WASHINGTON NOTES.

From the Washington Star, Oct

Secretary Bristow proposes to dis-charge all but one of any family having two or more members em-ployed in the department, and at the very threshold of the proposed reform the mother-in-law question ooms up, thusly: When a man and his wife's mother are both employ-ed, which, if either, should "step down and out?"

The new one dollar legal tender Theatre.-- "Jack Harkaway" is a note has upon its back two large cross lines, which form almost the fraught with fun of a juvenilistic character, some of the scenes being very ludicrous and eliciting corres-ponding applause. This evening that play will be repeated, preceded by the comic munical sketch of tiOners Mad "in musical sketch of "Opera Mad," in which L. H. Stevenson will as-sume the roll of "Polly Smith, alias Signorita Screecharina." The beautiful drama of "Christie Johnson" is in rehearsal. Many instances have received them for tea dollar bills, and the Treas-ury is advised that quite a profit-able business has been carried on by some scamps in this way.
