NEW TRIAL SCHEDULED.
 The Supreme Court today rendered an opinion directing that the cases of C. E. Cook and six others, convicted in the Circuit Court of the United States for the wanton murder of Texas, Kansas, and Missouri, be remanded to the trial court to be tried again. The trial court is to be held in the same place where the trial was originally held, and the trials were to be held in the same order as before.

Traffic Improving.

LEONARD, Jan. 25.—A large number of settlers have returned west on the North British line and traffic is improving.

Subsidies in Death.

NEW YORK, Jan. 25.—Harris A. Hunter, the murderer, has been sentenced to death by the court which was convened to try him.

Rejected Laws.

GILDEDON, Minn., Jan. 25.—In Bon Wan Township this morning Sheriff Abramson, aged 35, and his wife, Anna, son, age 10, and their infant, the girl had returned to many lakes.

Arrests and Trials.

MADRID, Jan. 25.—Spain accepted the proposal of the United States for negotiations at Washington for a permanent peace-making, relating to American trade with Cuba.

The Declining Sea Documents.

LEONARD, Jan. 25.—In the Committee on Foreign Affairs, Senator Morgan, in the course of his speech, indicated that the bill was of the opinion there was no necessity for an inquiry. Referring to a query, Foreign Secretary W. H. Seward, he said, "I do not think the hearing has been conducted in the present incomplete form." The next report on the condition of the sea-factory, he added, was due to the Secretary of State, and the bill was withdrawn without exceeding thirty days from the decision of the lower court. Unless the record and cause is enclosed within a sealed envelope, it will be rejected by the court, if in session, and by the clerk during vacation time.

A JUDGMENT REVERSED.
 The Supreme Court today rendered an opinion directing that the cases of C. E. Cook and six others, convicted in the Circuit Court of the United States for the wanton murder of Texas, Kansas, and Missouri, be remanded to the trial court to be tried again. The trial court is to be held in the same place where the trial was originally held, and the trials were to be held in the same order as before.

Murder's Condition.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25.—Senator Harlan is better tonight. The symptoms of blood poisoning which were manifested a day or two ago have disappeared, and Dr. Ward, who has been in constant attendance, will return to New York this evening.

Letter from Secretary Niblack.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25.—The President has sent to the Senate a special message concerning the Indians. The bill against the Indians states, "The question on which the case turned was whether or not, under the Thurman act, in computing the net earnings of Indians, the expenses incurred, taken into account, for running the road and for repairs, but for maintenance and improvements whereby the permanent value of the property is increased." The bill provides that these expenses cannot, under the Thurman act, be taken into account in computing the net earnings, and says that the Indians are to be compensated for any charges for improvements being taken out of the gross receipts before deciding the amount the government shall retain for the sinking fund.

Bank Closed.

KANSAS CITY, Jan. 25.—A special savings bank of the Wichita, Kan., Savings Bank has closed its doors. Liabilities, $31,000 assets, $75,000.

Not Scared.

LEONARD, Jan. 25.—Home Secretary Matthews says this is not truth to the statement made in the reports that there is a great dynamite scare among the authorities here owing to information received from American agents.

Attempted Suicide by Justice.

NEW YORK, Jan. 25.—The third day of the strange trial of George H. Davis, the New York City Land Association, David H. Lyman and Edward T. Jeffrey, which was a second attempt to re-open a section of the Thurman act, the Grant Locomotive Works of Paterson, N. J., at a mortgagee's sale. In this suit Mrs. Green claimed the right to recover on tendering to Mr. Hague $20,000 as recoverable for defendants.

CASE DISMISSED.

Betty Seven Could Not Reduce the Bond as Claimed.

CHICAGO, Jan. 25.—Judge Norton today dismissed the bill of Mrs. Betty Seven, her son against George M. Hall, Jr., and the New York Life Insurance Company, the Grant Land Association, David H. Lyman and Edward T. Jeffrey, which was a second attempt to re-open a section of the Thurman act, the Grant Locomotive Works of Paterson, N. J., at a mortgagee's sale. In this suit Mrs. Green claimed the right to recover on tendering to Mr. Hague $20,000 as recoverable for defendants.

The Case in Paterson.

NEW YORK, Jan. 25.—The Court opened the session of the Finance Committee in person, making a formal speech on the occasion.

Alleged Murderers Wanted in California.

CALIFORNIA, Jan. 25.—The authorities at San Francisco have asked for information concerning Steven E. Johnson, alias Harry Bell, under whose name he was known to have resided in that city last August. The charge is based upon the confession of one named Campbell, supposed to have been a member of the gang. The family of Bell reside in Columbia, Cal., far away from home when twelve years old, going to Brazil and Australia. Johnson returned engaged in piracy later, and had a number of personal encounters with his father and others, finally leaving for California.

THE WORLD'S FAIR.

West Virginia and Indiana Adopt Some Resolutions.

CHARLESTON, W. Va., Jan. 25.—The house today, after authorizing a resolution, passed, 40 to 29, a resolution that it would support the passage of the Federal election bill, that the state make no World's Fair appropriation, while St. Clare, West Virginia, is making a vigorous fight against it in the Senate.

INDIANA AND THE FAIR.

INDIANAPOLIS, Jan. 25.—The house today, after authorizing a resolution, adopted a resolution to the effect that the passage of the election bill would render the World's Fair a sectional affair. If that measure becomes a law, Indianapolis should be made by Indiana.

The democratic members of the house, caucused on the matter tonight, and a motion to make the resolution a party line, was defeated by the vote of the chairman. As there is not a full attendance, another fight against it in the Senate.

THE SUPREME COURT.

Changes in its Rules to Meet Hebrew Corps Case—Important Decisions.

TWO MORE STATES PROTEST AGAINST THE FORCE BILL.

The Authorities at San Francisco Seeking Information Regarding an Alleged Murder.

By Telegram to the News.

THE U. S. SUPREME COURT.

Important Changes in the Rules Announced.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25.—The United States Supreme Court today announced some important changes in its rules designed to meet the case of the Hebrew Corps. The changes are framed especially to meet Hebrew corps cases, and are the result of the Justices' recent meeting in the Justices' room yesterday. The most important change is a requirement that all appeals of cases and citations, unless specially ordered otherwise, must be filed within thirty days from the date of the Supreme Court's decision. Cases will not exceed thirty days from the decision of the lower court. Unless the record and cause is enclosed within a sealed envelope, it will be rejected by the court, if in session, and by the clerk during vacation time.

NEW TRIAL SCHEDULED.
 The Supreme Court today rendered an opinion directing that the cases of C. E. Cook and six others, convicted in the Circuit Court of the United States for the wanton murder of Texas, Kansas, and Missouri, be remanded to the trial court to be tried again. The trial court is to be held in the same place where the trial was originally held, and the trials were to be held in the same order as before.

Changes in its Rules to Meet Hebrew Corps Case—Important Decisions.

TWO MORE STATES PROTEST AGAINST THE FORCE BILL.

The Authorities at San Francisco Seeking Information Regarding an Alleged Murder.

By Telegram to the News.

THE U. S. SUPREME COURT.

Important Changes in the Rules Announced.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25.—The United States Supreme Court today announced some important changes in its rules designed to meet the case of the Hebrew Corps. The changes are framed especially to meet Hebrew corps cases, and are the result of the Justices' recent meeting in the Justices' room yesterday. The most important change is a requirement that all appeals of cases and citations, unless specially ordered otherwise, must be filed within thirty days from the date of the Supreme Court's decision. Cases will not exceed thirty days from the decision of the lower court. Unless the record and cause is enclosed within a sealed envelope, it will be rejected by the court, if in session, and by the clerk during vacation time.

NEW TRIAL SCHEDULED.
 The Supreme Court today rendered an opinion directing that the cases of C. E. Cook and six others, convicted in the Circuit Court of the United States for the wanton murder of Texas, Kansas, and Missouri, be remanded to the trial court to be tried again. The trial court is to be held in the same place where the trial was originally held, and the trials were to be held in the same order as before.

Changes in its Rules to Meet Hebrew Corps Case—Important Decisions.

TWO MORE STATES PROTEST AGAINST THE FORCE BILL.

The Authorities at San Francisco Seeking Information Regarding an Alleged Murder.

By Telegram to the News.

THE U. S. SUPREME COURT.

Important Changes in the Rules Announced.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25.—The United States Supreme Court today announced some important changes in its rules designed to meet the case of the Hebrew Corps. The changes are framed especially to meet Hebrew corps cases, and are the result of the Justices' recent meeting in the Justices' room yesterday. The most important change is a requirement that all appeals of cases and citations, unless specially ordered otherwise, must be filed within thirty days from the date of the Supreme Court's decision. Cases will not exceed thirty days from the decision of the lower court. Unless the record and cause is enclosed within a sealed envelope, it will be rejected by the court, if in session, and by the clerk during vacation time.

NEW TRIAL SCHEDULED.
 The Supreme Court today rendered an opinion directing that the cases of C. E. Cook and six others, convicted in the Circuit Court of the United States for the wanton murder of Texas, Kansas, and Missouri, be remanded to the trial court to be tried again. The trial court is to be held in the same place where the trial was originally held, and the trials were to be held in the same order as before.

Changes in its Rules to Meet Hebrew Corps Case—Important Decisions.

TWO MORE STATES PROTEST AGAINST THE FORCE BILL.

The Authorities at San Francisco Seeking Information Regarding an Alleged Murder.

By Telegram to the News.

THE U. S. SUPREME COURT.

Important Changes in the Rules Announced.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25.—The United States Supreme Court today announced some important changes in its rules designed to meet the case of the Hebrew Corps. The changes are framed especially to meet Hebrew corps cases, and are the result of the Justices' recent meeting in the Justices' room yesterday. The most important change is a requirement that all appeals of cases and citations, unless specially ordered otherwise, must be filed within thirty days from the date of the Supreme Court's decision. Cases will not exceed thirty days from the decision of the lower court. Unless the record and cause is enclosed within a sealed envelope, it will be rejected by the court, if in session, and by the clerk during vacation time.

NEW TRIAL SCHEDULED.
 The Supreme Court today rendered an opinion directing that the cases of C. E. Cook and six others, convicted in the Circuit Court of the United States for the wanton murder of Texas, Kansas, and Missouri, be remanded to the trial court to be tried again. The trial court is to be held in the same place where the trial was originally held, and the trials were to be held in the same order as before.

Changes in its Rules to Meet Hebrew Corps Case—Important Decisions.

TWO MORE STATES PROTEST AGAINST THE FORCE BILL.

The Authorities at San Francisco Seeking Information Regarding an Alleged Murder.

By Telegram to the News.

THE U. S. SUPREME COURT.

Important Changes in the Rules Announced.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25.—The United States Supreme Court today announced some important changes in its rules designed to meet the case of the Hebrew Corps. The changes are framed especially to meet Hebrew corps cases, and are the result of the Justices' recent meeting in the Justices' room yesterday. The most important change is a requirement that all appeals of cases and citations, unless specially ordered otherwise, must be filed within thirty days from the date of the Supreme Court's decision. Cases will not exceed thirty days from the decision of the lower court. Unless the record and cause is enclosed within a sealed envelope, it will be rejected by the court, if in session, and by the clerk during vacation time.

NEW TRIAL SCHEDULED.
 The Supreme Court today rendered an opinion directing that the cases of C. E. Cook and six others, convicted in the Circuit Court of the United States for the wanton murder of Texas, Kansas, and Missouri, be remanded to the trial court to be tried again. The trial court is to be held in the same place where the trial was originally held, and the trials were to be held in the same order as before.

Changes in its Rules to Meet Hebrew Corps Case—Important Decisions.

TWO MORE STATES PROTEST AGAINST THE FORCE BILL.

The Authorities at San Francisco Seeking Information Regarding an Alleged Murder.

By Telegram to the News.

THE U. S. SUPREME COURT.

Important Changes in the Rules Announced.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25.—The United States Supreme Court today announced some important changes in its rules designed to meet the case of the Hebrew Corps. The changes are framed especially to meet Hebrew corps cases, and are the result of the Justices' recent meeting in the Justices' room yesterday. The most important change is a requirement that all appeals of cases and citations, unless specially ordered otherwise, must be filed within thirty days from the date of the Supreme Court's decision. Cases will not exceed thirty days from the decision of the lower court. Unless the record and cause is enclosed within a sealed envelope, it will be rejected by the court, if in session, and by the clerk during vacation time.

NEW TRIAL SCHEDULED.
 The Supreme Court today rendered an opinion directing that the cases of C. E. Cook and six others, convicted in the Circuit Court of the United States for the wanton murder of Texas, Kansas, and Missouri, be remanded to the trial court to be tried again. The trial court is to be held in the same place where the trial was originally held, and the trials were to be held in the same order as before.

Changes in its Rules to Meet Hebrew Corps Case—Important Decisions.

TWO MORE STATES PROTEST AGAINST THE FORCE BILL.

The Authorities at San Francisco Seeking Information Regarding an Alleged Murder.

By Telegram to the News.

THE U. S. SUPREME COURT.

Important Changes in the Rules Announced.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25.—The United States Supreme Court today announced some important changes in its rules designed to meet the case of the Hebrew Corps. The changes are framed especially to meet Hebrew corps cases, and are the result of the Justices' recent meeting in the Justices' room yesterday. The most important change is a requirement that all appeals of cases and citations, unless specially ordered otherwise, must be filed within thirty days from the date of the Supreme Court's decision. Cases will not exceed thirty days from the decision of the lower court. Unless the record and cause is enclosed within a sealed envelope, it will be rejected by the court, if in session, and by the clerk during vacation time.

NEW TRIAL SCHEDULED.
 The Supreme Court today rendered an opinion directing that the cases of C. E. Cook and six others, convicted in the Circuit Court of the United States for the wanton murder of Texas, Kansas, and Missouri, be remanded to the trial court to be tried again. The trial court is to be held in the same place where the trial was originally held, and the trials were to be held in the same order as before.

Changes in its Rules to Meet Hebrew Corps Case—Important Decisions.

TWO MORE STATES PROTEST AGAINST THE FORCE BILL.

The Authorities at San Francisco Seeking Information Regarding an Alleged Murder.

By Telegram to the News.

THE U. S. SUPREME COURT.

Important Changes in the Rules Announced.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25.—The United States Supreme Court today announced some important changes in its rules designed to meet the case of the Hebrew Corps. The changes are framed especially to meet Hebrew corps cases, and are the result of the Justices' recent meeting in the Justices' room yesterday. The most important change is a requirement that all appeals of cases and citations, unless specially ordered otherwise, must be filed within thirty days from the date of the Supreme Court's decision. Cases will not exceed thirty days from the decision of the lower court. Unless the record and cause is enclosed within a sealed envelope, it will be rejected by the court, if in session, and by the clerk during vacation time.

NEW TRIAL SCHEDULED.
 The Supreme Court today rendered an opinion directing that the cases of C. E. Cook and six others, convicted in the Circuit Court of the United States for the wanton murder of Texas, Kansas, and Missouri, be remanded to the trial court to be tried again. The trial court is to be held in the same place where the trial was originally held, and the trials were to be held in the same order as before.

Changes in its Rules to Meet Hebrew Corps Case—Important Decisions.

TWO MORE STATES PROTEST AGAINST THE FORCE BILL.

The Authorities at San Francisco Seeking Information Regarding an Alleged Murder.

By Telegram to the News.

THE U. S. SUPREME COURT.

Important Changes in the Rules Announced.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25.—The United States Supreme Court today announced some important changes in its rules designed to meet the case of the Hebrew Corps. The changes are framed especially to meet Hebrew corps cases, and are the result of the Justices' recent meeting in the Justices' room yesterday. The most important change is a requirement that all appeals of cases and citations, unless specially ordered otherwise, must be filed within thirty days from the date of the Supreme Court's decision. Cases will not exceed thirty days from the decision of the lower court. Unless the record and cause is enclosed within a sealed envelope, it will be rejected by the court, if in session, and by the clerk during vacation time.

NEW TRIAL SCHEDULED.
 The Supreme Court today rendered an opinion directing that the cases of C. E. Cook and six others, convicted in the Circuit Court of the United States for the wanton murder of Texas, Kansas, and Missouri, be remanded to the trial court to be tried again. The trial court is to be held in the same place where the trial was originally held, and the trials were to be held in the same order as before.

Changes in its Rules to Meet Hebrew Corps Case—Important Decisions.

TWO MORE STATES PROTEST AGAINST THE FORCE BILL.

The Authorities at San Francisco Seeking Information Regarding an Alleged Murder.

By Telegram to the News.

THE U. S. SUPREME COURT.

Important Changes in the Rules Announced.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25.—The United States Supreme Court today announced some important changes in its rules designed to meet the case of the Hebrew Corps. The changes are framed especially to meet Hebrew corps cases, and are the result of the Justices' recent meeting in the Justices' room yesterday. The most important change is a requirement that all appeals of cases and citations, unless specially ordered otherwise, must be filed within thirty days from the date of the Supreme Court's decision. Cases will not exceed thirty days from the decision of the lower court. Unless the record and cause is enclosed within a sealed envelope, it will be rejected by the court, if in session, and by the clerk during vacation time.

NEW TRIAL SCHEDULED.
 The Supreme Court today rendered an opinion directing that the cases of C. E. Cook and six others, convicted in the Circuit Court of the United States for the wanton murder of Texas, Kansas, and Missouri, be remanded to the trial court to be tried again. The trial court is to be held in the same place where the trial was originally held, and the trials were to be held in the same order as before.

Changes in its Rules to Meet Hebrew Corps Case—Important Decisions.

TWO MORE STATES PROTEST AGAINST THE FORCE BILL.

The Authorities at San Francisco Seeking Information Regarding an Alleged Murder.

By Telegram to the News.

THE U. S. SUPREME COURT.

Important Changes in the Rules Announced.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25.—The United States Supreme Court today announced some important changes in its rules designed to meet the case of the Hebrew Corps. The changes are framed especially to meet Hebrew corps cases, and are the result of the Justices' recent meeting in the Justices' room yesterday. The most important change is a requirement that all appeals of cases and citations, unless specially ordered otherwise, must be filed within thirty days from the date of the Supreme Court's decision. Cases will not exceed thirty days from the decision of the lower court. Unless the record and cause is enclosed within a sealed envelope, it will be rejected by the court, if in session, and by the clerk during vacation time.

NEW TRIAL SCHEDULED.
 The Supreme Court today rendered an opinion directing that the cases of C. E. Cook and six others, convicted in the Circuit Court of the United States for the wanton murder of Texas, Kansas, and Missouri, be remanded to the trial court to be tried again. The trial court is to be held in the same place where the trial was originally held, and the trials were to be held in the same order as before.

Changes in its Rules to Meet Hebrew Corps Case—Important Decisions.

TWO MORE STATES PROTEST AGAINST THE FORCE BILL.

The Authorities at San Francisco Seeking Information Regarding an Alleged Murder.

By Telegram to the News.

THE U. S. SUPREME COURT.

Important Changes in the Rules Announced.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25.—The United States Supreme Court today announced some important changes in its rules designed to meet the case of the Hebrew Corps. The changes are framed especially to meet Hebrew corps cases, and are the result of the Justices' recent meeting in the Justices' room yesterday. The most important change is a requirement that all appeals of cases and citations, unless specially ordered otherwise, must be filed within thirty days from the date of the Supreme Court's decision. Cases will not exceed thirty days from the decision of the lower court. Unless the record and cause is enclosed within a sealed envelope, it will be rejected by the court, if in session, and by the clerk during vacation time.

NEW TRIAL SCHEDULED.
 The Supreme Court today rendered an opinion directing that the cases of C. E. Cook and six others, convicted in the Circuit Court of the United States for the wanton murder of Texas, Kansas, and Missouri, be remanded to the trial court to be tried again. The trial court is to be held in the same place where the trial was originally held, and the trials were to be held in the same order as before.

Changes in its Rules to Meet Hebrew Corps Case—Important Decisions.

TWO MORE STATES PROTEST AGAINST THE FORCE BILL.

The Authorities at San Francisco Seeking Information Regarding an Alleged Murder.

By Telegram to the News.

THE U. S. SUPREME COURT.

Important Changes in the Rules Announced.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25.—The United States Supreme Court today announced some important changes in its rules designed