Solid merit will tell.

For all the bitter opposition of jealous rivals, no better illustration could be had of this fact than the immense sale already attained by the great Throat and Lung Remedy, Dr. Aug. Kaiser's German Elixir. For the cure of Coughs and Bronchial Affections, it is truly wonderful, even those suffering from Consumption in advanced stages find great relief, and numbers of patients have found their cure. It is perfectly harmless, makes it at once popular with mothers, who of all others have felt the necessity of such a medicine. The genuine bears the Prussian Coat of Arms, the fac-simile signature of Dr. Aug. Kaiser, and has his name blown on every 75 cent bottle. A trial size may be had for 25 cents.

For sale, wholesale and retail, by the Z. C. M. I. Drug Department and Moore Allen & Co., Salt Lake City. 127 61

It is in Subject Matter

To let the teeth perish for want of proper care. Yet how many totally neglect them. Such people are properly punished by the toothache. Why don't they use ROZODONT and insure one of the greatest boons conferred on mankind—a good set of teeth.

WHAT ANYONE MAY SEE.

Anyone who will examine the list of Centennial Awards will see that the manufacture of Benson's Caprine Plaster received the highest and only medal award to plaster.

What Cannot Be Seen

In this list is the name of any of their numerous competitors. So greatly superior to ordinary porous plaster and liniments is Benson's Caprine Plaster, that it has gained the approval of the highest medical authority in the world. Dr. J. N. H. Thompson, of Washington, D. C., in the Drug Department of the Centennial Exposition, says of them: "I use them constantly in my practice, and esteem them one of the most useful inventions of the age."

Benson's Caprine Plaster. Plaster strengthens, soothes, stimulates a beautiful circulation of the blood, relieves all kinds of rheumatism, neuralgia, spinal and kidney affections, sciatica, lumbago, stiff joints, etc. Sold everywhere. Price, 25c. Take no other.

BE CAUTIONS.

There are imitations of Benson's Caprine Plaster in the market; one in particular having a similar sounding name, contains lead poison. Each genuine Benson's Caprine Plaster has the word "Caprine" cut through the plaster. Take no other.

PUBLISHED TESTIMONY

establishes the fact that SCOVILL'S BLOOD AND LIVER SYRUP is a sterling remedy for scrofulous and syphilitic disorders of a formidable type. Also that it cures white swelling, carbuncles, eruptive maladies of all kinds, gout and rheumatism. It moreover promotes a secretion and flow of healthy bile and directs it into the proper channels. The deplorable ailments produced by mercury are also remedied by it. Druggists sell it.

Important to Farmers.

When Brindley, or Bess, or Spot, shows the slightest signs of sickness, do you not take immediate measures to relieve her? So, too, when Billy and Kit, your favorite colts, betray symptoms of disease, you search the "Farrier" for the indicated malady and its remedy, or it may be you summon the nearest veterinary surgeon. All very wise and prudent. But is not that alluring son or daughter far dearer to you than all the horses and cattle in your stable? Yet for weeks, it may be months, or even a year, he or she has complained of a sense of languor, or drowsiness, and debility, with occasional headache—the sure forerunners of disease. Or it may be the face, once blooming with the hues that only health and the pure, invigorating country air can give, has become pallid, and the eyes unattractively bright. You may have noticed the slight dry cough at early morning and night, and have attributed it to a cold. Do not delay to secure the proper means for relief. A month's neglect may cost you a lifetime of remorse. Read the People's Common Sense Medical Adviser (endorsed by the New York Tribune as a book for the people), in which you will find a complete description of diseases—their causes, symptoms, and proper treatment. Sixth revised edition (nearly 1,000 pages), $1.50. Address the author, R. V. Pierce, M. D., World's Dispensary and Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y.

Arizona Items.—From a letter by Elder David P. Kimball, written at Blackbury, Mohave County, Arizona, to a lady in this city, we learn some interesting items of the southern country.

Salt River Valley, where a large number had located, was larger than

Salt Lake, Utah and Cache

vallies, all together, though not so naturally fruitful.

The climate was beautiful nine months in the year, the thermometer ranging in the summer from 50 to 112 in the shade.

Sweet potatoes, peas, figs, peaches, grapes, sugar cane, and all kinds of fruit necessary to the comfort of the settlers, were raised, and a good quality of brown sugar and syrup manufactured, much superior to the Utah sorghum.

The Salt River was plentifully stocked with fish. Flour, corn meal, etc., as good as could be made anywhere, was furnished in abundance.

The brethren of Mesa City had accomplished a good work in getting water from a source five miles away, to facilitate their labor, and Mesa was situated in a place which predicted its future importance as a city, though Phoenix, as regarded as it was by the farming and mining interests, would undoubtedly take the lead.

Those who go to Arizona should do so after the summer months are over, as they will then find better natural accommodations on the route.

Street Items.—A dashing span of gray horses was being quietly driven down the Theatre hill this morning, but before they reached the foot of it they had acquired considerable speed. The driver at tempted to check them, but the pressure of the harness was too much for them; and they forthwith commenced kicking up and rearing, and finally started to run. The driver contrived to keep them in the centre of the road, but was unable to stop their mad career, and they went flying down the State

Road.

A country youth had just come out of a saloon, and was about to
