14 FIFTY-TWO KILLED BY COLLAPSE OF HOTEL

Building Was Uncompleted and Guests Were Dancing at The Time.

SEVENTY DANGEROUSLY HURT

Accident is Attributed to Carlessness Of Those Making Repairs.

Kagold, Black Forest, Germany, April 5 .- Fifty-two persons were killed and 70 dangerously injured today by the collapse of the Hotel Zum Hirschon. The building had not been fully completed and the catastrophe is attributed to the non-observance of proper precautions. The roof of the building had only been put in place this morning, an event which, in accordance with German custom, was celebrated by a feast.

man custom, was celebrated by a feast. The guests were reported to have en-gaged in a dance and this, together with the large number of persons on the floor, probably was what caused the building to collapse. The accident is attributed to carelass-ness on the part of those who were making repairs on the building, which ad been raised five feet from the ground in order to give more space for the lower story. The work began early in the morning, and was supposed to have been finished at noon. The keeper of the hotel invited the workmen and a large number of townspeople to a grand dinner.

The company assembled in the middle banquet room and was drinking the health of the builder and landlord when suddenly a crash was heard above. A score of those in the banquet room jumped from the windows and doors in ime to escape when the house came down down. The town tonight presents an inde-scribable scene of horror and grief. There is hardly a family but has lost one or more members. The villagers and people of the surrounding country are inquiring for their relatives. The dead are laid out in the town hall, ad-jacent to the scene of the disaster. The work of rescue is still proceeding, but the full losses will not be known until

GEN. KLEGELS STRIKEN.

St. Petersburg, April 5.-Gen, Kleg-els, who was formerly prefect of St. Petersburg and later governor-general of Kieff, and one of the most detested men in Russia, has suffered a stroke of apoplexy at his home here. His condition is serious. Gen, Klegels, who was in control of the St. Petersburg police during the

DRAGOONS GUARD PIT MOUTH.

Crowds of Women Continue to Stir up Disorder, Pelting Troops and Denouncing Engineers.

Lens, France, April 5 .- The night passed without any further incidents. The number of striking miners has slightly increased, and the salvage work at Courrieres continues without result up to the present time. A double line of gendarmes and dragoons surrounded the pit mouth, holding back the crowds of women who continue to foment disorder, pelting the roops and denouncing the engineers as murderers and bandits.

The salvage men coming up from the mine report that there are no traces of any living men. Many doctors have arrived here in the expectation of being of assistance in the case of further resues of miners. The populace, though much excited, has now practically abandoned further

The salvage crews are utterly fatigued. They encountered deleterious gases, compelling a cessation of op-erations for some hours today.

The strikers generally are quiet, availing the meeting of the miners' congress on Friday. A large gathering of miners today informally discussed the companies' concessions and resolved to petition their congress to continue the strike. There have been slight collisions be-tweent troops and strikers in several districts, but few arrests have been made.

NEW YORK INSURANCE BILLS.

Albany, N.Y., April 5.—The bills pro-posed by the special investigating committee passed another stage of their progress today toward the statue books in the senate committee of the whole. Of the bills introduced by the com-mittee (originally ten, but since consolidated into seven), four have passed the assembly and are on the stage of third reading or final passage in the senate, on the way to the governor, These are the bills designed:

(1) To restrict lobbying by requiring registry of "legislative agents:" (2), relative to the asquisition of real prop-erty by life insurance companies: (3), making contradictory statements under oath pesumptive evidence of perjury, and (4), forbidding rebates. A fifth the bill further penalizing falsification or omission of material matters in the books and records of corporations, has passed the assembly, but was amend-od in the senate today in a comparaod in the senate today in a compara-tively unimportant particular, and al-though, like the others, it was advanced to third reading, if the senate adopts this amendment the bill must return to the assembly for concurrence. The so-called "big bill," generally amending the insurance law and em-bodying most of the radical reforms in insurance methods, was advanced to third reading in the senate today, but has not yet been acted upon by the as-sembly, where it is expected to be on the third reading calendar next Monday the third reading calendar next Monday night. The seventh bill, that forbidding campaign contributions by corporations, was temporarily laid on the table to-day, with the consent of its friends, pending consultation of the committee day. opight with its counsel, Charles E, Hughes, as to the suggestion that the bill was unconstitutional in its provision relative to immunity of witnesses testifying as to their participation in the forbidden contributions.
