MEMORY OF MURPHY

Revolutions of Respect to the Late Lamented Attorney,
ADOPTED BY THE SUPREME COURT

Attorney General Bishop's Inquiry of the Deceased—Remarks by Chief Justice Zane.

Owing to the pressure upon the News space last evening the following report of yesterday's Supreme court proceedings was omitted although in type. It was the beginning of the May term and Chief Justice Zane, Justice Minor and District Judge Charles H. Hart were on the bench. A large number of members of the bar were present when court opened.

Attorney General Bishop introduced resolutions of respect to a memory of the late Walter H. Murphy. Chief Justice Zane made a few remarks, referring to the sterling qualities of the deceased, and made the order that the resolutions be read upon the minutes of the court.

RESOLUTIONS ADOPTED.
After the reading of the minutes of the last session of court, Attorney Bishop arose and said:

May it please the court, at a recent meeting of the bar the following resolutions were adopted in respect to the memory of our late brother, Walter H. Murphy, and the attorney general was unanimously determined to present them to the court, suitable resolutions of condolement. Objection to this request, I now ask leave to submit the resolutions:

In Memoriam.
WALTER H. MURPHY.
A member of the Utah bar, died at Salt Lake, February 11, 1897, aged 50 years, a native of New York.
Remains of members of Salt Lake bar, February 12, 1897.

Walter Murphy was a high-minded, honorable man in all his relations. Endowed with high moral standards, all the life he had been a true and sincere friend to all who came in contact with him. He was a man of high character, and his memory will be a source of inspiration to all who follow him.

FOR THE PIONEER JUBILEE A Suggestion for Representation of SALT LAKE CITY, May 10, 1897.

To the Editor:

While reading the Daily Report of yesterday's jubilee, as published in the Tribune, I observed to my mind:
If I could see Chairman Spencer Clawson and praise his selection long enough I would suggest: How much pleasure it would afford me to see the name of such of the 140 Pioneers, mentioned on a separate banner and borne in the procession by some survivor or one of their descendants.

In case no one is represented in person or descendant, let his name occupy a banner, stating the facts; and it could be attached to the saddle of a riderless horse or the vacant seat of a conveyance counted in the first company of Pioneers of 1847.

These valiant men and women are the ones whose names and record we want to perpetuate in the memory of our people. It is a noble and patriotic deed to do this, and it is one which should be done by all of us.

Next to them we want to see the names and number of descendants in the procession. It is a noble and patriotic deed to do this, and it is one which
should be done by all of us.

Very well, I will remember seeing one of these companies take their departure from the city. It is a noble and

The Best Remedy for Rheumatism.

From the Publishers (S. J.) Register.

Mr. James H. Henshaw at the village states that for twenty-five years his wife has been a sufferer from rheumatism.
A few nights ago she was in such pain that she was nearly crazy.
She said Mr. H. Henshaw had been at the village of Chamberlain's Pain Remedy and instead of going for the physician he had the doctor secure a bottle of it. His wife did not suffer at all. Mr. Henshaw's purchase of Chamberlain's Pain Remedy was a blessing to him and his wife. He had been suffering from rheumatism for many years and it was a relief to him to find a remedy that would cure him.
